GNAC RED LION PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK: Offense - Nick Ricciardulli, Humboldt State (RB, 5-8, 190, Jr., Poway, CA) rushed for a career-high 204 yards on 33 carries, averaging 6.2 yards to lead the Lumberjacks to a 41-21 home win against Simon Fraser and earn the Red Lion Offensive Player of the Week award. Ricciardulli scored a touchdown and broke a long run of 48 yards to set up another. He also caught two passes for 18 yards as the 'Jacks improved to 3-0. Defense - Cedrique Chaney, Central Washington (DB, 6-0, 188, Fr., Kelso, WA) saved four potential Western Oregon touchdowns in the Wildcats' 21-14 overtime win at Monmouth to earn Red Lion Defensive Player-of-the-Week honors. Chaney had a GNAC-record tying three interceptions, two in the end zone and another at the Wildcat 11-yard line. He also forced a fumble deep in CWU territory in the fourth quarter which was returned 56 yards by defensive back Kevin Puckett to set up a 34-yard, five-play drive which culminated with a nine-yard touchdown run by Johri Fogerson to tie the game with 4:13 remaining in regulation. Chaney, who also had five tackles, got his first interception in the end zone on a third-and-goal play from the 10-yard line, on Western Oregon's first drive of the game. In the second quarter, on a first-and-10 play from the 13, he earned another end zone interception to set up a CWU kneel down to end the first half. In the third quarter, he intercepted a pass on a first-and-10 from the 36-yard line to end another WOU drive. His fourth-quarter forced fumble came after Western Oregon had drove to CWU to set up a potential game-clinching score. Special Teams - Cache Morgan, Dixie State (KR/DB, 5-11, 190, Sr., West Jordan, UT – Utah State) is the Red Lion Special Teams Player of the Week. Morgan had three kickoff returns for 135 yards, including the second 100-yard return of his career to equal his own GNAC record. He also had a five-yard interception return and a total of six tackles from his defensive back position as the Red Storm beat Azusa Pacific 24-22 to improve to 2-0 in GNAC play. Honorable Mention – Johri Fogerson, CWU; Kevin Cooper, HSU; Zack Fox, DSC; Matt Tanuvasa, DSC.

INTERCEPTIONS, SINGLE GAME: Chaney joined teammate Stan Langlow as one of five players in GNAC history to record three interceptions in a single game. Langlow accomplished that feat on Nov. 6, 2010 against Simon Fraser. Last year Humboldt State's Jeremiah Maluia had three in Humboldt State's conference-clinching home victory against Western Oregon. The Wolves' Bret Hughes did it twice against Western Washington – first on Oct. 2, 2004 and then a year later on Nov. 5, 2005. Duval Seamster of Humboldt State was the first player to turn the trifecta against Saint Mary's (Calif). on Sept. 13, 2003.

INTERCEPTIONS, CAREER: Western Oregon had four interceptions against CWU, including the 17th and 18th career steals of Bryce Peila. Peila returned the latter one 17 yards to set a GNAC career record for most interception return yards increasing his total to 382 and breaking the record of 373 set by Brandon Kennedy of Central Washington between 2005 and 2007. His 18 interceptions is topped only by CWU's Jason Patterson who had 22 between 1998 and 2001.

100 YARDS, AGAIN: Cache Morgan of Dixie State is the only player in GNAC history to return a kickoff 100 yards and now he has done it twice. He also accomplished that feat on Sept. 3, 2011 against Adams State. He also now has two career interception touchdowns to tie the GNAC record set by Zach Russell of Western Washington (2002, 04-050 and equaled by Courtney Smith of Central Washington (2008-09). Next to Morgan, Smith has the next longest return in GNAC history, a mere 98 yards. Morgan's record for longest return can never be broken as per rule, kickoff returns are measured from the goal line.

CAREER MILESTONES: Western Oregon kicker Kelly Morgan has missed just one kick this year – from 58 yards. He is five-of-five on extra points and three-of-four on field goals, including a 53-yarder. He missed from 58 at the end of regulation Saturday. Morgan currently ranks third in career kick scoring with 190 points and needs 10 more to join Garrett Rolsma of Central Washington (330, 2006-09) and Michael Koenen of Western Washington (272, 2001-04) as the only kickers in GNAC history to score 200 or more points.

GOING OVERTIME: The CWU-WOU game was the 12th overtime game in conference history. It was the first for the Wildcats since it beat Dixie State on Aug. 30, 2008 and the first for Western Oregon since it beat Western Washington 52-49 in four overtimes on Oct. 2, 2004. The last overtime in the GNAC was last year when Simon Fraser outscored Dixie State 62-56. The last eight overtime games have all been won by the home team with the exception of CWU's two victories.

GNAC SWITCHES TO SUPER REGIONAL III: The GNAC will compete in Super Regional III this fall after spending the past few years in Super Regional IV. Also part of the 44-team Super Regional III is the MIAA (Mid-America), the Great American Conference and the Northern Sun. The MIAA was also part of Super Regional IV last season. Six teams from each of the four regions qualify for the playoffs. "Earned access" berths are awarded to certain conferences which have a team ranked in the Top 10 in their region. With only five playoff-eligible members, the GNAC does not receive an earned access berth. Azusa Pacific is a provisional NCAA member and is not eligible for the playoffs.

GAME RECAPS AND NOTES

Central Washington 21, Western Oregon 14 (at Monmouth): Johri Fogerson scored on a nine-yard run to tie the game with 4:13 left in regulation and then scored from 11 yards in overtime as Central Washington rallied from a 14-0 deficit to defeat Western Oregon 21-14. . .Western Oregon led 14-0 until late in the third quarter on the strength of 56 and 11-yard touchdown passes from quarterback Cody VonAppen to Tyrell Williams in the first quarter and Kenneth Haynes in the third period. . .But CWU then drove 94 yards in six plays to cut its deficit to seven points with 41 seconds left in the third period on a five-yard pass from quarterback Ryan Robertson to wide receiver Robert Akeo-Orr. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard pass to Tavoy Moore which took the ball to WOU's 36-yard line. . .Then in the fourth quarter, CWU took advantage of a 56-yard fumble return by defensive back Kevin Puckett to set up a 34-yard, five-play drive for the tying touchdown. . .The game featured nine turnovers as CWU had three interceptions – all by Cedrique Chaney – and two fumble recoveries – and Western Oregon had four interceptions, two by Bryce Peila. . .Western Oregon had five possessions inside CWU's 40 and the Wildcats had three inside WOU's 40 which didn't result in points. . .Western Oregon finished the game with a 459-390 advantage in total offense. Haynes had 92 yards on 17 rushes, while VonAppen had 63 on 15 carries and Joe Harris had 53 on four rushes. . .Fogerson, who has scored six touchdowns in two games, rushed for 123 yards. Robertson completed 24 of 37 for 220 yards. . .Linebackers Riley Wall and Holman Faatili each had 11 tackles for the Wildcats. Defensive lineman Gustave Benthin had 10 tackles for the Wolves.

Humboldt State 41, Simon Fraser 21 (at Arcata): Nick Ricciardulli rushed for 204 yards and Humboldt State netted 579 yards in offense in defeating Simon Fraser before a crowd of 4,078 fans at the Redwood Bowl. . .Ricciardulli recorded the ninth 200-yard rushing game in GNAC history; the fifth by a Humboldt State player including four by former standout Lyndon Rowells. . .Ricciardulli, who now ranks sixth nationally averaging 157 yards per game, was a workhorse, toting the ball 33 times. He was involved in 35 of HSU's 77 offensive plays, also catching two passes for 18 yards. His 222 all-purpose yards moved him into 17th place nationally with a 166.3 average. . .Quarterback Alex Rump completed 19 of 28 passes for 306 yards and three touchdowns. He wasn't intercepted for the third game in a row, extending his streak of passes without an interception to 73. He is the only quarterback in the league without at least four interceptions, one reason why the 'Jacks rank seventh nationally in takeaways at plus 2.33. . .Victor Spencer had six receptions for 181 yards, including a 75-yard touchdown midway through the third quarter to extend a 27-21 lead to 13 points. Late in the fourth quarter, HSU got a clinching touchdown on a 26-yard interception return from Kevin Cooper. . .Simon Fraser had 385 yards as quarterback Trey Wheeler completed 34 of 57 passes for 310 yards and two touchdowns. Wheeler, who leads the GNAC with a 69.8 completion percentage, was picked off four times, twice by Cooper who also had three other pass breakups. . .Two Simon Fraser receivers had double-figure reception totals – Lemar Durant (11-159) and Bobby Pospischil (10-73). It was the second of the season for both, accounting for four of the six double-figure reception totals this fall in the GNAC. . .Defensive back Kyle Miller led the Clan with 12 tackles. Linebacker JJ Evans had 10 tackles for Humboldt.

Dixie State 24, Azusa Pacific 22 (at Glendora): Linebacker Nick Largent forced a fumble and defensive back Ray Chapman picked up the ball and returned it 32 yards for a touchdown with 3:54 remaining as Dixie State rallied from a 10-point deficit in the final five minutes to beat Azusa Pacific before 2,850 fans at Citrus Stadium. . .Jamie Cacciatore had given the Cougars a 22-12 lead earlier in the quarter kicking field goals of 23 and 26 yards, his second and third of the game. He also booted a 32-yarder in the opening period. He attempted five, missing from 42 and 49. The latter , with 1:26 remaining in the game for the win, was blocked by Matt Tanuvasa. . .Dixie, however, then drove 82 yards on seven plays to cut its deficit to four points on a 14-yard pass from Kaleo Nawahine to Zack Fox. . .A few plays – and 66 seconds later on the clock – Chapman got the game-winner. . .Dixie won despite scoring just one offensive touchdown and missing all four of its extra-point attempts. The lone offensive touchdown was a first-quarter 39-yard run by quarterback Griff Robles. . .In the second quarter Cache Morgan gave the Red Storm a brief 12-9 lead with his second career 100-yard kickoff return. . .But, Azusa went back on top later in the period on a five-yard run by Terrell Watson. That was the end of the scoring until the first of Cacciatore's field goals in the final period. . .Azusa had a 348-232 total offense advantage, including 261-101 on the ground. Watson had 87 yards on 25 rushes. Oliver Petty had 84 yards on 10 carries and QB Tyler Tuiasosopo had 74 yards on 16 carries. Tuiasosopo also completed seven of 13 passes for 87 yards, including a 25-yard second-quarter touchdown pass to Petty. . .Robles led Dixie with 55 rushing yards on 13 carries. Fox had five catches for 56 yards. . .Defensive back Daniel Moffett led Dixie with 10 tackles, including nine solos. Morgan had six tackles and his team's lone interception. Safety Nick Grunsky had a team-high five tackles for Azusa and also his team's only interception.

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Week of Aug. 27-Sept. 2: Offense - Nick Ricciardulli, Humboldt State (RB, 5-8, 190, Jr., Poway, CA) rushed for 159 yards on 24 carries, scoring on touchdown runs of one and 74 yards in the Lumberjacks' 38-13 win over Colorado Mesa. Ricciardulli also had three receptions and finished with 162 all-purpose yards. His 74-yard jaunt equals the fifth longest in conference history. Defense – Alex Markarian, Humboldt State (DE, 6-4, 245, So., Chino Hills, CA) had nine tackles including six solos and three quarterback sacks for losses of 16. Special Teams – Kelly Morgan, Western Oregon (K, 5-10, 170, Sr., Sherwood, OR) kicked a 53-yard field goal – the second-longest in GNAC history - and also connected from 30 yards and on both of his extra point attempts extending his streak to 58 in the Wolves' 48-20 loss to Grand Valley. He also averaged 65.6 yards on five kickoffs, two of which were touchbacks.

Week of Sept. 3-9: Offense - Demetrius Sumler, Central Washington (RB, 5-10, 220, Sr., San Diego, CA – Cathedral Catholic) rushed for 154 yards and two touchdowns to lead the Wildcats to a GNAC record setting rushing performance in a 56-28 win at Simon Fraser. CWU, which finished with 316 rushing yards, scored six touchdowns on the ground equaling the GNAC single-game record. Sumler's performance earned him GNAC Red Lion Offensive Player of the Week honors. Defense – Jeremiah Maluia, Humboldt State (DB, 5-11, 202, Jr., Compton, CA) forced two fumbles and also intercepted a pass leading to three touchdowns as the defending GNAC champions opened their conference season with a 42-17 home win over Azusa Pacific. Maluia claimed GNAC Red Lion Defensive Player of the Week honors with the performance. In the first quarter, he forced a fumble to set up Humboldt's first touchdown, a 26-yard pass from Alex Rump to Victor Spencer. Later in the period he had a 25-yard interception to set up a two-yard touchdown run by Nick Ricciardulli. Early in the third quarter he forced a fumble, which he returned 62 yards for a touchdown. He and the rest of the Jacks' secondary held Azusa Pacific to 132 net passing yards, and now rank No. 5 nationally in pass efficiency defense. Maluia also had two tackles. Special Teams – Alexander Bradt, Western Oregon (LB, 6-1, 210, Fr., Salem, OR – West Salem) is the GNAC Red Lion Special Teams Player of the Week. Bradt averaged 47.4 yards on five punts, including a long of 73 that was just one yard shy of the GNAC record.
