GNAC News & Notes

REGIONAL COUNTDOWN: With two weeks remaining in the volleyball regular season, the West Region Tournament is shaping to be a GNAC Tournament.

For the second straight week in the NCAA West Region Rankings, five GNAC teams rank among the top-eight, which would comprise the regional tournament field. Alaska Anchorage is once again at No. 1. Should that ranking hold, the Seawolves would earn the right to host the West Region Championships for the second consecutive season.

Simon Fraser leaped over Western Washington in the rankings, moving to No. 3 while the Vikings slipped to No. 4. Northwest Nazarene remained ranked No. 6 while Central Washington climbed one spot to No. 7.

The top-eight teams in the West Region Rankings will qualify for the NCAA West Region Championships, which will take place over the first weekend of December. The selection show for the Division II Volleyball Championship will be on Mon., Nov. 21, at 4:30 p.m. (Pacific).

IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS: Alaska Anchorage remained status quo in the latest AVCA Division II Coaches Poll. The Seawolves are ranked No. 11 for the third consecutive week. Western Washington slipped three spots after its loss to Northwest Nazarene to No. 18.

YOU'RE BLOCKED: The GNAC continues to be very strong at the net. Four conference teams are among the top-50 in Division II in blocking, with Central Washington leading the nation with an average of 3.03 blocks per set. In addition, six GNAC players are ranked among the top-50 individuals in blocking. The Wildcats' Sabrina Wheelhouse is second in Division II with 1.72 blocks per set. Seattle Pacific's Shaun Crespi is fifth with 1.48 blocks per set while Northwest Nazarene's Madi Farrell is 11th with 1.27 blocks per set.

PACKING THEM IN: The crowd at the Oct. 28 Western Washington/Alaska Anchorage match was the second largest for a Division II volleyball match this season. A total of 1,762 fans packed into the Alaska Airlines Center. The largest crowd for a match this season was the 1,900 that saw Texas A&M-Kingsville play Tarleton State on Oct. 18.

Alaska Anchorage continues to lead Division II in average attendance with 1,130 fans per match over 11 matches. The Seawolves have welcomed eight of the top-20 crowds in Division II this season.

FIRST D2 WEST REGION VOLLEYBALL SHOWCASE GOES TO GNAC:

The first D2 West Region Volleyball Showcase was a great stage for the GNAC, which came away as the big winner between the three competing conferences.

The GNAC finished with a 31-13 record, a .704 win percentage, in the three-day event, which featured all 38 volleyball teams from the GNAC, the California Collegiate Athletic Association (CCAA) and the PacWest Conference. The CCAA finished with a 28-25 record while the PacWest finished 17-38.

The tougher the pods were, the better the GNAC did. The league went 7-1 in the Sonoma State pod, which featured the first and second place finishers in last year's regular season standings. The GNAC swept the UC San Diego pod with an 8-0 record and went 6-2 in the San Francisco State pod. Five GNAC teams finished the tournament with 4-0 records: Alaska Anchorage, Central Washington, Northwest Nazarene, Saint Martin's and Simon Fraser.
