GNAC Women's Soccer Players of the Week

OFFENSE Madison Grande, Northwest Nazarene F • 5-5 • Junior • Gig Harbor, Wash.

Grande extended her lead as the leading goal scoring player in the conference with a brace against Montana State Billings on Thursday in a 3-1 win over the Yellowjackets. She leads the conference and ranks 43rd in Division II with 10 goals on the season.

Also Nominated: Sydney Torres (MSUB), AJ DePinto (SPU), Estera Levinte (WWU)

DEFENSE Nicole Anderson, Simon Fraser GK • 5-6 • Senior • Eagle, Idaho

Anderson was a critical player in making sure that Simon Fraser clinched a berth to the GNAC Championships. She posted two shutouts in the final week of the regular season with a four-save performance against Saint Martin's on Thursday followed by five-saves against Western Oregon on Saturday.

Also Nominated: Tuva Sallvin (MSUB), Kaitlynn Knocke (SPU), Darien Walton (WOU), Katie Watt (WWU)

GNAC Championships Preview

After an exciting year that saw the regular-season championship and the four tournament seeds not decided until the final day, the conference's top teams head to Nampa, Idaho for the 2022 GNAC Women's Soccer Championships, which begins on Thursday.

All four programs are no strangers to the GNAC Championships after qualifying for the tournament in 2021.

Western Washington comes into the tournament on the heels of its ninth regularseason title as the No. 1 seed. The Vikings finished the regular season with a 12-2-4 overall record (11-1-2 GNAC) and were the class of the field, leading the conference in goals, assists, shots, goals allowed and shutouts.

Host Northwest Nazarene lines up as the No. 2 seed, having battled Western Washington for the regular-season title right down to the final day of the season. The Nighthawks enter the GNAC Championships undefeated at home and will look to maintain that record behind the second-highest-scoring offense in the conference and second-ranked goals against average.

Both WWU and NNU clinched postseason berths two weeks before the end of the regular season. This is NNU's third GNAC Championships appearance.

The reigning West Region champion, Seattle Pacific enters the GNAC Championships as the No. 3 seed. The Falcons clinched a spot in the penultimate week and finished the regular season with a 9-4-1 GNAC record (11-5-2 overall). The Falcons established themselves as a contender early in the season, winning four of five matches to start the conference season and kept up the pace to finish two points behind Northwest Nazarene.

Western Washington and Seattle Pacific have participated in every GNAC Championships tournament dating back to 2011. The two teams faced off in last year's conference championships and West Regional finals.

Simon Fraser earned the No. 4 seed on the final day of the regular season with a 0-0 draw with Western Oregon, who was just one point back from SFU in the standings. This marks the fourth time that SFU has qualified for the GNAC Women's Soccer Championships. The Red Leafs finished the regular season 4-5-5 in conference play (5-6-7 overall) and will face top-seeded Western Washington in the first semifinal match on Thursday.

The Vikings will look to leading goal scorers Estera Levinte and Morgan Manalili to continue their offensive output in the postseason. Levinte leads WWU and ranks fourth in the GNAC with 16 points while Manalili ranks second on the team and fifth in the conference with 15 points. Claire Henninger has been the go-to goalkeeper for the Vikings, starting 16 matches with a GNAC-leading 0.59 goals against average. She also ranks second in the conference with seven shutouts.

The Nighthawks come into the postseason with the GNAC goal-scoring leader in junior forward Madison Grande. Her 10 goals make her the highest points-scoring player in the conference, a dangerous combination with goalkeeper Alexis Montoya who leads the GNAC with eight shutouts and a .848 save percentage.

Seattle Pacific comes into the GNAC Championships ranked third in scoring. The team is led by junior forward Sophie Beadle who tallied four goals and is tied for the conference lead with six assists. The Falcons are one of only two teams to feature four players who have scored at least four goals.

The Simon Fraser offense is led by junior forward/midfielder Giuliana Zaurrini who tallied four goals and two assists. The Red Leafs' backline has also been effective, ranking third in the conference with seven shutouts behind goalkeepers Sarah Loewen and Nicole Anderson.

The Vikings and Red Leafs met twice in the regular season with Western Washington coming out on top on both occasions courtesy of shutout victories. The Vikings took a 3-0 win over SFU on Sept. 15 in Bellingham and a 2-0 win in Burnaby where senior midfielder Tera Ziemer recorded a brace.

Northwest Nazarene and Seattle Pacific will come into their semifinal match already familiar with each other after playing in a match on the final day of the regular season. The Falcons came out with the victory from that meeting with a 1-0 where senior forward AJ DePinto proved to be the difference maker. In their previous meeting, it was the Nighthawks who came out on top with a 3-1 win in Nampa.

The Championship match will be played Saturday at noon. The winner will receive the conference's automatic berth to the NCAA Division II Championships.

Around The GNAC

NORTHWEST NAZARENE

- Northwest Nazarene rounded out the regular season on the road with a 3-1 win over Montana State Billings on Saturday and a 1-0 loss to Seattle Pacific on Saturday.
- On Thursday the Nighthawks were led by junior forward Madison Grande who recored her second brace of the season with goals in the 33rd and 80th minutes. She was joined in scoring by Carolyn Moravec who scored the eventual game-winner in the 65th minute off and assist by Sierra Sanchez to put the Nighthawks up by two.

- Northwest Nazarene had the majority of scoring opportunities on Saturday, but couldn't find the back of the net after conceding a goal in the 11th minute and outshooting the Falcons 16-5.
- Grande was named the GNAC Offensive Player of the Week after her twogoals and 11 shots on the week. She leads the conference with 10 goals.
- Northwest Nazarene will face Seattle Pacific for a rematch in the GNAC Championships semifinals on Thursday in Nampa. The Nighthawks enter the contest undefeated at home this season and having conceded only one goal to conference competition on home turf.

SEATTLE PACIFIC

- Seattle Pacific closed out the regular season schedule with pair of wins over Central Washington, 3-2, on Thursday in Ellensburg and Seattle Pacific, 1-0, on Saturday at home.
- The Falcons came out on top in a high offensive match against the Wildcats that saw three goals scored in the second half. Central Washington got on the board first but SPU midfielder Emmy Moore respond less than 10 minutes later with a goal in the 35th minute. The Wildcats scored in the opening seconds of the second half but it was the Falcons who put the match on ice with goals from Marissa Bankey and Moira McKay.

- On Saturday, one goal proved to be all that was need for the Falcons to take victory over Northwest Nazarene in a preview of the two teams GNAC Championships semifinal match. Senior forward AJ DePinto scored the lone goal of the match in just the 11th minute off of an assist from Sophie Beadle who is tied for the lead in the conference with six assists on the season.
- The Falcons finished the regular season 9-4-1 in GNAC play (11-5-2 overall), just two points behind Northwest Nazarene.
- Seattle Pacific will face Northwest Nazarene in the semifinals of the GNAC Championships on Thursday in Nampa. The Falcons are the only team in the conference to have scored a goal against the Nighthawks at NNU Soccer Field.

SIMON FRASER

- Simon Fraser capped off its season by doing exactly what it needed to do in order to secure a spot in the GNAC Championships. The Red Leafs took a 2-0 win over Saint Martin's in Burnaby on Thursday and earned a 0-0 draw with Western Oregon on Saturday in Monmouth to stay ahead of the Wolves in the standings.
- The Red Leafs were a controlling force against the Saints in Thursday, outshooting their opponents 13-8 with twice as many on goal. Simon Fraser's leading scorer Giuliana Zaurrini scored the game-winning goal in the 23rd minute while Kate Cartier added an insurance marker in the second half. The match was made doubly difficult for the players and officials as a thick layer of fog descended on the field and forced a pair of brief stoppages due to poor visibility.
- The goal was much clearer on Saturday when SFU came into its match against Western Oregon knowing all it needed was a draw to advance to the GNAC Championships. The Red Leafs executed perfectly and despite not putting shot on goal, the defense secured the shutout behind a five-save performance by Nicole Anderson.
- Anderson's pair of shutouts at a critical stage for Simon Fraser earned her GNAC Defensive Player of the Week honors.
- Simon Fraser will face No. 1 seed and No.10-ranked Western Washington on Thursday in the GNAC Championships semifinal.

WESTERN WASHINGTON

- Western Washington secured its ninth regular-season championship on Saturday with a 3-0 win over Saint Martin's in Bellingham after dropping its match against Western Oregon 2-1 on Thursday.
- The Vikings struck first on Thursday with team-leading goal scorer Estera Levinte netting her fifth goal of the season in the 36th minute. Despite outshooting Western Oregon 22-3, the Wolves put all three of their shots on frame and both of their chances in the second half found the back of the net. The loss put an end to WWU's 13-match undefeated streak and their undefeated record in conference play.

- Western Washington bounced back immediately on Saturday and took control of its own destiny with a 3-0 win to claim the regular-season championship.
   Freshman midfielder Morgan Manalili capped off a stunning regular-season with her sixth goal of the season in the 12th minute and the Vikings never looked back. An own goal in the second half provided some insurance and Dayana Diaz put the match even further out of reach with her third goal of the season in the 71st minute.
- The Vikings enter the 2022 GNAC Women's Soccer Championships as the No. 1 seed and are ranked No. 10 in the United Soccer Coaches Poll.
- Western Washington will face No. 4 seed Simon Fraser in the GNAC Championships semifinals on Thursday in Nampa.
