Simon Fraser Sets Its Target On NCAA Postseason

Simon Fraser wrapped up the GNAC title quickly and now has set its sights on returning to the postseason for the fourth time in five years of playoff eligibility.

The Clan is currently the No. 1 team in the NCAA West Regional Rankings, which determine which six teams will advance to the playoffs. The seeds for the NCAA West Regional tournament will be announced on the selection show on Monday at 3:30 p.m. (Pacific). The top two seeds will each get byes and host the first two rounds of playoffs.

During the three consecutive shutouts, SFU outscored opponents 13-0, which is the most goals in three consecutive shutouts for the Clan since recorded a 21-0 scoring advantage over opponents during a three-match stretch in 2013.

Western Washington defeated the same teams Simon Fraser did last week, beating both Northwest Nazarene and Montana State Billings 2-0 to keep the Vikings' playoff hopes alive. The WWU defense has recorded seven shutouts this season.

On Thursday, Western Washington and Simon Fraser will play in Bellingham, Wash. The Vikings are 6-1-1 when playing at home and tied Simon Fraser 1-1 on the road. Since then, Simon Fraser hasn't allowed a goal.

Northwest Nazarene is second in the GNAC standings and will wrap up the season against Concordia on Thursday and Saint Martin's on Saturday. Seattle Pacific's only contest is the season finale against Simon Fraser on Saturday.

GNAC Milestone Tracker

Brandon Watson (SFU) - Watson recorded his 29th and 30th career shutouts last week, breaking the all-time GNAC record, which was set by Cody Lang earlier this season. Watson has now played 276 consecutive shutout minutes since allowing a penalty-kick goal in the final minutes against Western Washington. Watson's goals against average this season is 0.52, which leads the conference and ranks sixth in Division II. His career goals against average is 0.738, which ranks third all-time.

Cody Lang (SPU) - Earlier this year, Lang broke the all-time GNAC record for career shutouts with his 28th in a 0-0 draw with Northwest Nazarene. That record, however, has since been tied by Watson. This week, Lang tallied 7 saves in two victories. He now has 237 career saves, which ranks 10th all-time and leads all active players. Lang is also the active leader in save percentage.

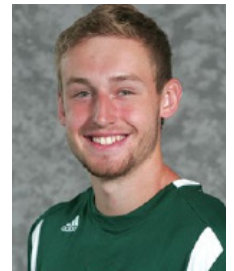

Ryan Dhillon (SFU) - Dhillon scored a goal against Montana State Billings, giving him four on the season. Dhillon now has 21 career assists, cracking the top 10 all-time in the GNAC for career assists in a four-way tie for seventh. He also has 24 goals and 69 points in his career which rank 18th and 12th all-time in the GNAC, respectively. Dhillon needs four more points to crack the top 10 in career points in GNAC history.

Ryan Foo (NNU) - Foo has recorded 96 saves already this season for 236 career saves, which is second among active goalkeepers. He also ranks seventh in saves per match this year in all of NCAA Division II with 6.40. Foo was the 11th goalkeeper in GNAC history to reach 200 career saves. Foo needs either two more saves than Lang in the final two matches or seven more saves to finish the year in the top 10.

Simon Fraser - The Clan beat Montana State Billings and Northwest Nazarene at home to extend the team's home unbeaten streak to 19 matches, breaking the record of 17 that the Clan set twice in 2012 and 2014. Overall, SFU is unbeaten in its last 21 matches, which is three away from the record, and SFU has the third best winning percentage in Division II. Simon Fraser has also scored a goal in each of its last 22 matches, which is 11 shy of the all-time record. The Clan has outscored its last three opponents 13-0.
