WAYNE STATE HEAD COACH JEFF KAMINSKY: Jeff Kaminsky is in his second season as head men's basketball coach at Wayne State College. He was named the 27th head coach in the program's 102-year history on June 15, 2016.

Under Kaminsky, the Wildcats posted a 10-19 overall record and 8-14 mark in the NSIC South Division in his first season as head coach. WSC doubled its win total from the previous season, starting the year with a road win at Missouri Western 70-57 that snapped a 17-game road losing streak dating back to January 31, 2015. The Wildcats ended the year with six road wins, one more than the previous three years combined.

WSC also made substantial improvements defensively under Kaminsky as the Wildcats allowed nearly 10 fewer points than the previous season. The 'Cats ranked sixth in the league allowing 75.8 points per game after inheriting a team that was 16th the previous year while allowing 85.1 points a contest. Wayne State also ranked first in the league in turnover margin (+3.07) averaging only 10.8 turnovers a game while creating a league-high 13.9 a contest.

When hired at WSC, Kaminsky brought 29 years of collegiate head coaching experience and over 450 career wins to the Wildcat program. Kaminsky served 11 seasons as the head coach at Valley City State University in North Dakota before coming to Wayne, compiling a 183-144 record that included five 20-win seasons in his last nine years at the school. His 2015-16 team recorded a 22-11 record and advanced to the second round of the NAIA Division II National Tournament while finishing the season ranked #21 in the final NAIA Division II Top 25 Coaches Poll.

Kaminsky's 2012-13 team posted a 23-7 record at Valley City State while advancing to the NAIA National Tournament for the first time since 1987.

Kaminsky also served 11 years (1994-2005) as head coach at Wisconsin-Superior where he also served as the interim athletic director overseeing 16 sports from 2000-2004. His first collegiate head coaching job was at Mid State Technical College in Wisconsin where Kaminsky spent seven years as head coach, accumulating a 153-70 record with three consecutive Wisconsin Junior College State Championships.

Kaminsky began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Division I Kent State in the 1985-86 season, helping the Golden Flashes to a 19-10 record and second place finish in the Mid American Conference.

Kaminsky graduated from Grand Valley State University in Michigan where he was voted GLIAC Scholar Athlete of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior helping GVSU to a 21-7 record and Sweet 16 appearance in the NCAA Division II Tournament. He began his collegiate career at College of DuPage in Illinois where he was a Junior College Honorable Mention All-American in the 1982-83 season helping his team to a 28-4 record.

Kaminsky obtained his bachelor degree from Grand Valley State in psychology and earned his master's degree from Kent State University in sport psychology.
