GNAC News & Notes

AN EPIC MATCH: There have been plenty of exciting matches in GNAC play this season, but none have been more exciting than the five-set thriller between Western Washington and Alaska Anchorage on Saturday night.

The teams traded the first four sets, with the third going extra points in a 26-24 win for the Vikings. In the fifth set, it was apparent that no one wanted to lose late after the Vikings rebounded from a 4-1 deficit to tie the frame at 5-5 on Chrisalyn Johnson's kill. Neither team led by more than two points the rest of the way, with extra points forced when a Western Washington attack error made it 14-14.

The Seawolves and Vikings traded points until 18-18, when kills by Joellee Buckner and Abby Phelps closed out the stanza at 20-18 and gave Western Washington the five-set win. The Vikings extended their win streak to nine matches, while Alaska Anchorage saw its school-record win streak end at 20.

Both teams finished close to even in hitting with Alaska Anchorage hitting .178 as compared to Western Washington's .156. Phelps led Western Washington with 14 kills while Johnson finished with 22 kills for the Seawolves.

PACKING THEM IN: The crowd at Saturday's Western Washington/Alaska Anchorage match was the second largest for a Division II volleyball match this season. A total of 1,762 fans packed into the Alaska Airlines Center. The largest crowd for a match this season was the 1,900 that saw Texas A&M-Kingsville play Tarleton State on Oct. 18.

Alaska Anchorage continues to lead Division II in average attendance with 1,131 fans per match over 11 matches. The Seawolves have welcomed seven of the top-20 crowds in Division II this season and five of the top 10.

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: With the loss to Western Washington, Alaska Anchorage dropped four spots to No. 11 in the latest AVCA Division II Coaches Poll. The Seawolves were No. 7 last week, which is the highest national ranking in program history. Likewise, the Vikings moved up two spots to No. 17. The Vikings started the season No. 5 and fell to No. 20, but have climbed three spots over the last two weeks.

FIRST D2 WEST REGION VOLLEYBALL SHOWCASE GOES TO GNAC:

The first D2 West Region Volleyball Showcase was a great stage for the GNAC, which came away as the big winner between the three competing conferences.

The GNAC finished with a 31-13 record, a .704 win percentage, in the three-day event, which featured all 38 volleyball teams from the GNAC, the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) and the PacWest Conference. The CCAA finished with a 28-25 record while the PacWest finished 17-38.

The tougher the pods were, the better the GNAC did. The league went 7-1 in the Sonoma State pod, which featured the first and second place finishers in last year's regular season standings. The GNAC swept the UC San Diego pod with an 8-0 record and went 6-2 in the San Francisco State pod. Five GNAC teams finished the tournament with 4-0 records: Alaska Anchorage, Central Washington, Northwest Nazarene, Saint Martin's and Simon Fraser.

Around The GNAC

• Alaska will finish the week at home, hosting Montana State Billings on Thursday.

ALASKA ANCHORAGE

• Alaska Anchorage extended its school-record win streak to 20 matches with a five-set win over Simon Fraser on Thursday, but saw the streak end on Saturday in an exciting five-set loss to Western Washington. The Seawolves started a new streak on Tuesday, beating cross-state rival Alaska in three sets.

• Sophomore libero Kyla Militante-Amper was a force for UAA with her 88 digs over the last three matches, topped by her 34 digs against Western Washington. Militante-Amper enters the week second in the GNAC and seventh in Division II with 6.01 digs per set.

• Senior middle blocker Erin Braun finished with 13 blocks over the three matches, topped by a seven-block performance to go along with nine kills against Western Washington. Braun enters the week fifth in the GNAC and 16th in Division II with 1.21 blocks per set and is ninth in the GNAC with 0.32 aces per set.

• Sophomore outside hitter Chrisalyn Johnson led UAA in the weekend matches with 35 kills, led by 22 kills and 17 digs against Western Washington.

• Senior setter Morgan Hooe had 135 assists in the three matches, including 59 in the five-set affair with Western Washington. Hooe enters the week fifth in the GNAC with 10.25 assists per set.

• With the loss to Western Washington, Alaska Anchorage dropped four spots to No. 11 in the latest AVCA Division II Coaches Poll. The Seawolves had been No. 7, the highest ranking in school history.

• Saturday's match against WWU attracted 1,762 fans, the second largest attendance in Division II this season. The Seawolves continue to lead the division in attendance with an average of 1,122 fans per match. Alaska Anchorage has had seven of the top-20 best individual attendances in Division II this season.

• As a team, Alaska Anchorage leads the GNAC in opponent hitting percentage (.110) and service aces (1.87 per set), is second in kills (13.61 per set) and third in hitting percentage (.227) and blocks (2.32 per set). The Seawolves rank seventh in the Division II stats in opponent hitting percentage.

• The Seawolves finish the week by hosting Montana State Billings on Saturday.

CENTRAL WASHINGTON

• Central Washington split its matches last week, falling at home to Northwest Nazarene in three sets on Tuesday before beating Montana State Billings in four sets on the road on Thursday.

• Sophomore outside hitter Madison Weg hit .395 in the two matches to lead Central Washington and had 19 kills. She had 11 of those kills in the win over Montana State Billings. Weg is 11th in the GNAC with a .257 hitting percentage.

• Senior outside hitter Kiah Jones led the Wildcats against Northwest Nazarene with nine kills. Senior outside hitter Jordan Deming led CWU in the win over MSUB with 14 kills.

• Central Washington continues to lead Division II in blocks, averaging 3.02 per set. The Wildcats added 24.5 team blocks over the week, led by 12 blocks by junior middle blocker Sabrina Wheelhouse, who ranks second in Division II with 1.68 blocks per set. Senior middle blocker Erin Little is 13th in Division with 1.25 blocks per set after adding nine last week.

• In addition to the blocks per set number, Central Washington is fifth in Division II in team total blocks (220.5) and 17th in team attacks per set (38.71).

• Central Washington will host Simon Fraser on Thursday and Western Washington on Saturday.

CONCORDIA

• Concordia extended its current win streak to four matches thanks a pair of home wins. The Cavaliers beat Seattle Pacific in three sets on Thursday and Saint Martin's in four sets on Saturday.

• Senior middle blocker Brianna Hogan was named GNAC Defensive Player of the Week after finishing with 10 blocks, 15 kills and a .444 hitting percentage in the two matches.

In the process, she became the first Concordia volleyball player to surpass 300 career blocks. She topped her week with a 13-kill, six-block performance against Saint Martin's. Hogan enters the week sixth in the GNAC with a .285 hitting percentage.

• Junior middle blocker Colby Barnette finished with 26 kills, a .400 hitting percentage and nine blocks in the two matches, led by 15 kills and five blocks against Saint Martin's. Barnette enters the week fifth in the GNAC with a .305 hitting percentage and seventh with 1.13 blocks per set.

• Junior setter Michele Brown is second in the GNAC with her average of 11.14 assists per set. She added 88 assists in last week's matches, led by 57 against Simon Fraser.

• As a team, Concordia is second in the GNAC in hitting percentage (.230) and service aces (1.68 per set) and fourth in blocks (2.20 per set). If Concordia was eligible for the NCAA Division II stats, the Cavaliers would rank in a tie for 30th in blocks per set.

• On Sept. 17, Concordia broke the GNAC record for blocks in a four-set match with 21. That surpassed the record of 20 held by six different teams, most recently Northwest Nazarene vs. Seattle Pacific on 11/12/15.

• Concordia is on the road this weekend, playing at Simon Fraser on Friday and at Western Washington on Saturday.
