#GNACMSOC in 280 @GNACSports

#BackToBack Thanks to his 360-minute scoreless streak, Simon Fraser goalkeeper Aidan Bain won GNAC Defensive Player of the Week for the second straight time and the third time overall this year.

#KingsOfTheNorth The GNAC's two northern-most soccer programs, Simon Fraser and Western Washington, went a combined 4-0 in home matches this week and jointly ascended to the top of the conference standings.

#ComeToPapa GNAC Offensive Player of the Week Niko Papakyriakopoulos sent SFU Stadium at Terry Fox Field into a frenzy with an 89th-minute game-winning free kick in a 1-0 win over NNU.

#RegionalRankings The GNAC placed two teams in the NCAA Super Region 4 Rankings with Seattle Pacific at No. 10 and Simon Fraser at No. 12.

SFU Shutout Streak Reaches Four, Team Reaches First

Simon Fraser, led by goalkeeper and two-time reigning GNAC Defensive Player of the Week Aidan Bain, continued its defensive efforts with their third and fourth consecutive shutout wins, pushing aside Northwest Nazarene 1-0 on Thursday and Saint Martin's 2-0 on Saturday. The team's four-game win streak and Bain's 360-minute scoreless streak have catapulted Simon Fraser to the top of the GNAC standings, a feat that had been familiar in recent seasons but had yet to happen this year.

Simon Fraser and Western Washington each have a 5-2 GNAC record for 15 points. Both leapfrogged No. 18 Seattle Pacific, who drew 1-1 at Montana State Billings in their only match of the week and sit at 13 points with a 4-1-1 conference record.

Niko Papakyriakopoulos provided the heroics in the NNU win, punching home a free kick in the 89th minute to lift SFU to a 1-0 victory. Papakyriakopoulos earned the GNAC Offensive Player of the Week award for his dramatic winner in a week where no GNAC player had multiple goals.

Neither of the conference's leading goalscorers, SPU's Alex Mejia and MSUB's Halil Yilmaz, could find the net when their two teams clashed Saturday.

Instead, Jose Benavides put the Falcons ahead on his first shot on goal of the season, while the Yellowjackets relied on freshman defender Mathias Kjolner to head home a corner kick in the 81st minute to equalize.

With Northwest Nazarene dropping back after an 0-2 week, it is set up as a three-team race for the GNAC championship. If Seattle Pacific wants to bounce back from dropping points to the Yellowjackets, they will have to do it against their title rivals head-to-head. The Falcons host Simon Fraser on Thursday and Western Washington on Saturday in matches that could very well put one team in the driver's seat for the GNAC crown. In between, MSUB will have the opportunity to steal points from the other two frontrunners after doing so against SPU, facing both teams in inverse order as the Falcons.

Seattle Pacific came in at No. 10 while Simon Fraser was No. 12 in the NCAA's first Super Region 4 rankings. The NCAA will select 10 teams from the Super Region to participate in the postseason.
