GNAC Baseball Championships Preview

NAMPA, Idaho – It has been five years since Northwest Nazarene earned a share of its first-ever GNAC regular-season title and advanced to win its first GNAC Baseball Championships.

The Nighthawks will look to soar back to the top as they enter as the No. 1 seed in the 2021 GNAC Baseball Championships, which will be played on Thursday and Friday at their own Vail Baseball Field in Nampa, Idaho. The Nighthawks went 15-5 at home this season and will enjoy home-field advantage in the tournament.

Entering the GNAC Championships with a 29-7 overall record (21-3 GNAC), Northwest Nazarene claimed the top seed after winning its first outright GNAC regular-season championship. The Nighthawks closed conference play with 10 straight wins, sweeping back-to-back series against Montana State Billings and Saint Martin's along the way.

Northwest Nazarene enters the tournament with a balanced roster. The Nighthawks own a .310 team batting average and are second in the conference with a 4.60 earned run average. The Nighthawks' high-scoring offense leads the conference with 8.67 runs and 7.97 RBI per game.

Senior third baseman Shawn Grandmont is batting .346 this season with a .461 on-base percentage and a .631 slugging percentage. Grandmont is tied for the conference lead with 52 RBI to go with 45 hits and nine home runs. Freshman outfielder Grant Kerry batted .376 in the regular season and is tied for second with teammate Ryan Dearing with 50 hits. Kerry hit 11 homers and drove in 45 runs. Due to health and safety protocols related to COVID-19, Western Oregon will not participate in the GNAC Baseball Championships. Central Washington moved up to the No. 2 seed and will play Northwest Nazarene in a best-of-three series. The two teams met on March 19-20 in Nampa with NNU taking three of four games from CWU. Their second series that was scheduled for April 23-24 was canceled due to health and safety protocols.

Central Washington returns to the tournament for the first time since 2018 with a 16-12 overall record (14-10 GNAC). The Wildcats won five of their last eight games after not playing for over three weeks in the midst of the season due to health and safety protocols and a bye week. They are second in the conference in both batting average (.320) and on-base percentage (.417).

Senior outfielder Justin Hampson and sophomore utility player Zach Berryman own the conference's top two batting averages. Hampson leads the GNAC with a .465 batting average and a .542
