GNAC News & Notes

HOME SWEET HOME: After being on the road for the first 25 games of the season, Montana State Billings certainly made the most of its first home games. The Yellowjackets took three of four games from Western Oregon to open home play. The Yellowjackets broke out the bats for the home fans, finishing with 40 runs in the four games. The series concluded with a 19-18 eight-inning game on Sunday afternoon.

Simon Fraser also played its first home games of the season in Burnaby, but did not fare as well as MSUB as the Clan lost three of four games on Beedie Field. The one win was a 9-2 victory over Saint Martin's in Saturday's nightcap.

Two GNAC teams are still awaiting their chance to play in front of home crowds. Central Washington will likely play its first home games of the season on Saturday and Sunday as the Wildcats host Western Oregon and Concordia. The Wolves, meanwhile, will remain on the road until hosting Northwest Nazarene for a four-game set on Apr. 7 and 8.

WET CONDITIONS: A wetter than usual winter and spring continues to cause for softball schedule shuffling in the GNAC. A four-game series between Northwest Nazarene and Simon Fraser, originally scheduled for the first weekend in March, continues to be pushed back due to rain. The two teams are now scheduled to meet on Thursday and Friday in Burnaby, B.C., if conditions hold. Saint Martin's saw the first two games of its short Bay Area trip moved back a day due to rain. The Saints will play Holy Names on Wednesday and Notre Dame de Namur on Thursday before returning home to host Concordia and Western Oregon over the weekend.

HEAVY HITTERS: The GNAC continues to boast some of the top hitters in the nation. Six GNAC performers rank among the top-50 in Division III in batting average. Saint Martin's Lauren Diuco leads the list with her .538 average, ranking her fifth nationally. Western Washington's Emily Benson is not far behind with a .521 average that is ninth nationally. The conference also has six players ranked in the top-50 in home runs per game, led by Central Washington's Jacie McDaniels. Her 0.53 home runs per game ranks second nationally.
