GNAC RED LION ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Male – Joe Berger, Saint Martin’s (Sr., Enumclaw, WA) blew away the field in the Saint Martin’s Invitational Saturday, posting a 22-second victory. Berger covered the 8,000-meter layout under wet and rainy conditions in a time of 26:30.46.

Women – Hannah Calvert, Seattle Pacific (Fr., Enumclaw, WA) finished fourth overall and first among collegians in the Saint Martin’s Invitational. Calvert, in just her third year of cross country running (she didn’t turn out until her junior year in high school), finished the 6,000-meter layout in a time of 23:50.02. That’s the fourth fastest SPU time in the meet since it went to 6,000 meters in 2008.

Honorable Mention – Ross MacDougall, Alaska Fairbanks (So., Astoria, OR) finished second leading the Nanooks to the team title in the Saint Martin’s Invitational. MacDougall was clocked in a time of 26:52.34.

FIVE TEAMS IN WILLAMETTE INVITATIONAL: Alaska Anchorage, which hasn’t competed in a month, will be one of five teams who will compete this Saturday in the Willamette Charles Bowles Invitational in Salem. Joining the Seawolves in the meet will be Northwest Nazarene, Saint Martin’s, Seattle Pacific and Western Oregon. Central Washington and Montana State Billings, meanwhile, will travel to Missoula to compete in the Montana Invitational.

NANOOKS, FALCONS WIN TEAM TITLES: Alaska Fairbanks and Seattle Pacific won team titles at the Saint Martin’s Invitational. The Nanook men finished well-ahead of the host Saints (22-54) to win their first multi-event team title in the 13-year history of the conference. Its only previous win was a 28-29 victory over Central Washington in a dual at Fairbanks on Aug. 29, 2009. It also tied CWU 29-29 in a home dual on Aug. 27, 2009 ... Seattle Pacific, meanwhile, earned its third women’s title in four events (they previously won two races at Fairbanks) and its fifth in 12 Saint Martin’s invitationals.

SIMON FRASER SECOND AT STANFORD: Simon Fraser’s women finished second in the non-Division I division Saturday at the Stanford Invitational. The Clan finished 10 points back of Chico State (51-61) as Lindsey Butterworth led the Clan placing 35th overall in a time of 22:40. SFU’s men placed seventh as Oliver Jorgensen led the Clan, placing 76th overall in a time of 26:28.

YELLOWJACKETS MAKE MOVE IN REGIONAL POLL, GET VOTES IN NATIONAL POLL: Montana State Billings made the biggest move in this week’s USTFCCCA West Regional men’s rankings climbing four spots to fifth. That is the men’s highest ranking in school history and also matches a No. 5 ranking by the MSUB women in 1997. The Yellowjackets didn’t compete last week and the move was most likely a “delayed” reaction to its first-place finish (among Division II) schools in the Erik Anderson Invitational on Sept. 23 at Spokane. Chico State and Alaska Anchorage held on to their No. 1 and No. 2 rankings. Western Washington slipped one spot to No. 7 and Simon Fraser debuted in the poll at No. 9 ... In this week’s national poll, MSUB was among “others receiving votes” and was 29th overall. Alaska Anchorage slipped one spot in the national poll falling from ninth to 10th.

UAA, SFU FIRST, THIRD IN REGIONAL POLL: Idle Alaska Anchorage held on to the No. 1 slot, but Simon Fraser fell to third in this week’s women’s West Regional poll. The Clan finished second in the non-Division I division last week at Stanford to Chico State, enabling the Wildcats to move ahead of SFU in the rankings. Meanwhile, Western Washington and Seattle Pacific held on to their No. 7 and No. 9 regional rankings ... In this week’s national poll, Alaska Anchorage held on to its No. 5 national ranking, while the Clan slipped one spot from sixth to seventh.

5 TEAM BERTHS AVAILABLE FOR NATIONALS: The NCAA Division II West Regional Nov. 9 at Plantes Ferry Sports Stadium in Spokane, Wash., will qualify five teams (per gender) for the national meet Nov. 23 at the same site. In addition, the top three individuals not on one of the five qualifying teams will also advance to the national meet hosted by the GNAC.

PREVIOUS GNAC ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Week of Sept. 2-8: Male: Robert Peterson, MSU Billings (So., Billings, MT – Skyview) won a pair of races and led the Yellowjackets to their first perfect score in 25 years. On Thursday, Peterson won the Alaska Fairbanks Invitational in a 8,000-meter time of 26:12.8 as MSUB swept the first five places. Two days later, Peterson repeated his victory winning the UAF Short-Course Invitational in a 4,000-meter time of 12:40.9 as the Yellowjackets won the team title with a team score of 17. Female: McKayla Fricker, Seattle Pacific (Sr., Canby, OR) posted her first two collegiate cross country victories leading the Falcons to a pair of team victories at Fairbanks. On Thursday, the 2012 Indoor 800 meter All-American was clocked in a 6,000-meter time of 22:58.3 to finish 15 seconds ahead of teammate Anni Patti. She posted another 15-second win Saturday in a 4K time of 15:09.4 as Renae Hepfner of MSUB finished second in 15:224.8.

Week of Sept. 9-15: Male – Matt Lutz, Western Washington (Fr., Bremerton, WA – Olympic) and Mitch Burgess, Alaska Fairbanks (Fr., Temecula, CA) ... Lutz and Burgess had Top 15 finishes in events hosted by Division I teams. Lutz finished 13th in the University of Washington Sundodger, covering the 8,000-meter course in a time of 25:18.00 and leading the Vikings to a third-place team finish in back of Chico State and British Columbia. Burgess placed ninth in the University of Hawaii Invitational in a 5K time of 16:42.47 to lead the Nanooks to a third-place team finish. Female – Lindsey Butterworth, Simon Fraser (Sr., North Vancouver, BC – Handworth) finished third in the women's open division at the University of Washington Sundodger Invitational Saturday with a 6,000-meter time of 21:29.63. Butterworth led the Clan to a second-place finish one ahead of regionally pre-season top ranked Chico State.

Week of Sept. 16-22: Male – Michael Luhr, MSU Billings (Jr., Gillette, WY) finished 14th overall and fourth among Division II athletes in the Erik Anderson Invitational Saturday at Spokane. Luhr posted a time of 26:07.55 on the Plantes Ferry course which will be the site of the NCAA West Regional Nov. 9 and the NCAA National Nov. 23. With Luhr leading the way, MSUB finished fifth overall and first among Division II teams including regionally third-ranked Humboldt State, sixth-ranked Western Washington, No. 7 Cal Baptist and No. 10 Western Oregon. Women – Kirsten Allen, Simon Fraser (Sr., London, Ont. – Saunders) finished seventh at the Erik Anderson Invitational, earning her second seventh place finish in two weeks. In the process, she closed the gap on teammate Lindsay Butterworth from 16 seconds to seven. Butterworth finished fifth after earning a third place finish last week at the University of Washington Sundodger. Butterworth and Allen finished 1-2 among Division II athletes as the Clan finished second in the team standings in back of Division I Lipscomb University.
