After Strong Start, GNAC Teams Head to California for GNAC/PacWest Challenge(s)

PORTLAND, Ore. - After combining for a record of 25-14 in the opening weekend, GNAC volleyball teams head to California and Colorado this weekend for a trio of tournaments.

Eight of the conference's 10 teams will compete in the GNAC PacWest Challenge at Riverside, Calif., and San Rafael, Calif., respectively.

Central Washington, Western Washington, Alaska Anchorage and Northwest Nazarene will challenge PacWest member schools Azusa Pacific, Dixie State, Point Loma and host Cal Baptist at Riverside.

Meanwhile, MSU Billings, Western Oregon, Seattle Pacific and Simon Fraser will face Chaminade, Academy of the Art, Fresno Pacific and host Dominican at San Rafael.

The GNAC's other two member schools – Alaska and Saint Martin's – are entered in the Colorado State Pueblo/UC Colorado Springs Classic at Pueblo and Colorado Springs.

Three GNAC teams – Central Washington, Montana State Billings and Simon Fraser – each opened their seasons with perfect 4-0 records.

Central Washington earned three wins against AVCA Top 25 teams as the Wildcats knocked off No. 11 UC San Diego, No. 8 Cal State San Bernardino and No. 16 Sonoma State in succession in the Hampton Inn CWU Wildcat Classic at Ellensburg.

The wins catapulted the Wildcats to No. 13 in this week's AVCA poll. CWU was unranked in the pre-season poll.

Western Washington, which won three of four matches at Ellensburg, climbed three positions in the national poll, climbing from 12th to ninth.

The Vikings lone loss was to CSU San Bernardino. WWU won the first two sets before the Coyotes rallied for the win.

Two other GNAC teams are among "others receiving votes" in the poll.

Northwest Nazarene which won three of four matches at the Colorado Mines Oredigger Classic is 34th overall, while Alaska Anchorage which won three of four in the Spring Hills Classic in Anchorage is 35th overall.

Montana State Billings' four wins all came against Division II opponents in its own tournament, while Simon Fraser won four matches with Canadian member institutions.

Seattle Pacific also got off to a quick start winning three of four matches at its own tournament.

Saint Martin's, meanwhile, opened its season with a 1-3 record at Ellensburg. Western Oregon was winless in three matches at SPU and Alaska dropped four matches in the Flint Hills Resources Alaska Nanook Classic in Fairbanks.
