GNAC RED LION PLAYER OF THE WEEK: Dominique Brinson, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 6-2, 180, Sr., Juneau, AK – College of the Redwoods) scored 44 points, including 28 in a 89-56 win over Western Oregon, as the Nanooks ran their win streak to six games with a pair of home victories. Brinson blistered the nets for a 61.5 percentage (16 of 26) converting on nine of 17 treys. He made six of eight from the arc against the Wolves while also adding seven rebounds and six assists in Saturday's victory.

HONORABLE MENTION: Paul Jones, Western Washington (F, 6-4, Sr., Kent, WA – Kent-Meridian), Kevin Rima, Northwest Nazarene (F, 6-7, So., Fairbanks, AK), Dom Williams, Central Washington (G, 5-10, Jr., University Place, WA – Curtis) and Eric Taylor, Saint Martin's (G, 6-2, Sr., Seattle, WA) ... Jones scored 29 points as the Vikings set a GNAC record for consecutive wins with their 19th and 20th victories in a row. He kept the streak alive Thursday scoring a layup with 2.2 seconds left – his 17th and 18th points of the game - in a 86-85 win against Central Washington before 2,320 fans at Carver Gym in the regionally televised game on ROOT Sports. Jones made 10 of 18 field goal attempts in the two games and also had 12 rebounds, five assists and two steals and was not charged with a turnover ... Rima led Northwest Nazarene with 31 points and 18 rebounds as the Crusaders earned a road split, defeating Simon Fraser before becoming the 20th consecutive victim of the Vikings. Rima made 11 of 16 shots (68.8 percent). He also had two steals and two blocks ... Williams scored 29 points in CWU's two road contests, connecting on 10 of 20 shots (5 of 12 from the arc). He also had seven assists and three of Central Washington's 14 steals ... Taylor led the Saints with 30 points, shooting 54.5 percent from the floor (12 of 22) and 75 percent from the arc (3 of 4). He had 17 points (6-10 FGs, 2-2 three-pointers) in Saturday's three-point loss at Anchorage.

AROUND THE GNAC: Alaska Fairbanks' six-game win streak is its longest since the 2004-05 season when it won nine in a row on the way to a 21-9 record and its third straight (and last) NCAA post-season playoff appearance ... While Paul Jones' winning hoop Thursday came on a layup, he's also been a major threat from the outside this winter, converting on a GNAC-leading 63.6 percent from the arc (14 of 22 including one of two against the Wildcats) ... Seattle Pacific has outrebounded all 13 of its opponents this season and ranks fourth nationally with a 12.2 rebounding advantage ... Western Washington scored 87 points on Duke in a 105-87 exhibition loss on Oct. 27. No one else had scored more than 77 against Duke prior to their 84-76 loss to North Carolina State Saturday.

TEAM NOTES

Alaska Anchorage: Kyle Fossman scored 29 points and also had 10 rebounds and nine assists as the Seawolves earned a home sweep improving to 8-1 this winter at the Wells Fargo Sports Complex (10-2 overall at home). Fossman was seven of 19 from the arc. Still, he maintained his No. 4 all-time ranking in the GNAC in career three-point percentage. His career percentage is 46.7 (122 of 261). Colton Lauwers scored 24 points, making six of 13 treys. He also had a team-high four steals. Liam Gibcus had 17 rebounds, 12 at the offensive end.

Alaska Fairbanks: The Nanooks had huge advantages from the three-point line and on the backboard in their 23- and 33-point wins over Saint Martin's and Western Oregon Thursday and Saturday. UAF outscored their two opponents 72-18 from the arc, cashing in on 24 of 47 treys (51.1) compared to six of 28 (21.4) by their opponents. They also had a 93-59 rebound advantage. Ronnie Baker led the way on the backboards with 21 rebounds.

Central Washington: Mark McLaughlin netted 44 points in two contests, including 26 in Thursday's loss at Western Washington. McLaughlin made 14 of 27 shots (10 of 15 against WWU). He also converted on 13 of 14 free throws and had six rebounds. CWU shot 57.9 percent from the floor in the two contests and but were out-rebounded on the offensive glass 34-13.

Montana State Billings: Jarrell Crayton led the Yellowjackets with 18 points in their road loss at Seattle Pacific. MSUB was outshot 49.3 to 38.9 percent in the contest and outrebounded 45-28.

Northwest Nazarene: Kenny Jones had 30 points and seven assists in the Crusaders' two contests. He also led NNU in steals with six. Northwest Nazarene made just eight of 32 three-point shots, cashing in on only three of 14 against WWU.

Saint Martin's: Roger O'Neill had 25 points and a team-best 13 rebounds in the Saints' two games in Alaska increasing his career point total to 969. Matt Dodson matched O'Neill's rebound total grabbing six of his 13 at the offensive end.

Seattle Pacific: The Falcons outrebounded Montana State Billings 45-28 in a 25-point win at Brougham Pavilion as they stayed one game back of Western Washington (and one-half back of second place Alaska Fairbanks) in the GNAC race. Jobi Wall had 12 of the rebounds. He also had 13 points (and six assists) to record his first double-double of the season. Andy Poling made eight of 16 shots and led WWU with 16 points.

Simon Fraser: Taylor Dunn scored 40 points and Anto Olah and Elijah Matthews each had 32 points in the Clan's two home losses. Olah also collected one-quarter (14 of 56) of his team's rebounds. SFU was outshot 55.0 percent (60 of 109) to 45.8 percent (55 of 120).

Western Oregon: Rodney Webster scored a team-high 25 points, shooting 55.0 percent (11 of 20) in losses at Anchorage and Fairbanks. Andy Avgi had 17 points and a team-best nine rebounds.

Western Washington: Cameron Severson had 28 points and 15 rebounds and Austin Bragg had 24 points, 19 rebounds and five steals in the Vikings' two victories. Bragg led WWU in the latter two categories; Severson posted his numbers coming off the bench. The Vikings outrebounded Central Washington 43-25 including 23-3 off the offensive glass, finishing with a 25-0 advantage in second-chance points.

GNAC FINISHES AT .726: GNAC teams completed the non-conference portion of their schedules with a .726 winning percentage (61-23), the second best mark in the 12-year history of the conference. Conference teams were 36-20 in Division II contests, including 25-14 in regional counters (16-12 against the PacWest, 2-1 against CCAA teams and 7-1 in games against schools that count as regional counters due to the NCAA "contiguous" state rule). Nine of the 10 conference teams posted winning records in the non-conference portion of their schedules. The 10th school – Saint Martin's – finished with a .500 non-conference record.

GNAC (2) vs. CCAA (1): UAF 1-0, SPU 1-1. CCAA (1) vs. GNAC (2): San Francisco State 1-0, Chico State 0-1, CSU Monterey Bay 0-1.

GNAC (16) vs. PacWest (12): SPU 4-0, WWU 2-0, CWU 3-1, SMU 2-1, NNU 2-2, WOU 1-2, MSUB 1-3, SFU 1-3. PacWest (12) vs. GNAC (16): Grand Canyon 2-0, Fresno Pacific 1-0, Dominican 1-0, Dixie State 1-0, Azusa Pacific 2-1, Chaminade 2-1, Hawaii Hilo 1-2, Academy of Art 1-3, BYU-Hawaii 1-3, Point Loma Nazarene 0-1, Hawaii Pacific 0-2, Notre Dame de Namur 0-3.

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

Week of Nov. 5-11: David Downs, Seattle Pacific (G, 6-2, Jr., Kirkland, WA – Bellevue Christian) was named the Most Valuable Player leading the Falcons to the team title in Sodexo Tip Off Classic at Brougham Pavilion. Downs scored 31 points and also had a team-high nine assists as SPU debuted with 20- and 19-point victories. Downs made eight of 14 shots, including four of eight treys. He also led SPU with three steals and had just two turnovers.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Pat Voeut, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-11, Jr., Bellingham, WA – Whatcom CC) scored 46 points and also had 19 assists, nine rebounds and five steals leading the Nanooks to the team title in the GCI Alaska Invitational at Fairbanks. Voeut, who was named the tournament's Most Valuable Player, made 17 of 26 shots, including three of six three-pointers.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Andy Avgi, Western Oregon (F, 6-5, Fr., Woodburn, OR) scored 52 points and also had 15 rebounds in earning MVP honors in the Capital City Classic. Avgi, who leads the GNAC in field goal percentage shooting 71.0 percent (44 of 62), made 20 of 25 shots (including 10 of 11 against Corban), including his only three-pointer. He also blocked two shots and had three steals.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Devon Alexander, Western Oregon (G, 6-1, Fr., Fontana, CA) came off the bench to score 48 points, including 28 in a 118-113 triple overtime win over Central Washington Saturday as the Wolves extended their win streak to six games with a pair of home victories. Alexander scored nine of WOU's 13 points in the decisive third overtime period. He also had 13 steals, including a GNAC-record tying eight (for conference contests) in a 92-84 win against Northwest Nazarene Thursday. In the two contests, Alexander made 16 of 29 shots, including four of six three-pointers. He also converted on 12 of 13 foul shots, grabbed eight rebounds and had four assists.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Kenny Jones, Northwest Nazarene (G, 6-2, Sr., Los Angeles, CA) scored 43 points in wins over College of Idaho and New Hope Christian. Jones had 27 against the Coyotes, making nine of 16 shots as NNU extended its win streak over its county rivals to seven. He then netted 16 points and had four steals in a 20-point win over New Hope Christian.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Jarrell Crayton, MSU Billings (F, 6-7, Sr., Bellevue, NE – Boise State) had 14 points and 14 rebounds accounting for 23.0 and 36.8 percent of team totals in a 71-61 loss at Grand Canyon. Crayton made seven of 13 shots and also had a pair of steals. Crayton's rebound total was the most for a MSUB player since Robert Mayes grabbed 15 against SPU on Feb. 18.

Week of Dec. 17-23: John Allen, Western Washington (G, 190, Sr., Brier, WA – Mountlake Terrace) scored 47 points leading the Vikings to wins over 14th ranked Drury (72-69) and Central Oklahoma (103-74) in the South Point Holiday Hoop Classic in Las Vegas. Allen, who was named the tournament's MVP, made 14 of 28 shots, including nine of 17 three-point shots. He also had six assists and three steals. The two wins extended WWU's win streak to 15, matching the second longest in school and GNAC history.

Week of Dec. 24-30: Paul Jones, Western Washington (F, 6-4, Sr., Kent, WA – Whatcom CC) scored 26 points and also had six rebounds and a pair of blocks to lead Western Washington to a 98-62 win over Thompson Rivers Sunday as the Vikings extended their win streak to 16. That is the second longest win streak in GNAC history and is also the second longest in WWU school history. The Vikings have also won 15 straight home games, which equals the sixth longest streak in conference history.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: Pat Voeut, Alaska Fairbanks (G, 5-11, 170, Jr., Bellingham, WA – Whatcom CC) and Roger O'Neill, Saint Martin's (F, 6-5, Sr., Edmonds, WA - Meadowdale) ... Voeut scored 31 points in a pair of road wins as the Nanooks snapped a 17-game losing streak on opponents' home courts with victories at Central Washington (82-75) and Northwest Nazarene (74-55). Voeut converted on 12 of 20 shots and also led his team in assists (8) and steals (6). O'Neill tied his career high with 24 points in a 71-59 home win against Western Oregon Saturday. He scored SMU's first nine points of the game and finished the first half with 16 points as the Saints built a 39-23 lead at the break.
