#GNACVB in 140 @GNACSports

#BorderClash Simon Fraser provided a surprise in the first GNAC match of the season last Wednesday, beating Western Washington in five sets. It is the first time in five-plus years of GNAC membership that the Clan beat the Vikings.

#SuperSmash Three GNAC teams are ranked in the Division II top-10 in blocks per set: Central Washington, Alaska Anchorage and Seattle Pacific. The Wildcats' Sabrina Wheelhouse leads six GNAC players in the Division II top-50, ranking third with 1.50 blocks per set.

#EvenSteven Eight GNAC teams entered the second week of conference play with 1-1 records. There are six entering Thursday with Central Washington defeating Northwest Nazarene.

#WellRepresented Alaska Anchorage (No. 12) and Western Washington (No. 20) are in the top-25 of this week's AVCA Division II Coaches Poll while Northwest Nazarene and Simon Fraser are among those receiving votes.

GNAC News & Notes

BLOCK PARTY: Once again, the GNAC is proving to be one of the top conferences in Division II when it comes to blocking. Three conference teams are ranked in the Division II top-10 in blocks per set: Central Washington (2.64, second), Alaska Anchorage (2.54, fifth) and Seattle Pacific (2.45, ninth). All three programs are also in the Division II top-20 in total blocks. Four conference teams are averaging over two blocks per set (Concordia is at 2.00) and all but one team is averaging over 1.50 blocks per set.

The GNAC currently boasts 10 athletes that average over a block per set and six that are among the top-50 in Division II. Central Washington's Sabrina Wheelhouse is third in Division II with 1.50 blocks per set and Seattle Pacific's Shaun Crespi is eighth at 1.39 blocks per set.

PACKING THEM IN: Fans at GNAC schools love their volleyball. Alaska Anchorage is the current Division II leader in attendance, having welcomed 968 fans per match in six matches. The Seawolves have seen two of the top-five crowds in Division II this season and four of the top-11, topped by the 1,281 that saw UAA beat Seattle Pacific on Sept. 17. Simon Fraser welcomed 823 fans to see the Clan beat Western Washington in five sets last Wednesday, the 15th best crowd this season. Northwest Nazarene had 802 see the Crusaders face Central Washington on Tuesday, the 16th best crowd of the year.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Four GNAC teams found their names listed in this week's AVCA Division II Coaches Poll. Alaska Anchorage remained at No. 12 for the third consecutive week, picking up 705 points. Western Washington slipped two positions to No. 20 with 243 points. Only one other West Region program, Cal State San Bernardino, is in the top-25 at No 13.

Northwest Nazarene, who was No. 24 last week, dropped out of the top-25, but was second among teams receiving votes with 62 points. Simon Fraser picked up its first votes of the season, gaining nine points.

FIRST D2 WEST REGION VOLLEYBALL SHOWCASE GOES TO GNAC:

The first D2 West Region Volleyball Showcase was a great stage for the GNAC, which came away as the big winner between the three competing conferences.

The GNAC finished with a 31-13 record, a .704 win percentage, in the three-day event, which featured all 38 volleyball teams from the GNAC, the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) and the PacWest Conference. The CCAA finished with a 28-25 record while the PacWest finished 17-38.

The tougher the pods were, the better the GNAC did. The league went 7-1 in the Sonoma State pod, which featured the first and second place finishers in last year's regular season standings. The GNAC swept the UC San Diego pod with an 8-0 record and went 6-2 in the San Francisco State pod. Five GNAC teams finished the tournament with 4-0 records: Alaska Anchorage, Central Washington, Northwest Nazarene, Saint Martin's and Simon Fraser.

Around The GNAC

ALASKA

• Alaska took a split in a pair of five-set matches at home to open the GNAC schedule. The Nanooks held off a Seattle Pacific comeback to win on Thursday before falling short in a five-set loss to Saint Martin's on Saturday.

• Junior outside hitter Maddie Davis was Alaska's top performer in both matches. She finished with 20 kills and 11 digs in the win on Thursday and added 16 kills, 10 digs and two aces in the loss to Saint Martin's.

Around The GNAC

SIMON FRASER

• Simon Fraser ran its current win streak to nine matches with a pair of home victories to open the GNAC season. Last Wednesday, the Clan opened with a thrilling five-set win over Western Washington and capped the week with a three-set road sweep at Montana State Billings on Friday.

• Senior setter Tamara Nipp was named the GNAC Offensive Player of the Week after finishing with 112 assists in the two matches (the second straight setter selected for the honor). Nipp finished with 63 assists and 11 digs to go along with three kills and three blocks in the win over Western Washington. Nipp enters the week second in the GNAC and 26th in Division II with 10.92 assists per set.

• Senior outside hitter Emma Jennings was Simon Fraser's offensive leader in the two matches. She finished with 19 kills and 21 digs in the five-set win over Western Washington and added 13 kills and 10 digs in the win at Montana State Billings. Jennings enters the week eighth in the GNAC with 3.20 kills per set.

• Sophomore middle blocker Tessa May is ranked eighth in the GNAC and 40th in Division II with 1.11 blocks per set. She added eight blocks in the five-set win over Western Washington.

• The strong start of the Clan is finally earning the notice of pollsters. Simon Fraser received votes in this week's AVCA Division II Coaches Poll.

• As a team, Simon Fraser is second in the GNAC in kills (13.19 per set) and assists (12.13 per set) and third in opponent hitting percentage (.145) and digs (18.33). In the Division II stats, the Clan is 23rd in digs per set.

• Simon Fraser returns home to host two GNAC teams this weekend. The Clan will host Alaska on Friday and Alaska Anchorage on Saturday.

WESTERN OREGON

• Western Oregon opened the GNAC season with a split of two home matches. The Wolves took a three-set loss to Northwest Nazarene before scoring a five-set win over Central Washington on Saturday.

• Junior outside hitter Alisha Bettinson led Western Oregon offensively in both matches. She finished with nine kills and 10 digs in the loss to Northwest Nazarene and then finished with 22 kills and 13 digs in the win over Central Washington. Bettinson enters the week ranked fourth in the GNAC with 3.62 kills per set.

• Junior middle blocker Sydney Blankinship is currently fourth in the GNAC with a .323 hitting percentage.

• Senior libero Christie Colasurdo enters the week ranked fourth in the GNAC and 48th in Division II with 5.09 digs per set, paced by 26 digs in the win over Central Washington.

• As a team, Western Oregon enters the week leading the GNAC and ranked 14th in Division II with 19.03 digs per set.

• Western Oregon is on the road this weekend, playing at Seattle Pacific on Thursday and at Saint Martin's on Saturday.

WESTERN WASHINGTON

• Western Washington took an unexpected split in its opening GNAC last week. The Vikings took a five-set loss at Simon Fraser to open the season on Wednesday, the first time the Clan had beat the Vikings as a GNAC program. Western Washington rebounded to knock off Montana State Billings on Saturday.

• The loss did not hurt the Vikings much in the AVCA Division II Coaches Poll as they fell two spots to No. 20.

• Sophomore middle blocker Kayleigh Harper led the Vikings offensively in both matches. She finished with 12 kills and seven blocks in Wednesday's loss to Simon Fraser and rebounded for 14 kills, a .571 hitting percentage and four blocks in the win over Montana State Billings. Harper leads the GNAC and is 28th in Division II with a .372 hitting percentage. Harper is also ninth in the GNAC with 1.03 blocks per set.

• Sophomore outside hitter Abby Phelps had nine kills and 20 digs in the loss to Simon Fraser and seven kills against Montana State Billings. Phelps enters the week ninth in the GNAC in both kills (3.17 per set) and digs (4.14 per set) and is 10th in points (3.60 per set).

• As a team, Western Washington leads the GNAC and is 21st in Division II with 13.71 kills per set. They also lead the GNAC and are 27th in Division II with 12.67 assists per set. The Vikings are also second in the GNAC and 38th in Division II in hitting percentage (.235).

• Western Washington is in Bellingham this weekend, hosting Alaska Anchorage in a top-25 showdown on Thursday before hosting Alaska on Saturday.

• Western Washington will play all of their 2016 home matches at Bellingham's Whatcom Community College while their on-campus arena, Carver Gymnasium, undergoes the second year of a two-year renovation.
