Palm Beach Atlantic's Kenny Hogg Headlines Daktronics NCAA Division II Men's Soccer All-America Team

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Junior forward Kenny Hogg of Palm Beach Atlantic (Fla.) University headlines the 2012 Daktronics NCAA Division II Men's Soccer All-America First Team as the Ron Lenz National Player of the Year.

Hogg, of Irvine, Scotland, guided Palm Beach Atlantic to a 15-3-1 record. The South Region Player of the Year leads NCAA Division II players with 28 goals and 59 points. He was also named the Player of the Year in the Independent Collegiate Athletic Association.

Lynn (Fla.) University placed two players on the first team. Junior goalkeeper Matt DiCerbo and sophomore defender Jason Sangha carried Lynn to the national semifinals in Evans, Ga. DiCerbo ranks second among Division II keepers with a 0.41 goals against average. Sangha was a third team All-American selection in 2011.

Junior Tesho Akindele of Colorado School of Mines repeats as a first team forward. Akindele ranks second in Division II with 22 goals and 50 points. Junior Mario Pinto of Lincoln Memorial (Tenn.) University and senior Saeed Robinson of Grand Canyon (Ariz.) University round out the first team forwards. Pinto posted 21 goals and 47 points, while Robinson recorded 18 goals and 42 points.

The four first team midfielders combined for 61 goals and 31 assists. Junior Marco Likos of Nyack (N.Y.) University topped the foursome with 18 goals and 44 points. The rest of the group consists of junior Vincent Bailey of the University of Incarnate Word (Texas), junior Matthew Brown of West Virginia Wesleyan University and senior Bo White of Northeastern State (Okla.) University.

Senior Matt Besuschko of national semifinalist Simon Fraser (B.C.) University headlines the first team defenders. The remaining first team defenders are senior Colin Bjostad of West Texas A&M University and senior Taylor Diem of Regis (Colo.) University.

Sports information directors from NCAA Division II schools and conferences sponsoring men's soccer selected the Daktronics All-America teams. The process begins at the regional level with all first team All-Region picks advancing to the national ballot. This is the seventh year Daktronics has sponsored the NCAA Division II men's soccer All-America and All-Region teams. A total of 60 student-athletes representing 38 different institutions filled out the three teams and honorable mention selections. Tyler Lobe and Brandon Bronzan of the Sonoma State (Calif.) University Sports Information office assisted in the voting process.

The team is sponsored by Daktronics, Inc., recognized worldwide in its industry as the leading designer and manufacturer of electronic scoreboards, programmable display systems, and large screen video displays using light emitting diode (LED) technology. The team is voted on by the members of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).
