Southern Illinois (12-12, 5-8 MVC) at Valparaiso (6-20, 2-12 MVC)

Game No. 27 – Sunday, Feb. 24, 2019 – 1 p.m. CT
Athletics-Recreation Center (5,000) – Valparaiso, Ind.

Next Up in Valpo Basketball: The Valparaiso University women's basketball team will host its annual Pink Game on Sunday afternoon at the Athletics-Recreation Center in support of breast cancer awareness. Seven survivors will be honored before the game, and pink gear will be sold throughout the day with proceeds to benefit the American Cancer Society. In addition, the first 200 fans to arrive for the game against Southern Illinois will receive a replica Victory Bell.

Last Time Out: Valpo showed significant strides from its first meeting with Missouri State in a 77-58 loss to the Lady Bears on Friday night at the Athletics-Recreation Center while playing a team that is tied atop The Valley standings. Addison Stoller equaled a career best with 22 points, while Grace Hales joined her in double figures with 11. Missouri State held a 21-8 edge on the offensive glass and outdid Valpo in second-chance points 22-4.

Following Valpo: Sunday's game will air on ESPN3, which is available free of charge with a cable subscription. Dave Huseman (play-by-play) and Jamie Stangel (color commentary) will have the call. Typical women's radio voice Ben Ariano will miss Sunday's game, but Garrett Willis will fill in capably on 95.1 FM. Links to video, audio and live stats will be available on ValpoAthletics.com. For in-game updates, follow @ValpoWBB on Twitter.

Head Coach Mary Evans: Mary Evans is in her first year as the head coach of the Valparaiso University women's basketball program in 2018-2019. Evans, who spent the last five seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio University, became the eighth head coach in program history on April 13, 2018. She brought 15 years of Division I experience with her to Valpo. During her time on Ohio's staff under head coach Bob Boldon, Evans helped the Bobcats to three seasons of 22 wins or more, three postseason appearances and three Top 75 RPI finishes. The 2014-15 team established a school record with 27 wins, a 21-win improvement from two years earlier and an 18-win improvement from the previous season. The Bobcats won the 2014-15 MAC regular season and tournament titles and reached the NCAA Tournament. Evans has also coached at Youngstown State, Georgia Southern, South Carolina Aiken and Seton Hall.

was a memorable one, as Valpo suffered an 88-86 double-overtime setback. Southern Illinois had a 66-63 lead with 2.3 seconds left when Maya Meredith knocked down a half-court buzzer-beater to send the game to overtime. The shot made SportsCenter's Top 10 plays the next morning. That was just the fifth double overtime game in program history and the first since 2006. Valpo fell 74-63 when the two teams locked horns in Carbondale a year ago, while this year's first meeting belonged to the Salukis 87-65 on Jan. 27 in Carbondale. Addison Stoller was a bright spot for Valpo, posting career highs in points (22) and rebounds (11) to become the first Valpo player with a 20&10 game since Dani Franklin in December 2017 against Chicago State. Valpo had not played the Salukis prior to last season, so Southern Illinois leads the all-time set 3-0.

Stoller's Steady Scoring: Addison Stoller has reached double figures in five straight games and eight of the last nine. Over those nine games, Stoller is averaging a team-best 14.7 points per game and is pulling down 7.2 boards per outing. Perhaps her best game yet came on Feb. 22 vs. first-place Missouri State as Stoller matched a career high with 22 points on 8-of-16 shooting. She added eight rebounds. Her scoring output equaled her personal best, which came on Jan. 25 at Southern Illinois.

Minutes on the Uptick: Valpo is battling through tired legs at this stage of the season as numerous players are seeing considerable more run than they did a year ago, in part due to the team's five season-ending injuries. Meredith Hamlet's playing time is up only slight from last season, but the other six players that comprise the core rotation are playing significantly more than they did in 2018-19.

Home Cooking: Valpo will look to continue its trend of playing better at home than on the road in head-to-head conference meetings on Sunday.

Drake	(31)	(26)	+5
UNI	(19)	(8)	+8

Record Watch Reaches Red Alert: Valpo's attack on the 3-point portion of the program record book has become inevitable as the team will almost certainly break two school records on Sunday.

- Valpo enters Sunday's game with 224 made 3-pointers this season. That number has already tied the school record set in 1991-92 and matched in 2007-08. The team's next made 3-pointer will shatter the program record.
- In related news, Valpo has 675 3-point attempts this season, one attempt away from matching the single-season program record that was set in 1991-92.
- Valpo also rewrote program records for single-game 3-point makes and single-game 3-point attempts this year. Not only did the 44 3-point tries against Drake set the school record on Feb. 8, but it also tied the Missouri Valley Conference watermark that was set by Creighton in 2013 and matched by Drake in 2015.
- Valpo's 17 made 3s on Dec. 21 vs. Bowling Green tied a school record that had stood for 14 years and ranked tied for fourth in conference history.
- Speaking of the conference record book, Valpo is 15 made 3s away from cracking the Top 15 in MVC history for made 3s in a season.
- Valpo is in the Top 30 in the nation in 3-point field goal attempts, 3-point field goals made and 3-point field goals per game this season.

A Steady Starter: Senior Meredith Hamlet has started 115 of her 117 career games. With the game vs. Missouri State on Feb. 22, Hamlet advanced into a tie for eighth with Carie Wickham (1996-2001) and Marlous Nieuwveen (1998-2002) for career games played. She will move up to a tie for seventh with Launa Hochstetler (2005-2009) on Sunday. If she plays in every game the rest of the season, Hamlet will finish at least tied for second in program history in career games played. She will finish in sole possession of second place if Valpo wins at least one game in Moline and would need Valpo to reach the tournament championship in order to match the program record.

Leading Into the Locker Room: If games were only 20 minutes in length, Valpo would own a 13-12 record (with one tie) through 26 contests this season. However, Valpo has held on to win just six of those 13 games and has not come from behind to win when trailing at the half yet this year (0-12). Valpo's last victory when chasing at halftime was Feb. 11, 2018 at Loyola, a 63-53 win.

Even at the Break: Valpo's game on Feb. 17 at Indiana State was tied at 31 at halftime, marking just the third time in the last seven seasons Valpo has been tied at the half. Valpo and Illinois State were even at 24 at the intermission on Feb. 8 of last season, but before that Valpo hadn't played a game that was tied at the break since Nov. 17, 2012 at IUPUI. Valpo's last win when tied at halftime was on Jan. 14, 2012 in a Horizon League showdown with Butler.

Charity Stripe Streak: Grace Hales saw her streak of consecutive made free throws come to an end on Feb. 17 at Indiana State as she had made 26 straight before finally misfiring. The streak dated all the way back to the conference opener on Jan. 6 at Loyola and included 11 consecutive games without a missed free throw. Hales had a similar stretch two years ago as a freshman, making 21 in a row at the charity stripe – a streak that spanned December, January and February.

Hales Stays Hot: Grace Hales is averaging 12.5 points per game in MVC play after scoring 8.6 ppg during the nonconference slate. Hales reached double figures just twice over the first 10 games but has scored in double figures in 13 of 16 games since. She has played 34 minutes or more in six straight contests. Hales led the team in scoring on Feb. 17 at Indiana State for the sixth time this year by posting 15 points.

60 Sounds Sweet: Getting to 60 is an important task for Valpo as the team is 0-11 this season when held to 59 points or fewer. When Valpo has reached the 60-point plateau, it has played at nearly a .500 clip at 6-8. Valpo's most recent victory when scoring fewer than 60 points was a 56-50 triumph over Illinois State last season at the ARC. The team is a combined 1-21 when scoring fewer than 60 points over the last two seasons.

Other Climbs on Program Charts: With four games to go in the regular season, Valpo has cracked the program record book in several other individual categories.
- Meredith Hamlet has made 198 career 3-pointers, which ranks fourth in program history. The mark needed to crack the top three is 215 (Carrie Myers, 2003-2007).
- Hamlet has 1,269 career points, seventh in program history, and is attempting to chase down Amber Schober (1998-2002), who is sixth at 1,273. Betsy Rietema (2003-2007) owns the mark needed to crack the Top 5 at 1,276.
- Redshirt junior point guard Hannah Schaub finished her season with 289 career assists and currently sits in ninth in program history. She usurped Lauren Bechtold (287, 2002-2006) for ninth on Jan. 27 at Missouri State.
- Hamlet also ranks in the Top 20 in career assists with 242, which puts her 16th. Hamlet needs to get to 246 to move into a tie with Lexi Miller (2012-2016) and crack the Top 15.
- Grace Hales holds an .852 free throw percentage this season, which would rank fourth in program history if the season ended today.
- Hamlet has a career scoring average of 10.8 points per game. The standard to crack the Top 10 in program history for career scoring average is 11.0 points per game.
- Hamlet has 1,128 career field goal attempts, which ranks sixth in program history. Betsy Rietema (2003-2007) is fifth at 1,158.
- Hamlet has 233 career made free throws as she knocked Jeannette Gray (1999-2003) and Katie Boone (2001-2005) out of the Top 10 in program history on Feb. 15 at Evansville. She also passed Marlous Nieuwveen (1988-2002, 231) for ninth, while Stephanie Greer (1987-1991) is eighth at 234.
- Hamlet ranks third in program history in career 3-point field goals attempted with 598. Suzie Hammel (2000-2004) is second at 673.
- Hamlet's current free-throw percentage of .759 would rank fifth in program history for a career if the season ended today. Tabitha Gerardot (2010-2013) is currently fifth at .758, while Mo Drabicki (1994-1998) is fourth at .830.

Four in Double Figures: Four Valpo players finished in double figures on Feb. 15 at Evansville, marking the fifth time this season and the second straight game Valpo has had four in double figures. Addison Stoller (15), Shay Frederick (14), Meredith Hamlet (13) and Grace Hales (10) all scored 10 points or more against the Purple Aces. The other games this season where Valpo had four or more players with 10+ points were vs. UNI, vs. Evansville (5), vs. Indiana State and at Illinois.

Number of Games with Four Double-Figures Scorers
2018-19 – 5 (5 vs. D-I)
2017-18 – 3 (3 vs. D-I)
2016-17 – 4 (3 vs. D-I)
2015-16 – 6 (4 vs. D-I)

What a Difference a Year Makes: A career day for Allison Schofield on Feb. 3 was the latest development in a season-long surge for the Valpo senior. This season, Schofield has played in every game when healthy, averaged 23.8 minutes per game and has played as many as 36 minutes. A year ago, she did not play due to coach's decision in 11 games and played fewer than 10 minutes in 15 others. She is averaging 7.6 points per game after scoring 1.0 point per game a year ago. In addition, Schofield went 1-for-12 from 3-point range all of last season and is 35-of-89 from distance this year.

Lineup Tracker: Shay Frederick made her first career start on Feb. 1 vs. Bradley and has now made seven career starts. Addison Stoller and Meredith Hamlet have been fixtures in the starting five for all 26 games this year. Ellenson has started 23 times this season, while Hales has made 21 straight starts. The lineup of Frederick, Stoller, Hamlet, Hales and Ellenson has been intact for each of the last seven games.

Damage from Distance: Valpo has equaled or bettered its opponent in made 3-pointers in 21 of the last 24 games. Valpo has made eight 3s or more 15 times this season and made 10+ triples on nine occasions. Seven of those contests with 10 or more made 3-pointers have come in the last 12 games.

Inside the Salukis
- Picked to finish fourth in the MVC Preseason Poll.
- Under the direction of sixth-year head coach Cindy Stein.
- Coming off a 64-41 win at Loyola on Friday night. Nicole Martin had a double-double of 17 points and 16 rebounds.
- Top two scorers are Martin (14.9 ppg) and Mackenzie Silvey (14.4 ppg).
- Abby Brockmeyer is also in double figures with 10.0 ppg. She leads the team in rebounding with 7.8 per game.

Tossing Up Triples: It's become no secret that Valpo's offense entails a large number of 3-point attempts this season. The number of 3-point tries reached a new peak on Feb. 8 vs. Drake as Valpo fired off a program-record 44 3-point attempts, shattering a mark that had stood since Feb. 27, 1992. This year's team already owns four of the top five single-game 3-point attempt totals in program history. Before this season, Valpo had attempted more than 36 3s in a game just once all-time. The team has done so four times this year (vs. Bowling Green, at Drake, at Missouri State, vs. Drake).

Centier Bank Getting Its Money's Worth: Valpo converted 15 3-pointers – which are sponsored by Centier Bank at the Athletics-Recreation Center – on Feb. 8 against Drake. That marked just the fifth time in program history but already the second time this season Valpo has hit 15 or more 3s in a game. The previous instances were March 10, 2016 vs. Detroit (at GB), Feb. 28, 2015 vs. UMKC, Dec. 8, 2004 vs. Central Michigan (17) and this season vs. Bowling Green (17). The 15 made 3s in a game are tied for third all-time, while the performance against Bowling Green earlier this season matched the school record.

Another 3-Point Feat: Valpo accomplished yet another feat related to 3-pointers on Feb. 8 vs. Drake as two different players connected on five triples in a single game, the first time that had happened for Valpo since March 10, 2016 when Hannah Schaub and Meredith Hamlet had five apiece in an overtime victory over Detroit Mercy in the first round of the Horizon League Tournament. Ella Ellenson had five 3s against Drake after previously having no more than two in a single game, while Grace Hales had the fourth game of her career and second this season with five triples.

Shay's Six Steals: Freshman Shay Frederick swiped six steals on Feb. 8 vs. Drake, the most by a Valpo player in a single game since Jan. 23, 2014 vs. Detroit Mercy. In that game, two players had six steals or more as Jessica Carr had seven while Abby Dean added six.

Schofield's Three-riffic Sunday: Valpo has had many accomplishments related to 3-point baskets this season, but Allison Schofield's was a new one on Feb. 3 vs. Illinois State. The senior knocked down six 3s in a single game, becoming the first Valpo player to do so since Meredith Hamlet on Feb. 11, 2016 at Oakland. In addition, she became the first Valpo player with six triples in a home game since Betsy Adams on Jan. 20, 2010 vs. Wright State. Two others have done it on the road in recent years – Jessica Carr (March 12, 2014 at Green Bay) and Rashida Ray (Feb. 26, 2011 at Milwaukee). Schofield finished the Feb. 3 game with 22 points, rewriting her previous career high of 16 (Nov. 14, 2018 at Illinois).

A Trio of 20s: Valpo accomplished the rare feat of having three players score 20 points or more in a single game in the Feb. 1 win over Bradley. Meredith Hamlet (23), Shay Frederick (21) and Addison Stoller (20) reached that plateau in a 76-73 triumph. That was the first time in at least 20 years Valpo had three 20-point scorers in a game. Indiana State turned the trick against Grand Canyon earlier this season, though the Sycamores had the benefit of overtime. Valpo, Indiana State and Drake are the only current MVC programs that have had a game with three players scoring 20 points or more in the last two decades.

Showcasing Various Standouts: In two games over a three-day span during the first weekend of February, Valpo remarkably had five different players enjoy 20-point games. Over a span of five games in January and February, the team was led in scoring by five different players: Grace Hales (21 vs. Evansville), Addison Stoller (22 at Southern Illinois), Shay Frederick (17 at Missouri State), Meredith Hamlet (23 vs. Bradley) and Allison Schofield (22 vs. Illinois State).

Down to the Wire: Valpo played back-to-back games decided by exactly three points on Feb. 1 and Feb. 3, defeating Bradley 76-73 before falling to Illinois State 70-67. That marked the first time Valpo had played in consecutive games decided by three points or fewer since January 2010 (W 71-68 at Cleveland State, L 72-70(ot) vs. Detroit Mercy). Valpo has now played in seven games decided by five points or fewer this season – already the program's most in the last six years.

Number of Games Decided by Five Points or Fewer 2018-19 – 7
2017-18 – 2
2016-17 – 6
2015-16 – 6
2014-15 – 0
2013-14 – 4

now sidelined for the remainder of the season with injuries, Valpo has turned to Shay Frederick as the team's starter. The true freshman responded in a big way in her first career start on Feb. 1 vs. Bradley, playing 38 minutes on her way to career bests in points (21) and assists (eight). Her previous watermarks in both categories came on Nov. 17 vs. St. Francis (Brooklyn), when she had 19 points and five assists. Frederick's 21 points against the Braves were the most by a Valpo freshman since current senior Meredith Hamlet had three games with 21 points or more during her rookie campaign in 2015-16.

So You Want to be a Coach: For the second consecutive season, Valpo will have a participant in the "So You Want to be a Coach" program, hosted by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association in partnership with WeCOACH. Senior Meredith Hamlet will represent Valpo this year after 2018 alum Dani Franklin did so a year ago. This marks the 17th annual "So You Want to be a Coach" program as each member will participate in a three-day workshop with speakers provided by WeCOACH on April 3-5 in conjunction with the WBCA Convention in Tampa Bay, Fla.

Inside the Assistants
- All members of Valpo's coaching staff are in their first season in 2018-19.
- Mary Gleason has returned to the collegiate ranks after a stint as the head girls basketball coach at St. Piux X High School in Houston, Texas. She was the head coach at Houston Baptist from 2010-2013, guiding the team during the transition from NAIA to NCAA Division I. She has been an assistant at Dartmouth College (2007-2010), Princeton University (2003-2007) and New York University (2000-2003).
- Gabby Johnson joined Valpo's staff after a tenure as the head coach at Dominican University in River Forest, Ill. that began in 2012. She was an assistant at Northern Kentucky from 2010-2012. During her playing career, Johnson helped Thomas More to an impressive 99-16 record.
- Tyeasha Moss previously served as a graduate assistant at Ohio University, where Mary Evans was an assistant coach. During her playing days, Moss was a standout at Xavier, where she led the Musketeers to three A-10 regular season championships, two undefeated conference regular seasons and an Elite Eight appearance in the NCAA Tournament in 2009.
- Director of Basketball Operations Sean Eaton graduated from Valpo with a master's in sports administration in May 2018 after completing his undergraduate work at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.
- Graduate assistant Kaylin Speedy served as a manager for the Purdue women's basketball program from 2014-2018 and was the head manager by the end of her time in West Lafayette.
- Athletic trainer Carrie McKiddy is in her fourth season working with the Valpo women's basketball program and previously served as an athletic trainer at the University of Illinois from 2005-2011.

Who's Next: Coopersville (Mich.) High School senior Cara VanKempen has signed her National Letter of Intent to play for Valpo next season. The two-time all-conference performer has also garnered all-area first team and all-state honorable mention recognition. As a junior last season, VanKempen averaged 14 points, six rebounds and three assists per game. The daughter of a coach who has played for her father from a young age, VanKempen became the first high school recruit to sign with Valpo under first-year head coach Mary Evans' watch.

Champions in Classroom: The Valpo women's basketball team has developed a tradition of having players thrive academically. The 2017-2018 season saw Valpo have 11 players finish the spring semester with a GPA of 3.0 or better. Two players were named MVC Scholar-Athletes of the Week during the season and two were recognized as part of either the MVC Scholar-Athlete team or MVC Scholar-Athlete honorable mention. The 2018-2019 team has players with the following majors: biology, biomedical engineering, communications, public relations, marketing, healthcare leadership, health sciences, exercise science, psychology, finance, elementary education, business management and secondary/physical education.

Champions in Community: The program also has a commitment to serving the community. During their time on campus, players have visited elementary school students and wrote letters back and forth to encourage and promote healthy lifestyles as pen pals. In addition, Valpo women's basketball players assembled over 1,000 informational packages for runners and spectators at the Chicago Marathon as part of the team's annual Pack-a-thon. Athletes on the team engaged the greater Valparaiso community by volunteering and organizing supervision of the Valparaiso Popcorn Fest's Little Kernel Puff Run. Valpo players ran with children to the finish line of the event and helped set up the race. Valparaiso was the hometown of Orville Redenbacher's popcorn company. Numerous Valpo players have also volunteered their time at the Valpo Boys & Girls Club.

What's Back: Valpo returns nine of its top 10 scorers from a year ago, but the one departure was significant as leading scorer Dani Franklin graduated after finishing in the Top 10 in Valpo history in 13 statistical categories. Franklin, an all-conference first team selection as a senior, finished second in program history in career scoring with 1,721 points and fifth in rebounding with 713. In all, Valpo returns 12 letter winners and four starters from last season.

- Shortly after Valpo's new coaching staff was assembled, the group sat down to discuss a program hashtag. Despite being new to Valpo, the staff members were well educated on the University's history and tradition. That's how #RingTheBell was born.
- Head Coach Mary Evans: "Ringing the bell here at Valpo is something you do when you graduate, so the concept speaks to our goal of being successful both on the court and in the classroom. We want to be one of the best programs in our conference and continue to have great success academically and in our personal lives. My message to our players is that whatever they do in life, it's important to put in the time and effort to be very good at it. That's what #RingTheBell has become to us."
- Senior Allison Schofield: "I love the idea by our coaching staff and think it's a tremendous concept. Ringing the bell is synonymous with Valparaiso University as a whole and has been for quite some time. This allows us to become closely associated with something that is University wide rather than separating ourselves as women's basketball. To me, #RingTheBell means victory and finishing the close games that we've struggled to finish in the past."

As a program, we want to be consistent in everything we do, from our messaging to our play on the court. Mary Evans

Head Coach
1st Season
6-20 overall & at Valpo
Georgia Southern, 2000

Mary Evans is in her first year as the head coach of the Valparaiso University women's basketball program in 2018-2019.

Evans, who spent the last five seasons as an assistant coach at Ohio University, became the eighth head coach in program history on April 13, 2018. She brought 15 years of Division I experience with her to Valpo.

During her time on Ohio's staff under head coach Bob Boldon, Evans helped the Bobcats to three seasons of 22 wins or more, three postseason appearances and three Top 75 RPI finishes. The 2014-15 team established a school record with 27 wins, a 21-win improvement from two years earlier and an 18-win improvement from the previous season. The Bobcats won the 2014-15 MAC regular season and tournament titles and reached the NCAA Tournament.

Evans spent the 2012-13 season at Youngstown State University, where she helped the Penguins to a 23-10 record and a first-round win at Indiana State in the Women's National Invitation Tournament (WNIT). She has also coached at Georgia Southern University (2007-2012), the University of South Carolina, Aiken (2005-2007) and Seton Hall University (2001-2005).

The five-year stint at Georgia Southern provided Evans with the opportunity to work at her alma mater. She helped guide the 2009-2010 team to a 19-12 record, the program's highest win total since 2002-2003.

During her time at Division II South Carolina, Aiken, Evans was an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator, helping the program to its first 20-win season since 2001-2002 in 2006-2007.

At Seton Hall, Evans was on staff as the Pirates reached the WNIT in 2003-2004 and 2004-2005. She was the recruiting coordinator during the 2004-2005 season.

At Aiken, Evans worked under Mike Brandt, who provided her with the opportunity to run the defense. When she returned to Georgia Southern under Rusty Cram, she was the offensive coach and had the chance to run practices. For six seasons prior to her appointment as Valpo head coach, she served on Boldon's staff, first at Youngstown State and then at Ohio.

Evans was a two-sport athlete at Georgia Southern, where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in 2000. She won four letters in basketball (1995-1999) and three in soccer during her time as a collegiate athlete. A native of Summerville, S.C., Evans was inducted into the Summerville High School Hall of Fame in 2008. She and her husband Daryl have two children, Keegan Thomas and Zoe Mae.
