Four Teams Left In Battle For Conference Crown

Going into the final two weeks of the season, four teams have a shot at claiming the title of 2016 GNAC Champion, and those four teams will all face each other this week.

Simon Fraser currently leads the GNAC standings and can clinch at least a share of the conference title this week if it beats both opponents. The Clan will host Montana State Billings on Thursday and Northwest Nazarene on Saturday.

Western Washington has the toughest road to the title, needing four consecutive wins and some help from other teams. The Vikings play the reverse schedule of Simon Fraser this week, hosting Northwest Nazarene on Thursday and Montana State Billings on Saturday.

Northwest Nazarene tied Simon Fraser earlier in the season 2-2. The Crusaders have a chance to shake up the race for the conference title if they can hand Simon Fraser its first loss of the season. First, they'll have to get through Western Washington on the road.

Montana State Billings gets the first shot at the No. 1 team in the region, traveling to Burnaby on Thursday. In the first meeting, red cards were handed out to both teams as SFU defeated the Yellowjackets 1-0 despite being outshot 16-4. The 'Jackets have three matches left to try to close the five-point gap with Simon Fraser.

In the national rankings, Simon Fraser moved back up to No. 3 in the NSCAA Coaches Poll. The Clan has been ranked as high as No. 2 this year. The Clan was ranked No. 1 in the NCAA West Region Rankings and MSUB was No. 8. The new set of rankings will come out on Wednesday. The top six teams in the rankings will go to the NCAA West Regional Tournament.

Last week, Simon Fraser goalkeeper Brandon Watson tied Cody Lang from Seattle Pacific for most career shutouts in GNAC history with 28. Both goalkeepers are in their senior season.

Both goalkeepers currently rank in the top three in GNAC history in career goals against average. Lang holds the slight advantage with a career GAA of 0.75, while Watson's mark is currently at 0.76. The GNAC record is 0.67 set by Simon Fraser's Hide Ozawa in 2012.

GNAC Milestone Tracker

Brandon Watson (SFU) - Watson recorded his 28th career shutout against Concordia, tying Seattle Pacific's Cody Lang for the all-time GNAC record. Both goalkeepers are in their senior season. Watson already holds the record for shutouts in conference matches at 22. Watson's goals against average this season is 0.59, which leads the conference and ranks eighth in Division II. His career goals against average is 0.76, which ranks third all-time, just one-hundredth behind second place.

Cody Lang (SPU) - Earlier this year, Lang broke the all-time GNAC record for career shutouts with his 28th in a 0-0 draw with Northwest Nazarene. That record, however, has since been tied by Watson. This week, Lang tallied 17 saves in two 1-0 losses. He now has 230 career saves, which ranks 11th all-time. He trails Ryan Foo by two saves, but leads all active goalkeepers in shutout percentage at .810, which ranks fifth in GNAC history.

Ryan Dhillon (SFU) - Dhillon recorded two assists this week, giving him seven on the season, which is second best in the conference. Dhillon now has 21 career assists, cracking the top 10 all-time in the GNAC for career assists in a four-way tie for seventh. He also has 23 goals and 67 points in his career which rank 18th and 14th all-time in the GNAC, respectively. Dhillon has now taken 137 career shots, reaching the top 20 in GNAC history in that statistical category.

Montana State Billings - The Yellowjackets' offense has been their strength this year, having scored 33 goals this season, which not only leads the GNAC but also the entire West Region.
