GNAC All-Sports (May 15, 2015)

Western Washington Claims Seventh Straight GNAC All-Sports Title

PORTLAND, Ore. – For the seventh year in a row, Western Washington University is the GNAC All-Sports Champion according to final official figures for the 2014-15 season released by the conference office Friday.

The Vikings tallied 188 points in winning their 11th overall GNAC all-sports title in 14 seasons.

Western Washington also extended its title streak in the men's all-sports standings to seven and to five in the women's all-sports standings netting 81 and 107 points, respectively.

Points are awarded (on a two-point increment) based on the final regular-season finishes in football, volleyball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball and the championship finishes for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's indoor track and field, men's and women's outdoor track and field and men's and women's golf.

The Vikings outpointed runner-up Alaska Anchorage by 31 points to win the overall title. The Seawolves netted 157 points, three more than Simon Fraser and 12 more than Central Washington.

WWU outscored the Clan 81-75 for the men's title and Alaska Anchorage 107-88 for the women's crown. UAA finished third in the men's all-sports race with 69 points and Seattle Pacific claimed third in the women's race with 86 points.

Nine different GNAC schools won championships led by Alaska Anchorage (men's cross country, men's indoor track, women's basketball), Seattle Pacific (men's soccer, women's indoor track, women's outdoor track) and Western Washington (women's soccer, women's golf, men's outdoor track) with three each. Simon Fraser (women's cross country, men's golf) won two. Northwest Nazarene (volleyball), Western Oregon (men's basketball), Saint Martin's (softball), Montana State Billings (baseball) and affiliate member Azusa Pacific (football) each won one.

In addition, Seattle Pacific (women's soccer, men's basketball), Alaska Anchorage (women's basketball), Montana State Billings (softball) and Western Oregon (baseball) won post-season team tournament championships.
