SPU's David Downs Selected NCAA Division II West Region Player of the Year

Mar. 13, 2014

PORTLAND, Ore. – Seattle Pacific senior guard David Downs has been voted the 2013-14 Daktronics NCAA Division II West Region Men's Basketball Player of the Year.

Downs, who was named to the all-region first team for the second year in a row, led the Falcons to the Great Northwest Athletic Conference regular-season and conference tournament titles, ranking third in the GNAC in scoring averaging 20.2 points per game and fifth nationally in three-point percentage (79-167, 47.3). He also paced the Falcons in assists (4.6) in earning GNAC Player of the Year honors.

Joining Downs on the all-region first team were guards Lacy Haddock of Cal State San Bernardino and Mark McLaughlin of Central Washington, forward Zach Robbins of Dixie State and center Marcus Bell of Cal State Stanislaus.

McLaughlin and Robbins earned second team honors last year.

Selected to this year's second team were guards Ryan Berg of California Baptist, DeRonn Scott of Cal Poly Pomona and Lee Bailey of Chaminade, forward Patrick Simon of Seattle Pacific and center Austin Bragg of Western Washington. Berg is the first freshman named to the team since Fred Hooks of Humboldt State made the first team in 2001.

Players selected to the region first team will now be listed on the Daktronics All-American national ballot. The All-American team will be announced Monday, March 24.

The D2SIDA All-America men's basketball team is sponsored by Daktronics, Inc., an acknowledged world leader in scoring, timing and programmable display systems for virtually every sport at every level of competition. The teams are voted on by the members of D2SIDA, NCAA Division II Sports Information Directors Association.
