University of Sciences senior Garret Kerr has been named the 2015 Division II Bulletin Player of the Year.

The CACC Player of the Year and DIIB Preseason Player of the Year, Kerr led the Devils to a 25-6 record and the program's first postseason victory when he scored 40 points in an upset of Saint Anselm in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. For the season, he averaged 25.7 ppg., good for third in Division II, while ranking second in the country in rebounding with 12.7 rpg. Kerr shot 53.1 percent from the floor (296-of-557), including 38-of-98 on 3-pointers (38.8 pct.), and made 166-of-222 free throws (74.8 pct.). He ranked second on the team in assist (120) and led the way in steals with 58. Kerr leads Division II with 27 double-doubles, including one triple-double.

Kerr headlines the DIIB All-American team, where he was joined on the first team by Florida Southern senior Kevin Capers, Seger Bonifant of West Liberty, Bellarmine's Jake Thelan and Darryl Williams of Texas A&M Commerce.

Division II Bulletin has named a Player of the Year every year since the 1991-92 season.
