GNAC News & Notes

NIGHTHAWK BATS, WOLVES ARMS LEAD GNAC OPENING DAY: Northwest Nazarene and Western Oregon are both 3-1 after the opening weekend of conference games, but the two schools utilized different paths to get there.

The Nighthawks bludgeoned past Central Washington, averaging 9.75 runs per game and hitting .356 with eight doubles and six home runs over the course of the series. Meanwhile, Western Oregon held Montana State Billings to just five runs scored in the first 31 innings of their series before the Yellowjackets scored six in the final inning of the fourth game to avoid a sweep.

Arturo Alvarez won GNAC Pitcher of the Week honors after kickstarted the Wolves' dominant pitching series. Alvarez threw 6.2 innings of two-run, four-hit ball in the series' opening game, dropping his ERA to a league-leading 2.25. With starts from Alvarez, Bryce Bond and Mike Peterson, three of the four games featured deep shutdown performances from WOU starting pitching, with Bond striking out eight in 4.2 innings and Peterson giving up one run in six innings, both in seven-inning games.

Central Washington couldn't stop Northwest Nazarene offensively all weekend, but the Wildcats' bats kept CWU competitive. Austin Ohland took home Player of the Week honors by continuing to be an extra-base-hit machine. Ohland had three doubles and three home runs for 10 RBI and four runs scored. Ohland is Division II's leader in doubles with 14 and a heavy contributor to Central's team mark of 44 doubles, which leads the GNAC and ranks fourth in Division II.

In non-conference action, Saint Martin's endured a tough four-game series against Oregon Tech in which the Hustlin' Owls scored over 10 runs in every game. Western Oregon added to their league-best 10-7 record with an 8-5 win over a tough George Fox team, with John Stark and Derek Maiben driving in two runs apiece.

Up ahead, Montana State Billings will host the University of Mary for a doubleheader on Sunday while Northwest Nazarene will host Saint Martin's and Western Oregon will host Central Washington, with each GNAC series consisting of two games on Friday and two on Saturday.
