WWU's John Allen Selected NCAA Division II West Region Player-of-the-Year

Mar. 14, 2013

PORTLAND, Ore. — Western Washington senior guard John Allen has been voted the Daktronics NCAA Division II West Region Men's Basketball Player-of-the-Year.

Allen led the Vikings to the Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular-season title this winter, ranking second in the GNAC in scoring averaging 17.3 points per game. He also paced the Vikings in assists (4.0) in earning GNAC Player of the Year honors.

Joining Allen on the Daktronics West Region all-star team were teammate Paul Jones, Cal Poly Pomona guard Mitchel Anderson, Seattle Pacific guard David Downs and forward Kwame Alexander of Cal State San Bernardino.

Anderson and Alexander are repeat selections from last year when they earned second team honors.

Selected to the second team were guards DeAndre Haskins of Chaminade, Mark McLaughlin of Central Washington, Terrence Drisdorn of Cal Poly Pomona and Brian Goins of Cal State San Bernardino, forward Decensae White of San Francisco State and center Zach Robbins of Dixie State.

Players selected to the region first team will now be listed on the Daktronics All-American national ballot. The All-American team will be announced next Thursday (Mar. 21).

The D2SIDA All-America men's basketball team is sponsored by Daktronics, Inc., an acknowledged world leader in scoring, timing and programmable display systems for virtually every sport at every level of competition. The teams are voted on by the members of D2SIDA, NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association.
