#ThreeAtATime Northwest Nazarene and Western Oregon each won three games this week, making themselves the only teams in the conference with winning records in GNAC play after two weeks.

#TheWaitsOver Montana State Billings will finally play another home game after 10 months passed since the last home game was played at MSUB. The Yellowjackets have played 17 games already this year, all on the road.

#ClimbingTheKsList Montana State Billings' Cody Cooper moved up to No. 7 on the GNAC's all-time strikeouts list with 182. He also averages 8.64 strikeouts per nine innings, which ranks eighth in GNAC history.

#NoTwoAlike The Yellowjackets have not had the same nine players in the starting lineup for any two games this year, using a different combination of players in all 17 games. In total 17 different position players have started multiple games for MSUB.

#FreyreThanEver Central Washington's Dylan Freyre hit safely nine times in 14 at-bats over the weekend. He hit three longballs and two doubles to help CWU pick up one win in the series.

Western Oregon Marches On Three By Three

PORTLAND, Ore. -- With another three wins last weekend, Western Oregon has now won all six GNAC games it has played in this March with neither series being completed due to weather conditions.

The Wolves' three wins at Concordia over the weekend moved them into the No. 8 slot in this week's NCBWA West Region rankings, which is the highest ranking of any GNAC team this year.

Northwest Nazarene won three of four games last week against Central Washington despite an offensive explosion from Dylan Freyre, who hit three home runs and two doubles for the Wildcats in the series. The Crusaders are now in second place in the conference standings, but only two games separate second place from fifth place after two weeks of conference play.

Western Oregon will take its winning streak back to Monmouth to host Central Washington, which leads the conference in overall wins. They will play a four-game series with Saturday and Sunday doubleheaders.

Saint Martin's will travel to Northwest Nazarene for the Crusaders' second consecutive home series. Including winning the GNAC Championships at home last year, NNU has won 15 of its last 18 home games.

Montana State Billings' 10-month wait for a home baseball game will come to an end on Saturday as the Yellowjackets finally play their home opener against Concordia at 1 p.m. The Yellowjackets won five of eight games against Concordia last year. Both teams are looking to get back to the .500 mark in GNAC play this year.
