WILDCATS, SAINTS LEAD WAY AT TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS: The rain and changing schedule did not deter Central Washington and Saint Martin's as the two teams led the GNAC with 5-1 records at the Tournament of Champions in Turlock, Calif.

Central Washington saw its 10-game win streak come to an end in Friday's tournament opener, falling 2-0 to Concordia-Irvine, before rebounding to win five straight. The Wildcats closed the tournament with a 1-0 win over No. 13 Sonoma State on Sunday with Celine Fowler batting in the winning run on a sacrifice fly in the sixth inning.

The effort netted the Wildcats both GNAC Softball Player of the Week awards. Senior Taelor Griffin was named Player of the Week after she went 7 for 14 with three runs and seven RBIs. Sophomore Lexie Strasser was named the Pitcher of the Week for the second straight week after she went 4-1 last week, allowing five runs, one earned, on nine hits and struck out 11 in 24.2 innings of work. Both were named to the TOC All-Tournament Team.

Saint Martin's improved by two wins over last year to finish with a 5-1 record. The Saints punctuated its run with a 2-1 tournament-opening win over Azusa Pacific and a 10-8, eight-inning victory over Humboldt State. The Saints led all GNAC teams with a .298 batting average in the tournament, earning the Saints selection as the Red Lion/GNAC Team of the Week.

The Saints were led by Lindsay Miller, who earned All-Tournament Team honors by going 8 for 21 in the six games, and by pitcher Lauren Maley, who also made the All-Tournament Team after going 5-0 in the tournament, allowing six runs, five earned, on 19 hits in 19.2 innings.

GNAC AT THE TOURNAMENT OF CHAMPIONS: The GNAC finished with a 23-19 record in this year's Tournament of Champions, the conference's most wins in the tournament since 2015. Conference teams finished with 22 wins each of the last three years. Central Washington and Saint Martin's were joined by Concordia (3-2), Northwest Nazarene (2-2) and Western Washington (3-3) with .500 or better records.

BACK TO CONFERENCE PLAY: After Western Washington plays at Stanislaus State on Tuesday, all eight conference teams will be singularly focused on GNAC play for the remainder of the season. The weekend will be highlighted by a doubleheader between Western Oregon and Central Washington on Friday, which will also include the conclusion of a game between the two teams that was halted by rain back on Mar. 18. Saint Martin's and Northwest Nazarene will play in a four-game series that could help determine each team's track for a potential GNAC Championships berth.
