GNAC News & Notes

ALASKA ANCHORAGE, WESTERN WASHINGTON ON TOP AT THE TURN:

With the first half of the GNAC season in the books, Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington once again find themselves at the top of the league standings.

The Seawolves simply keep winning. After dropping a three-set match at Chaminade on Aug. 26, UAA has proceeded to win a school record 19 consecutive matches. They enter the week with a 20-1 overall record and an unblemished 10-0 conference mark. The Seawolves open the second half by hosting their top two conference competitors in Simon Fraser on Thursday and Western Washington on Saturday.

The Vikings, meanwhile, rebounded from a slower start to win their last seven matches and enter the second half with a 12-6 overall mark. Western Washington is in second place in the GNAC with an 8-2 record. The second half of the year swets up well for the Vikings with six of their final eight matches of the regular season taking place in Bellingham.

After getting off to a hot start that included a nine-match win streak, Simon Fraser enters the second in third place in the league at 7-3, 14-4 overall.

PACKING THEM IN: Fans at GNAC schools love their volleyball. Alaska Anchorage is the current Division II leader in attendance, having welcomed 1,006 fans per match in eight matches. The Seawolves have seen two of the top-10 crowds in Division II this season and six of the top-20, topped by the 1,281 that saw UAA beat Seattle Pacific on Sept. 17. The GNAC enters the week having welcomed nine of the top-30 crowds in Division II so far in 2016. Central Washington had 923 fans watch its three-set sweep of Montana State Billings on Sept. 24, the 16th best crowd this season. Simon Fraser welcomed 823 fans to West Gym for their five-set win over Western Washington on Sept. 14, the 19th best crowd of the year, and Northwest Nazarene packed 802 fans in for its match with Central Washington on Sept. 20, the 20th best crowd of the year.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Both Alaska Anchorage and Western Washington moved up one spot in this week's AVCA Division II Coaches Poll. The Seawolves improved to No. 7, their highest ranking in school history, while Western Washington improved to No. 19. It was the first movement in the poll for the Vikings in five weeks.

FIRST D2 WEST REGION VOLLEYBALL SHOWCASE GOES TO GNAC:

The first D2 West Region Volleyball Showcase was a great stage for the GNAC, which came away as the big winner between the three competing conferences.

The GNAC finished with a 31-13 record, a .704 win percentage, in the three-day event, which featured all 38 volleyball teams from the GNAC, the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) and the PacWest Conference. The CCAA finished with a 28-25 record while the PacWest finished 17-38.

The tougher the pods were, the better the GNAC did. The league went 7-1 in the Sonoma State pod, which featured the first and second place finishers in last year's regular season standings. The GNAC swept the UC San Diego pod with an 8-0 record and went 6-2 in the San Francisco State pod. Five GNAC teams finished the tournament with 4-0 records: Alaska Anchorage, Central Washington, Northwest Nazarene, Saint Martin's and Simon Fraser.
