GNAC News & Notes

CAT SCRATCH: The defending GNAC champions continue to be one of the hottest teams in the West Region. Central Washington enters the week with a 27-7 record and, with a 14-2 conference mark, holds a five-game lead over second place Saint Martin's. The Wildcats have won 20 of their last 22 games and took just their second GNAC loss to Western Washington on Sunday.

Central Washington enters the week leading the GNAC and eighth in Division II with a .353 batting average. It leads Division II with an average of 0.72 double plays per game, having turned 25 so far this season. The Wildcats rank ninth in Division II in scoring with 7.46 runs per game.

Central Washington also leads the GNAC with a 2.60 earned run average and a .963 fielding percentage.

GET OUT THE RYE BREAD AND MUSTARD, GRANDMA: A pair of GNAC batters hit grand slams over the weekend. Northwest Nazarene freshman Brittany Genuardi opened Saturday's doubleheader with Western Oregon with a grand slam that put NNU up 4-0 in the first inning. The Crusaders went on to the 6-4 win. Saint Martin's Sabrina Hicks hit a grand slam in the third inning of Saturday's opener with Western Washington, which allowed the Saints to cut into what had been a 6-0 Vikings' lead. Western Washington went on to win the game 9-8.

HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE: As teams vie for earning spots in the GNAC Championship late this month, Northwest Nazarene will benefit from some serious home field advantage. With the move of last week's four-game series against Western Oregon from Monmouth to Nampa (due to weather and field conditions), the Crusaders will close the regular season with 16 straight home games. The Crusaders currently sit in third place in the GNAC standings with a 9-7 mark.

Western Oregon hopes to enjoy a string of eight home dates in its final 18 regular season games as long as weather conditions cooperate. The Wolves have yet to play a game in Monmouth thanks to a combination of inclement weather and unplayable field conditions.
