2021 Ron Masanz

Track & Field Classic

The Ron Masanz Track and Field Classic is named for long-time Dragon track and field coach Ron Masanz, whose teams set the standard for track and field in the NIC.

Masanz, a native of South St. Paul, Minn., took over the Dragon program in 1968 and led the Dragons to 28 NIC Indoor and Outdoor team championships, developing 322 conference individual and relay champions, tutoring 49 All-Americans and 69 NAIA and NCAA Division II national placewinners, led the Dragons to a 50-meet home indoor win streak in Alex Nemzek Hall from 1970-81, was saluted as NAIA District IV Coach of the Year seven times, named to the NAIA Track Hall of Fame in 1985, and was enshrined in the Dragon Hall of Fame in 1991 and the NSIC Hall of Fame in 2000.

The MSUM track and field facility was renamed the Ron Masanz Track in 1991. The facility with a 3-M tartan surface was built in 1979 for $230,000, with construction labor coming from the 1979 Dragon track and field team. The first outdoor meet was held on April 15, 1980 when MSUM beat South Dakota State, 99-53.
