#GNACSB in 280

@GNACSports

#NighthawksAtTheTop Northwest Nazarene took three of four games at Montana State Billings to win the GNAC regular-season title and earn the No. 1 seed for the GNAC Championships.

#LastSwingHeroics A three-run fifth-inning walk-off homer by Kylee Vanderbout put Saint Martin's in the GNAC Championships for the first time since 2017. The homer capped a 10-0 win over Western Oregon.

#StrikeoutQueen Western Washington's Anna Kasner became the GNAC all-time leader in strikeouts on Sunday. With 513 career K's, Kasner surpassed the 511 by Adrian Herman of Northwest Nazarene (2003-06).

#PostseasonTime After not having a tournament in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is finally time for postseason softball. The 2021 GNAC Softball Championships begin on Thursday in Monmouth, Oregon.

GNAC Softball Players of the Week

PLAYER

Ivy Hommel, Northwest Nazarene
UT • 5-5 • Junior • Kuna, Idaho

Hommel batted .533 in the Nighthawks' four games at Montana State Billings, going 8 for 15 with five runs, six RBI, three doubles and three home runs to lead NNU in clinching the GNAC regular-season title. Hommel went 5 for 5 in Friday's opener with five RBI and three runs, which included an RBI single and a pair of two-run homers. She went 2 for 3 in Friday's nightcap before hitting a solo homer in Saturday's opener, which ignited a five-run sixth inning that led NNU to the win.

Also Nominated: Sydney Brown (Central Washington), Britney Patrick (Saint Martin's), Chandler Bishop (Western Oregon), Lauren Lo (Western Washington).

PITCHER

Anna Kasner, Western Washington
P • 5-8 • Senior • Milton, Wash.

Kasner became the GNAC's all-time strikeout leader on Sunday, earning the win in the second game over Central Washington. In the complete game 5-1 win, Kasner allowed one run on five hits with one walk and five strikeouts. She now has 513 career strikeouts, moving past the previous record of 511 set by Adrian Herman of Northwest Nazarene (2003-06). Kasner took the loss in Saturday's 2-1 second game, allowing just two runs (a two-run double), one earned, on one hit while walking four and striking out 11.

Also Nominated: Samantha Stanfield (Central Washington), Jenna Kister (Montana State Billings), Tori Hensley (Northwest Nazarene), Maddie Mayer (Western Oregon).

GNAC Softball Championships Preview

MONMOUTH, Ore. – Three years ago, Northwest Nazarene took the conference by storm by not only winning the regular-season title but also winning the title in its first GNAC Softball Championships appearance.

In 2021, they will aim to repeat the feat as the Nighthawks are the No. 1 in the 2021 GNAC Softball Championships, which begins on Thursday at the Western Oregon University Softball Field.

Entering the Championships with a 28-10 overall record (11-5 GNAC), Northwest Nazarene took advantage of a scheduling quirk necessitated by the COVID-19 pandemic that saw the Nighthawks open the season with a 20-game homestand. The Nighthawks went 17-3 in that stretch, which included a sweep of Saint Martin's in their first conference series.

Despite a rocky road start where NNU lost three of four games at Western Oregon, the Nighthawks rebounded to go 8-6 away from Nampa. The road ledger included taking three of four games at Montana State Billings in the final weekend to lock up the program's second-ever regular-season title.

Northwest Nazarene is solid in all parts of its game. The Nighthawks lead the GNAC and rank among the top-20 in Division II with a .343 batting average and also lead the league in slugging percentage (.536), on-base percentage (.430) doubles (75), walks (155) and stolen bases (53). Nighthawks' players own the conference's top-three spots in hits, RBI, doubles and total bases.

Senior Brittany Genuardi leads an NNU lineup that has four players ranked in the GNAC top-10 with a .429 batting average. Ranked second in the GNAC, Genuardi has also drawn 39 walks to give her a league-leading .539 on-base percentage. Junior Ivy Hommel is fourth in the GNAC with a .396 batting average and leads the conference with 53 hits, 42 runs, 14 doubles and 25 stolen bases. Sophomore Maia McNicoll is sixth with a .377 batting average and is tied for first with 11 home runs.

Freshman Sidney Booth has been an incredible two-way threat for the Nighthawks. She leads the GNAC with a 1.80 earned run average and a 13-2 record, has struck out a league-leading 137 batters and owns a .198 opponent's batting average. At the plate, Booth is third in the GNAC with a .402 batting average and leads the conference with 39 RBI.

Entering as the No. 2 seed, Western Washington (20-12, 11-9 GNAC) is making its first GNAC Championships appearance since 2017. The Vikings benefitted from a strong start to the season, going 9-3 in non-conference play. That set the table for an 8-4 start to the GNAC schedule.

The Vikings' strength all season has been in the circle, leading the GNAC with a 2.49 earned run average and a .225 opponent's batting average. Senior Anna Kasner has made her senior season one to remember. Ranking second in the GNAC with a 1.88 earned run average and a 10-3 record, Kasner set the GNAC all-time strikeout record at 513 in Sunday's season finale against Central Washington. She has thrown two no-hitters this season, which included a six-inning perfect game against Saint Martin's on March 12. It was the first perfect game in the GNAC since 2009.

Junior Kira Doan gives WWU a solid one-two punch in the circle, ranking fifth in the GNAC with a 2.46 earned run average.

Junior Tatum Dow leads the Western Washington offense and the GNAC with a .460 batting average while ranking second with 46 hits. Junior Lauren Lo is eighth in the GNAC with a .372 batting average.

Saint Martin's made a dramatic entry into the GNAC Championships, clinching the No. 3 seed in the final game on Sunday when sophomore Kylee Vanderbout hit a three-run homer to end a 10-0, five-inning win over Western Oregon. The homer allowed the Saints to break a tie for fourth place and earn their first trip to the postseason since 2017.

The win capped a solid second-half rally that saw the Saints win eight of their final 11 games after going 2-6 to open conference play. Saint Martin's (19-16, 10-10 GNAC) enters the Championships with a .275 batting average and a 3.93 earned run average. Freshman Britney Patrick leads the young roster with a .336 batting average while freshman Olivia Schmidt is batting .328.

Freshman Abby Runyon ranks seventh in the GNAC with a 3.07 earned run average and is second with 11 wins on the season. Her 20 appearances lead all GNAC hurlers.

With its move into the GNAC Championships field for Central Washington after the Wildcats withdrew due to health and safety protocols, Western Oregon is making its eighth GNAC Championships appearance and will be looking for the program's first postseason win since 2018.

The Wolves did not start play until mid-March due to health and safety protocols of their own. They won six games in April, splitting two series with Central Washington and Western Washington in the final week of the season. Western Oregon was the only team to take a series from Northwest Nazarene in 2021, beating the Nighthawks in three of four games on April 2 and 3.

Senior Aleya Turner enters the tournament ranked seventh in the GNAC with a .375 batting average. Senior Chandler Bishop is batting .373 and leads WOU with 21 RBI. Junior Reilly Tidwell tops the pitching staff with a 3.40 earned run average. As a team, Western Oregon owns a .264 batting average and 4.86 earned run average.

The GNAC Softball Championships begin on Thursday at 11:30 a.m. when No. 2 Western Washington faces No. 3 Saint Martin's. No. 1 Northwest Nazarene and No. 4 Western Oregon will play in the second game at 2:30 p.m. The championship game will take place on Saturday at noon with the winner receiving the conference's automatic qualifier to the NCAA Championships.

To protect the health and safety of the student-athletes, coaches and support staff during the COVID-19 pandemic, spectators will not be allowed at this year's GNAC Softball Championships. Live video and stats links can be found at GNACSports.com.

GNAC Championships Participants

NORTHWEST NAZARENE

- Northwest Nazarene secured its first GNAC regular-season championship since 2018 by winning the first three games in a four-game series at Montana State Billings. The Nighthawks won both Friday games, 8-4 and 10-0 (6 innings), and won Sunday's opener 6-2.
- Junior Ivy Hommel was named the GNAC Softball Player of the Week after she batted .533 in the four games, going 8 for 15 with five runs, six RBI, three doubles and three home runs. Hommel exploded for a 5 for 5 effort in the opener, which included a pair of two-run homers and an RBI single. She went 2 for 3 in Friday's nightcap and hit a solo homer in Saturday's opener. Hommel is fourth in the GNAC with a .396 batting average and is tied for the conference lead with 11 home runs.
- Junior Tori Hensley was the winner in the circle in two of the three victories. She threw a one-hitter in Friday's six-inning nightcap with six strikeouts. Hensley picked up the win in relief in Saturday's opener, allowing two hits with three strikeouts in three innings. Hensley enters the GNAC Championships with an 8-3 record and a 3.40 earned run average.
- Freshman Sidney Booth was the winner in Friday's opener, allowing four runs on six hits with nine strikeouts to improve to 13-2 on the season. Booth leads the GNAC with a 1.80 earned run average and 137 strikeouts. She is also third in the GNAC with a .402 batting average.
- The Nighthawks enter the GNAC Championships leading the league and ranked 11th in Division II with a .343 batting average and are second with a 2.78 earned run average. They are eighth in Division II with a .430 on-base percentage.
- Northwest Nazarene is making its third consecutive GNAC Championships appearance. The Nighthawks are looking to win the tournament for the first time since 2018.

SAINT MARTIN'S

- Saint Martin's qualified for the GNAC Championships on the final day of the regular season. The Saints split the final weekend with Western Oregon, capturing a 2-0 victory in Saturday's opener and a 10-0, five-inning win in Sunday's finale.
- Freshman Olivia Schmidt led the SMU offense with a .455 batting average in the four games, going 5 for 11 with two runs and a double. Schmidt had a hit in each game, capped by her 2 for 3 effort in Sunday's opener. Schmidt enters the GNAC Championships with a .328 batting average.
- Freshman Megan Convery batted .400 in the series, going 4 for 10 with three runs and a triple. Her week was topped by a 2 for 3 effort in Saturday's second game, which included her triple and a run scored. Convery enters the week with a .277 batting average.
- Freshman Abby Runyon was the winning pitcher on Saturday, allowing eight hits and striking out six for her 11th win of the season. Freshman Tia Ridings earned the win on Sunday, allowing four hits with two walks and four strikeouts to improve to 4-0. Runyon enters the week ranked seventh in the GNAC with a 3.07 earned run average. Ridings owns a 1.04 earned run average in five appearances.
- Saint Martin's enters the GNAC Championships with a .275 batting average and a 3.93 earned run average. The Saints are tied for seventh in Division II with 17 double plays turned.
- Saint Martin's is participating in its sixth GNAC Championships and its first since 2017. The Saints won the first GNAC Championships in 2013.

WESTERN OREGON

- Western Oregon closed the regular season with an eight-game week. The Wolves split with Central Washington mid-week, winning 6-4 on Wednesday and 12-8 on Thursday. Western Oregon then split with Saint Martin's, winning on Saturday 6-5 and on Sunday 4-2.
- After finishing in fifth place in the conference standings, Western Oregon was moved into the No. 4 seed for the GNAC Championships after Central Washington withdrew for health and safety protocols. The change gives WOU its eighth consecutive GNAC Championships appearance.
- Senior Aleya Turner led the Wolves with a .433 batting average, going 13 for 30 with six runs and two RBI. She had three two-hit games in the CWU series, which included three runs and an RBI single in Thursday's opener. Turner also had a pair of two-hit games against SMU and scored two runs in Saturday's win. Turner enters the week ranked seventh in the GNAC with a .375 batting average.
- Senior Chandler Bishop batted .412 in the eight games, going 7 for 17 with four runs and six RBI. She went 2 for 2 with an RBI single against CWU on Wednesday and had a three-run homer in Thursday's opener. Bishop was the winning pitcher in that game, allowing six runs on nine hits in six innings.
- Junior Maddie Mayer had two of the Wolves' wins. She won Wednesday's opener over CWU by allowing four runs on seven hits with two strikeouts. Mayer won in relief on Sunday, allowing six hits and striking out three in 4.2 innings. Mayer enters the GNAC Championships with a 5.55 earned run average.
- Western Oregon enters the GNAC Championships with a .264 batting average and a 4.86 earned run average. The Wolves are 13th in Division II with 0.46 double plays per game.

WESTERN WASHINGTON

- Western Washington closed the regular season with a split with Central Washington over the weekend. The Vikings won the closing game each, winning 4-0 on Saturday and 5-1 on Sunday.
- Senior Anna Kasner was named the GNAC Softball Pitcher of the Week after she allowed three runs, two earned, on six hits and struck out 16 in two games. In her win on Sunday, Kasner became the GNAC's all-time leader in strikeouts. Her 513 surpasses the 511 by Adrian Herman of Northwest Nazarene (2003-06). She allowed one run on five hits and struck out five in the game. On Saturday, Kasner took the hard-luck loss in a one-hitter with the one hit being a two-run double. She struck out 11 in the game. Kasner enters the GNAC Championships ranked second in the GNAC with a 1.88 earned run average.
- Junior Lauren Lo led the WWU offense with a .667 batting average, going 8 for 12 with four runs, two RBI and two doubles. Lo went 2 for 3 in both Saturday games, adding a pair of RBI singles in the nightcap. She repeated the 2 for 3 performances on Sunday, which included two doubles in the opener and two runs in the nightcap. Lo enters the week with a .372 batting average.
- Junior Tatum Dow leads the GNAC with her .460 batting average. She batted .333 in the CWU series, going 2 for 3 with two runs and a double in Saturday's second game.
- Western Washington enters GNAC Championships leading the GNAC with a 2.49 earned run average while owning a .318 batting average. The Vikings rank 24th in Division II with 1.81 doubles per game and 30th with eight shutouts.
- Western Washington is playing in its fourth GNAC Championships and its first since 2017. The Vikings won the 2017 GNAC Championships, where Kasner was named the MVP. Western advanced to the championship game in 2015.
