United Soccer Coaches Announces NCAA DII All-America Teams

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (Nov. 28, 2018) – United Soccer Coaches announced on Wednesday the association's NCAA Division II Men's and Women's All-America Teams on the eve of the 2018 NCAA Division II Men's and Women's Soccer Championship semifinals in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Among the 72 players (36 men, 36 women) to receive All-America recognition, two women's players earn the accolade for a third time in their collegiate careers. Columbus State University senior forward Olivia Jarrell (St. Augustine, Fla.) and University of Central Missouri senior forward Jada Scott (Bel Aire, Kan) are each All-Americans for a third time. There are five men's players and five women's players who are earning All-America honors for the second time in their careers.

This year's NCAA Division II All-Americans will be formally recognized for their accomplishments at the United Soccer Coaches All-America Ceremony & Reception on Jan. 12, 2019 at McCormick Place West Building in conjunction with the 2019 United Soccer Coaches Convention in Chicago.

In addition, the 2018 NCAA Division II Men's and Women's All-Region Teams are posted in the "Awards Central" section of UnitedSoccerCoaches.org.
