GNAC News & Notes

IT'S ALL ON THE LINE IN THE FINAL WEEK: With one week left in the regular season, everything is still up for grabs.

No team has clinched any of the four spots in next week's GNAC Softball Championships, making all 16 games this week important.

With a 25-9 overall record and an 8-4 conference mark, Northwest Nazarene is in the driver's seat for the regular-season title and the No. 1 seed in the tournament. The Nighthawks rank among the top Division II teams in batting average, doubles, fielding percentage, home runs, slugging percentage and walks.

The Nighthawks will finish the regular-season at Montana State Billings. The Yellowjackets will need help to make the Championships, entering the week with a 5-11 record.

After not playing for two weeks, Central Washington will play eight games in the span of five days this week. The Wildcats will host Western Oregon in a make-up series on Wednesday and Thursday before traveling to Western Washington for a four-game series on Saturday and Sunday. Central Washington currently sits in second place in the GNAC with a 5-3 record.

The Vikings enter the week in third place in the GNAC with a 9-7 record. Western Washington leads the conference with a 2.73 earned run average. The home field has been an advantage to the Vikings with a 7-3 record in Bellingham.

Saint Martin's swept a four-game series at Montana State Billings to improve to 8-8 in conference play (17-14 overall) and take the potential No. 4 spot in the Championships. The Saints blasted their way back into the playoff picture with 10 home runs in the series, including a school-record five homers in Saturday's opener.

The top four teams in the conference standings based on win percentage will qualify for the GNAC Softball Championships, which take place May 6-8 at Western Oregon.
