BOOMERS 6, WINDY CITY 2

The Boomers made it 2-0 in home openers and season openers, putting away Windy City in the late innings last night. Gerard Hall recorded a hustle double to lead off the game and scored on a Chad Mozingo sacrifice fly. Schaumburg added another run in the second to jump ahead 2-0 when Sean Mahley posted an RBI single. Windy City tied the game in the fifth inning, scoring a pair of runs to chase Mike Giovenco from the game. Giovenco tossed five innings in his season debut, allowing two runs on seven hits in a no decision with three walks and six strikeouts. Matt Kuna entered and earned the win when the Boomers added an unearned run in the bottom of the sixth against Mike Recchia, the 2012 Frontier League Pitcher of the Year. Schaumburg put the game out of reach with three runs in the bottom of the eighth. The Boomers posted eight hits in the contest.

BOYS OF THE BULLPEN

Three different pitchers appeared out of the bullpen for the Boomers last night. Matt Kuna earned the win, tossing two innings in his season debut. Kuna appeared in two games as a reliever last season before moving into the rotation. Dexter Price recorded a perfect eighth for a hold and James Jones closed out the game in the ninth during a non-save situation, punctuating the victory with a strikeout looking to end the game. Kuna allowed a game-tying bloop single to Louis Templeton III, but following the single the bullpen posted 10 consecutive outs until the ninth inning.

DOUBLE THE MC

Steve McQuail won't be the only Big Mc in the order for the Boomers in 2013. Brian McConkey made his Schaumburg debut last night, batting fifth in the order and starting at first base. McConkey became an immediate impact, finishing 3-for-3 with an RBI and two runs scored. McConkey doubled in the second, singled in the fourth, walked in the sixth, and singled again in the eighth.

HALL OF A TIME

Gerard Hall collected the first hit in the history of the Schaumburg Boomers in 2012, singling with two outs in the first inning at Lake Erie last year. Hall would come around to score the first run in a 4-0 shutout of the Crushers moments later. Hall did it again last night, posting the first hit of 2013 by leading off the game with a hustle double. Hall would come around to score on a sacrifice fly by Chad Mozingo. Hall was limited to just 21 games last season due to a pair of shoulder injuries. The first inning double was the first of three in the game for the Boomers.

2012 VS. WASHINGTON

Washington is a member of the East Division and the teams will play each other six times this year. During the 2012 season, the Boomers finished 2-4 against the Wild Things. Schaumburg posted a .242 batting average while being outscored 43-27. Michael Valadez hit .381 against Washington while the starting staff combined to finish 0-4. The pitching staff as a whole posted a 6.38 ERA against the Wild Things last year. The Boomers closed the first half losing two of three to the Wild Things at home, one of the few home series defeats in a 34-17 home season.
