Complete Player of the Week releases are available online at GNACsports.com.

GNAC News & Notes

HOT START FOR KASNER: There's nothing that a freshman wants more than to make a great first impression to start their college career. That start for Western Washington freshman pitcher Anna Kasner certainly fits the bill.

Kasner was named both the GNAC Softball Pitcher of the Week and the NFCA Division II Pitcher of the Week after opening her career off in awesome fashion in two games in Hawaii. The Milton, Wash., native opened by throwing a complete-game one hitter in a 2-0 win over Chaminade on Sunday. She allowed just one walk in the game and struck out 13 batters, the most by a GNAC pitcher since Montana State Billings' Jessyka MacDonald struck out 14 batters against Western Oregon on Mar. 25, 2012. Kasner came back to throw three innings of no-hit relief in the nightcap, which the Vikings lost 7-4.

Kasner is now on her way to putting herself in the mix for a second shot at both honors. She repeated her 13-strikeout performance in a 7-3, eight-inning win at BYU-Hawaii on Tuesday, allowing two earned runs on six hits. In three appearances this season, Kasner owns a 0.78 earned run average in 18 innings pitched with 32 strikeouts.

THE TEAM TO WATCH: After their run through the GNAC Championships into the NCAA Division II Super Regional, Central Washington will be the team to beat in the GNAC in 2017.

The Wildcats were picked by conference coaches to repeat as GNAC champion in the annual coaches' preseason poll, which was released on Jan. 27. Central Washington received six of eight possible first place votes to finish with 61 points, well ahead Western Oregon, which was picked second with 50 points.

In addition to the conference prognostication, Central Washington is No. 14 in the NFCA Division II Preseason Coaches Poll. The Wildcats finished in that position in the 2016 poll.

Central Washington went 3-2 at the MSUB Desert Stinger to open the 2017 season. The Wildcats opened with an 11-7 win over Cal Baptist on Friday before blistering Cal State Dominguez Hills on Saturday, 21-3 in five innings. Central hammered out 24 hits, three doubles and two home runs and finished with 20 RBIs in the contest.
