RON LENZ PLAYERS OF THE YEAR

Justin Dvorak (QB), Colorado Mines
Offensive Player of the Year

The Harlon Hill finalist led NCAA Division II in passing yards and touchdowns leading Colorado Mines to a share of the RMAC championship and to its first postseason victory since 2004.

The RMAC Offensive Player of the Year threw for 4,584 yards and 53 touchdowns while running for eight more for the nation's top offense.

Lucky Baar (DL), McKendree (Ill.)
Defensive Player of the Year

The three-time All-Great Lakes Valley Conference performer led the nation with 17.5 quarterback sacks while ranking third with 2.4 tackles for loss per game.

Baar recorded a sack in every game this season on his way to becoming NCAA Division II's all-time sacks leader with 46.5.

The Division II Conference Commissioners Association encourages and promotes Division II athletics and high standards of sportsmanship as important elements of higher education. The CCA is a key communications link among the conferences as they discuss views, policies and regulations that impact Division II intercollegiate athletics and works closely with the NCAA as a communications channel to NCAA Division II member colleges and universities.
