GNAC News & Notes

WILDCATS CONTINUE TO ROLL: Central Washington seems to be unstoppable. The Wildcats added three wins to its ledger over the weekend to move to 7-0 in conference play and extended its win streak to nine games to earn Red Lion/GNAC Team of the Week honors.

The Wildcats went to the Willamette Valley last weekend and picked up three victories, scoring 3-0 and 7-0 victories over Concordia on Saturday and a 7-1 win over Western Oregon on Sunday. The second game with the Wolves was suspended due to rain with the Wildcats leading 4-0 in the second inning.

In the three games, Central Washington finished with a .333 batting average and amassed a 0.33 earned run average. The performance also netted the Wildcats a sweep of the GNAC Player of the Week awards. Sophomore Savannah Egbert was named the Softball Player of the Week after she batted .545 in the three games, finishing with two hits in each of the games to go with three RBIs and two runs. Freshman Lexie Strasser was named the Softball Pitcher of the Week after she won two games and allowed one run on nine hits with six strikeouts in 15 innings.

TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS: The GNAC schedule takes its annual break this weekend as all eight teams travel to lovely Turlock, Calif., for the annual Tournament of Champions, hosted by Stanislaus State.

The annual tournament features 27 teams, including all but four of the programs that compete in the GNAC, CCAA and PacWest. Teams from the GNAC will play in 17 games on Friday. Seven programs will play two games while Northwest Nazarene will play three.

The GNAC enters the tournament having won 237 games in its 16 years of participation. The 2016 tournament marked the first time that all GNAC softball programs participated in the tournament. The GNAC has won 22 games in each of the last three editions.

In the 2017 Tournament of Champions, Central Washington led the GNAC with a 5-1 record while Western Oregon and Western Washington both finished with 4-2 records.

The tournament schedule could be affected by heavy rain expected in the days leading up to the event. Nearly a quarter-inch of rain is forecast for the normally dry Central Valley for Tuesday, with .84 inches forecast for Wednesday and .43 inches predicted for Thursday. Weather is expected to be dry for the tournament dates. Fans should check warriorathletics.com/toc for any updates.
