EIGHT WEEKLY FRONTIER LEAGUE AWARDS? The Wild Things have garnered eight weekly honors as selected by the Frontier League... with three pitchers being named Pitcher of the Week: Andrew Herbert, Hector Garcia and Kobe Foster (awarded twice, back-to-back) and four position players being named Frontier League Player of the Week. Jeff Liquori, Cole Fowler, Anthony Brocato and Andrew Czech (most recent) have been chosen for that honor. A chart showing their weeks when they won is available later in the game information.

THE FRIENDLY CONFINES ARE EVERYWHERE? Washington was 33-18 at home at EQT Park and played in front of nine sellouts during the regular season in 51 games. The club played 20 in the month of June at home and only five on the road. On the road through all 50 games, Washington is 33-17, a record that jumped significantly with a 11-game road win streak that was snapped in Game 2 of the doubleheader, Thursday, July 30. Windy City, Quebec and Washington were the three teams to finish six games or better than .500 on the road this season.

NEXT LEVEL THINGS AND BIG LEAGUE THINGS: Washington transferred two contracts (Alex Ungar, Trey Cooper) and sold one (Cole Fowler to Mets) in the offseason. Fowler was released and Ungar has since been released by White Sox. Trey Cooper is still active. Washington has sold five officially during the regular season with Graham Brown (MIN), LHP Tyler Davis (BOS), RHP Andrew Herbert (BAL), RHP Zach Kirby (LAA), who has since been released and returned) and RHP Maddox Long (DET) going to affiliated organizations. RHP Hector Garcia has his tagged for purchased but it did not finalize with the Blue Jays. On Friday, August 14, the San Francisco Giants called OF Turner Hill up to the big leagues by selecting his contract from Triple-A Sacramento, making Hill the 10th former Wild Thing to reach the big leagues. He added his first MLB RBI Saturday, August 15 and his first MLB hit Sunday, August 16. The Marietta College product was with Washington in 2023 during Spring Training and had his contract purchased by the Giants before the season started. Hill is the first former Wild Things' position player to reach MLB.

BASH BROTHERS TRACKER (LEAGUE HISTORY LEADERBOARD UPDATED WITH EACH HOMER)
Andrew Czech and Anthony Brocato are the bash bros. They're on the same team again this year after playing together in 2023 and becoming the first duo of Wild Things since 2009 to both hit 20+ homers in a season. Brocato hit 28, the 2nd most in team history in a season while Czech added 21, a total he toppled last year for a new career-high with 25, the third most in a single-season in team history.
1. Charlie Lisk (WC 2006, GAT 2007-11, River City 2012) - 127 2. Anthony Brocato (Southern Illinois 2019, 2021, Florence 2022, 2025, Washington 2022-23, Present) - 125
3. Andrew Czech (WSH 2021-Present) - 114 4. Stephen Holdren (WC 2006, GAT 2007-09, S. Illinois 2009, River City 2010-11) - 100 5. Morgan Burkhart (Richmond 1995-98, MVP Namesake) - 86

LAST OUTING

9/12/26 - FLWC 3 vs FLO - RELIEF: ND - 1.0 IP, 3 H, 3 R/ER, 2 BB, 3 K
> Allowed a single and a walk in the seventh inning before striking out Hank Zeisler and Zade Richardson to escape the jam... sent back out and allowed a Broussard single, a BB to Rushford and a 3-R HR to Dillon Baker before departing

2025 HIGHLIGHTS

> Made the Opening Day start for Washington in Crestwood against the ThunderBolts and went 4.1 innings on his way to a no decision.
> Worked 7 quality starts including 2 in his 3 starts between July 25 and Aug. 8 and 3 in a row overall.
> Earned first pro save August 24 vs MIS

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

> Had his contract purchased by the Angels in late June but only received four bullpen chances in the complex with the ACL Angels... amassing only 4.1 innings of work. He had a scoreless first outing over two innings and ended up giving up 14 hits and 10 runs with two walks and four strikeouts in totality.
> Was 7-5 in 2025 and had a 4.62 ERA with a much better second half. He ended with seven quality starts in his 18 (20 appearances). He had a save in 109.0 innings and walked 40 with just 61 strikeouts.
> 2024 Frontier League Midseason All Star (did not travel to game/play in Quebec due to a back injury)
> Was 10-4 in 2024 with a 2.42 ERA in 17 games (16 starts) in his first full season with the Wild Things and in pro ball. He allowed 86 hits, struck out an even 100 and walked 25. He made 12 quality starts including four in a row between May 25 and June 11 and then six in a row to end the regular season
> Earned his first pro win May 19 at Tri-City last season and allowed an unearned run on four hits with eight K's in five inning of work.
> He won his final six decisions in 2024
> Was 0-3 with a 2.83 in 2023, his rookie season, in eight outings (seven starts). In 41.1 innings, he struck out 35 and walked 13 against 31 hits but received two runs of support while pitching in his final 34.1 innings of the year and eight in total. Three of his seven starts were of the quality variety in 2023, including his best one, a seven-inning gem at Lake Erie August 8, in which he allowed three htis and struck out eight, a career high at the time on 81 pitches in the outing
> Made his pro debut July 19, 2023 at home against Trois-Rivieres in Washington and surrendered a career-worst five runs on six hits with a walk and two punchouts, but he did not receive a decision
> Spent his final collegiate season at Loyola Marymount in 2023 and was 5-4 with a 3.84 ERA in 15 games (14 starts). He fanned 89 to 20 walks in 82 innings and was 2nd Team All-WCC.
> Pitched 4 seasons at East Tennessee State and posted his best season there in 2021, working to a 1.95 ERA with a 3-1 record in 14 games (3 GS) and in 32.1 innings, he struck out 28.

THE MATCHUP
EVANSVILLE OTTERS

EVANSVILLE OTTERS FIELD STAFF

MANAGER - ANDY MCCAULEY (16TH SEASON WITH OTTERS)

> Veteran manager and enters the season seven wins behind of Mike Pinto for the all-time Frontier League wins lead... he's spent 19 years in the league, with three stops: Kalamazoo, London and now the Otters. Overall, he enters 2026 with a mark of 845 and 789 (.517) with two titles

> He has led Evansville to seven postseason appearances including the championship season in 2016. He was selected as the 2014 and the 2021 Roger Hanners Award winner for Frontier League Manager of the Year. In 2014, he guided the Otters to the postseason for the first time since 2006.

> He's also guided teams in the Northern League (2002-09) with the Quebec Capitales. Schaumburg Flyers and Kansas City T-Bones, where he won a title in 2008

> He is a 1991 graduate of Mansfield (PA) University

PITCHING COACH - MAX PETERSON

> San Diego native is in his ninth season as the team's pitching coach

> Peterson is a five-year veteran of minor league baseball and a former 18th round pick of the Oakland Athletics. He pitched three years in the A's organization and two with the White Sox. He also pitched in 12 games the Southern Illinois Miners in 2012.

> He was the 2019 Darren Bush Award winner for Coach of the Year

HITTING COACH - TJ ZAREWICZ

> Returns in 2026 for a second season with the Otters after serving his first last summer. He worked in 2024 for the New York Boulders and prior to that with the American Association's Lincoln Saltdogs. He also managed the COVID-pod's Steel City Slammin' Sammies in Washington during the summer of 2020. He's a product of Bethany College (WV) and played in the Pecos League.

FIRST BASE COACH - BILLY EASLEY
BENCH COACH - BOOTS DAY
ASSISTANT COACH - BOBBY SEGAL, PHIL BRITTON, ROB WATSON

OTTERS GENERAL INFORMATION

2025 RECORD - 40-56 (.417), 4th Central Division - Missed Playoffs

> Finished three games behind Florence for third in the standings

> Lost 12-straight games from July 1 through July 13 and 18 of 20 in that string and then had another losing skid of eight games in late July into early August... they did rattle off wins in nine in a row late.

NOTES - The Otters have missed the dance two years in a row since appearing in the 2023 FLCS against Quebec (3-2 loss) which was their second-straight playoff appearances. They've made it every year since 2016 besides 2021 and the last two (no season in 2020)

TOM VAETH

#7, MANAGER

VAYTH

BORN: July 13, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland
RESIDES: Canonsburg, Pennsylvania
WITH WASHINGTON: 6th Season
MANAGERIAL EXPERIENCE: 6th Season
PRO COACHING EXPERIENCE: 25th Season
PLAYING EXPERIENCE: 2 seasons, JuCo (injury ended career)

> Tom Vaeth enters his sixth season as the field manager of the Washington Wild Things in 2026. It's Vaeth's first managerial job in pro baseball, but he has managed in the California Winter League and on an interim basis during his tenure with the American Association's Winnipeg Goldeyes. He was named the 10th manager in Wild Things' history January 6, 2021.
> Vaeth had his contract extended prior to the 2025 season, announced by the club on Thursday, April 17, 2025. The extension tacked on two years to his deal, tying him to the organization through the 2027 season. It was the first true extension for Vaeth, who managed his first season on a one-year contract before signing a deal that ran through this 2025 season before the extension.
> Previous managers are Jeff Isom (2002-03), John Massarelli (2004-07), Greg Jelks (2008), Mark Mason (2009), Darin Everson (2010-11), Chris Bando (2012), Bart Zeller (2013-14), Bob Bozzuto (2014-15) and Gregg Langbehn (2016-20).
> Vaeth, when he was honored as the Roger Hanners Award winner in 2022 for Frontier League Manager of the Year, became the third skipper of the club to receive the honor, joining Isom (2002) and Massarelli (2004, 2006) in that department.
> The Baltimore, Maryland, native spent 17 seasons as an assistant with the Goldeyes. He worked in player procurement and as base coach, hitting coach and bullpen coach. During his tenure with the club, Winnipeg made the playoffs 10 times and won three championships. He spent most of the his time there as the hitting coach with his teams finishing top five in their leagues more than 10 times.
> Before getting the Wild Things' job, he narrowly missed out on the same job with the Cleburne Railroaders (American Association) prior to the 2019 season. A back-end, last-minute deal took that job from him and he was also considered for the Southern Maryland Blue Crabs (Atlantic League) job prior to that 2019 campaign.
> A catcher as a player, Vaeth played two seasons of JuCo ball before an injury derailed his playing career. He'd go on to spend four years in scouting between the Marlins and Padres. Vaeth worked for Orioles for five seasons, partly as an ambidextrous batting practice pitcher. He's also gained coaching experience at the JuCo and DI levels as well (Towson included).
> He replaced Gregg Langbehn, who was with the team from 2016-2020; Langbehn retired from pro ball and left as Washington's second most tenured manager, seventh in Frontier League managerial wins (he's been passed for that position since). Gregg guided Washington to two playoff appearances, an FLCS appearance and the 2018 East Division title (team's first division crown since 2007). He directed an MVP, Pitcher of the Year, Citizenship Award Winner, 21 All Stars and saw eight players' contract get purchased.
2021: Washington was 56-40 and won the Northeast Division, def. Équipe Québec 3-2 in the FLDS, lost to Schaumburg 3-2 in the FLCS, oversaw Pitcher and Rookie of the Year (Ryan Hennen), Citizenship Award winner (Nick Ward) and Coach of the Year (Alex Boshers)
2022: Washington was 62-34 and won the West Division, lost to Schaumburg 2-0 in the FLDS, oversaw Rookie of the Year (Kobe Foster) and Postseason All Star SS (Nick Ward), won Roger Hanners Award (Manager of the Year)
2023: Washington went 47-49 and missed the playoffs, oversaw postseason All Star outfielder (Anthony Brocato)
2024: Washington set a franchise record for single-season wins going 67-28 and won the West Division, def. Lake Erie 2-0 in the FLDS, lost to Québec 3-1 in the FLCS, oversaw Most Valuable Player (Caleb McNeely), Postseason All Star OF (Caleb McNeely), Postseason All Star DH (Tyreque Reed), Postseason All Star RP (Gyeongju Kim) and Coach of the Year (Alex Boshers)
2025: Washington finished 54-42 and won the Central Division, lost to Gateway 2-0 in the FLWC series

FLOWER-MIN

BORN: July 3, 1979
RESIDES: Morristown, New Jersey
WITH WASHINGTON: 1st Season
PRO COACHING EXPERIENCE: 2nd Season
PLAYING EXPERIENCE: No Professional Playing Experience

> Josh Flowerman enters his first season as Pitching Coach for the Washington Wild Things in 2026. He joined the team in December of 2025 to serve as pitching coach and an assistant on the field staff.
> Prior to joining the Wild Things, Flowerman served as Bullpen Coach for the Tri-City ValleyCats in 2025 in the Frontier League on Greg Tagert's staff, more specifically working as an assistant pitching coach and analyst.
> He has worked for Farleigh Dickinson University (Florham, NCAA Division III) on the coaching staff since 2020 as an assistant pitching coach and Director of Analytics and Video. He was serving prior to coming to Washington as the pitching coach in the 2025-26 academic year.
> Prior to spending 2025 with the ValleyCats, Flowerman was Pitching Coach for the MLB Draft League's Frederick Keys in 2024 and has worked at Drew University and in the Yankees and Dodgers organizations.
> He owns a bachelor's degree from Ithaca College in Broadcast Journalism, a Master of Science in Analytics from Villanova University and a certificate in problem-solving with machine learning and analytics from Cornell University.
> Among other positions in baseball, he was a media relations assistant and radio commentator with the Hudson Valley Renegades, an intern with the Houston Astros and Los Angeles Dodgers and an assistant coach at Morristown-Beard High School, which is his alma mater.
> He's also done Video Scouting for Baseball Info Solutions, as a Traffic and Finance Assistant for P.L. Thomas, worked as Director and Co-Owner after co-finding Career Explorations, as a media relations intern with the Orlando Magic, a sports information intern with UCLA and in various other roles.

ANDY FLEISCHACKER #25, 1B COACH

FLEISCH-ack-er

BORN: May 10, 1970
RESIDES: Tampa, Florida
WITH WASHINGTON: 1st Season
US PRO COACHING EXPERIENCE: 1st Season (Swiss National Team exp.)
PLAYING EXPERIENCE: No US Professional Playing Experience

> Andy Fleischacker enters his first season as First Base Coach of the Washington Wild Things. His hire was announced in March of 2026 and he replaces Cole Bumbales in the role, who served 1.5 seasons as first base coach for the club. He's most recently been doing private hitting instruction but brings in more than 20 years of baseball coaching experience to the role, his first in the pro ranks in the US in partner leagues or affiliated baseball.
> Fleischacker's work career began in 1995 with the Vienna Wanderers Baseball Club in Austria, where he was the head coach. He was hitting coach for Gibbs High School in St. Petersburg, Florida, in 1997 and was envoy coach to Germany for a six-week program with four clubs with Major League Baseball International that year. He took over as head coach for the Cologne Cardinals in 1998, a team in Germany. From 2000-2002 and again from 2007 through 2008, he was head coach for the Zűrich Challengers in Switzerland. In between, he was an assistant at Chaminade High School in Hollywood, Florida, at Greensboro College in North Carolina, hitting coach for the Asheboro Copperheads (CPL) in 2005 and hitting coach for the Salinas Valley Packers (California Collegiate Summer League) in 2006.
> He was hitting and catching coach for the Swiss National Team in 2008 before spending a year at Lake Erie College as hitting coach, time as the head coach of the Solingen Alligators in Germany (2009-10), four more seasons with the Swiss National Team, where he was the head coach of the Senior/U18/U15 national teams from 2011-15. Since, he was head coach of senior teams in Switzerland (Therwil Flyers), an assistant at Alonso HS in Tampa, bench coach for the Ireland U18 national team for two years and a player development coordinator and Florida HS Director for Kangaroo Court and Top Tier Roos Baseball Club in Tampa. He's been doing private hitting instruction in Tampa since 2022.
> He was inducted into the Swiss Baseball and Softball Hall of Fame in 2025.

HAILEY DROLLINGER ATHLETIC TRAINER

DRAW-lin-jurr

BORN: September 8, 1996 in Champaign, IL
RESIDES: Champaign, Illinois
WITH WASHINGTON: 3rd Season

> Hailey Drollinger enters her third season as the Head Athletic Trainer of the Washington Wild Things in 2026. She joined the team prior to the 2024 season after previous Head AT Austin Pascarella left the organization for a job with Duquesne University.
> She was an athletic training intern at Carle Orthopedics and Sports Medicine in the summer of 2019 during her time in undergrad at Illinois State University (Class of 2020). She got her master of science in Applied Exercise Science at Concordia University Chicago.
> In 2022, she worked as a minor league assistant AT with Low-A Kannapolis in the White Sox farm system before taking a position with the Houston Astros organization in 2023 with the Double-A Corpus Christi Hooks.
> Hailey went to Champaign Central High School
