- Central Washington earned a third consecutive GNAC Player of the Week selection with Kyle Stahl taking the honor for the first time this year. The senior went 9 for 15 with three doubles, a home run, five runs and three RBIs.

- Jake Levin earned his sixth win of the season to tie the league leader in the series opener against Northwest Nazarene. Levin threw seven innings and allowed three runs, two earned, on five hits and five walks with six strikeouts. His ERA dropped to 2.94, which ranks second in the conference.

- Seth Pederson tossed a gem in relief, throwing 3.1 innings of shutout baseball and faced one batter more than the minimum to earn his second win of the season.

- That win came in walk-off fashion as Chris Dalto hit a bases-loaded single to drive in Stahl for the game-winning run in the bottom of the ninth. The Wildcats also won the series finale by a single run as Dalto shut the door in the final inning to preserve an 8-7 lead.

- Central Washington will host Western Oregon this weekend in a battle for the top spot in the conference standings. The Wildcats trail by three games, so they can move into first place for the first time this season with a sweep.

CONCORDIA

- Concordia earned its two biggest wins of the season last week with a doubleheader sweep of Western Oregon on Friday at Porter Park. The Cavaliers then lost the final two games of the series against the Wolves.

- Jake Brewer led the Cavaliers winning efforts in the series opener, throwing a two-run complete game with 10 strikeouts and five hits for his second win of the year. For his efforts, Brewer was named the GNAC Pitcher of the Week. He is the first player from Concordia to receive the honor this season.

- Jaramy Jacobs picked up the Crusaders' lone win in a 3-2 victory on Friday. Jacobs threw six innings with no earned runs allowed and seven strikeouts. He improved his record to 5-3 and brought his season ERA down to 4.85.
- The lone victory came in NNU's least offensively productive game, but the three runs scored in the second inning proved to be enough. Spencer Pollock opened the inning with a single, followed by a Kyle Redford double to put runners on second and third with no outs. Brady Baker drove both runs in on a single up the middle and then scored the third run on a double by Jones for a 3-1 lead.
- Billy King racked up six walks in the series, including four during the series opener to become the GNAC leader in walks with 33 to go along with his GNAC-best 11 home runs.
- Andrew Helmstadter tied King for most home runs in the GNAC this year, belting his 11th in the 8-7 loss to Central Washington on Saturday. With the home run, he reached 327 career total bases, cracking the top 10 all-time in GNAC history in that category.

- Nyles Nygaard went 7 for 14 with a triple, home run and three RBIs in the split against Concordia. He was a double shy of hitting for the cycle in the series finale against Concordia.
