GNAC RED LION PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Alli Madison, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-8, So., Seattle, WA – Kennedy) had back-to-back career highs leading the Seawolves to road wins at Western Oregon (63-54) and Saint Martin's (48-45). Madison scored 15 points on six of 10 shooting and also had three assists and a career-high 10 rebounds at Monmouth, then had 17 points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-high four steals in playing all 40 minutes in Saturday's win at Lacey. She finished the road trip shooting 50 percent (12 of 24) from the floor and 60 percent (3 of 5) from the three-point line as UAA climbed into a three-way for fifth place at the midway point of the conference season.

HONORABLE MENTION: Britt Harris, Western Washington; Monica Grimsrud, MSU Billings; Melissa Fowler, Western Oregon, and Chelsea Haskey, Saint Martin's Harris scored 41 points, shooting 73.1 percent (19 of 26) as the Vikings ran their win streak to nine with six- and four-point road victories at Ellensburg and Nampa. Harris also had 10 rebounds, three assists and three blocks as the Vikings became the ninth team in the 12-year history of the conference to complete the first-half of the conference season unbeaten ... Grimsrud came off the bench to score 15 points and grab six rebounds and also blocked three shots in a 66-56 home win against Seattle

Pacific ... Fowler scored 35 points on 14 of 27 shooting and had 18 rebounds as the Wolves split two home games, both by double-digit numbers ... Haskey netted 34 points (14 of 28 FGs, 6 of 6 FTs) and also had 12 rebounds as the Saints split two contests.

FROM THE RECORD BOOK: Northwest Nazarene set a GNAC single-game record with 32 offensive rebounds in Thursday's 60-59 win over Simon Fraser. Megan Hingston had nine offensive caroms and Chelsie Luke had six. NNU's total was the most for a conference game, breaking the record of 29 set by Central Washington against Western Oregon on Jan. 6, 2005. The record for all games is 36 by Western Washington against Northwest College on Nov. 26, 2011.

HOME WIN STREAKS: At the halfway point of the conference season this week, three GNAC teams remain unbeaten at home this season - Western Washington (9-0), MSU Billings (9-0) and Simon Fraser (7-0). Going back to the 2011-12 campaign, here are there overall home win streaks: 13 – Western Washington. 9 – MSU Billings. 7 - Simon Fraser.

GNAC TEAM NOTES:

Alaska Anchorage: Alysa Horn needs 37 more points to become the 51st member of the GNAC 1000-Point club. Horn scored 27 points, converting on 12 of 21 shots and also had 18 rebounds last week increasing her career point total to 963. She also led the Seawolves with three blocked shots.

Alaska Fairbanks: Samantha Thornton scored 25 points and Jacqueline Lovato netted 21 in contests at Lacey and Monmouth. Thornton also had 16 rebounds. Taylor Altenburg contributed 18 points and 12 rebounds in the two contests.

Central Washington: Jessica VanDyke scored 42 points in CWU's two single-digit losses to Western Washington and Simon Fraser. VanDyke made 13 of 22 shots, including six of 10 from the arc. She was perfect (10 of 10) from the foul line. The Wildcats also got 25 points and 16 rebounds from Jasmine Parker and 22 points from Daisy Burke.

MSU Billings: Bobbi Knudsen led the Yellowjackets with 19 points, seven assists and four steals as they improved to 9-0 this winter at Alterowitz Gymnasium. MSUB also got 15 points from Grimsrud (See Player of the Week notes) and 12 from Kayleen Goggins.

Northwest Nazarene: Chelsie Luke scored 36 points and Megan Hingston had 34 points and 29 rebounds as the Crusaders divided a pair of games with Top 10 ranked teams, beating No. 7 Simon Fraser by one before losing by four to Western Washington. NNU outrebounded the two 100-78, grabbing 49 off the offensive glass including a GNAC single-game record 32 against the Clan.

Saint Martin's: Angela Gelhar scored 23 points and Jordyn Richardson had 21 points to join with Haskey to account for 78 of the Saints' 119 points in games with Alaska Fairbanks and Alaska Anchorage. The Saints outshot their two opponents 42.0 (42 of 100) to 34.6 percent (37 of 107).

Seattle Pacific: Suzanna Ohlsen scored 19 points and Katie Benson had 16 points and 17 rebounds in the Falcons' road loss at MSU Billings.

Simon Fraser: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe had 29 points and 26 rebounds as the Clan split two road games. Raincock-Ekunwe now ranks fifth in career rebounding in GNAC history with 862. Counting her freshman season prior to SFU joining the GNAC she has 974 career rebounds and needs just 26 more to reach 1,000. Erin Chambers also had 29 points in the two contests.

Western Oregon: In addition to Fowler's 35-point output (See Player of the Week notes), the Wolves also got 24 points from Lorrie Clifford in splitting two contests. Mariah Durian had 19 points including four of four from the foul line, protecting her No. 1 national rank in free throw shooting. She is shooting 94.6 percent, making 53 of 56.

Western Washington: Guard Trishi Williams scored 30 points and also had 16 assists, 13 rebounds and five steals in the Vikings' two wins. Williams combined with Harris (41 points) and Corinn Waltrip (24 points) to account for 63.7 percent of WWU's scoring (95 of 149) in a pair of single-digit victories. WWU shot 50 percent (58 of 116) in the two wins while holding their opponents to 42.3 percent.

PERFECT STARTS: Western Washington is the ninth women's team in GNAC history to finish the first half of its conference schedule unbeaten, but the first to do it in the same year their men accomplished the same feat. The Vikings have done it four times. Seattle Pacific has also accomplished that feat four times and Alaska Anchorage has done it once. Six teams have gone through the second half of the schedule unbeaten. Here is the complete list:

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK

Week of Nov. 5-11: Erin Chambers, Simon Fraser (F, 6-1, So., Mission, BC) scored 51 points and also had 15 rebounds in leading the Clan to three victories, including wins over nationally eighth-ranked UC San Diego (61-58) and No. 13 Grand Canyon (69-60). Chambers connected on 14 of 25 field goals attempts (eight of 13 from beyond the arc) and also was perfect from the foul line making 15 of 15.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Sasha King, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-6, Sr., Norman, OK – Hutchinson) scored 35 points and also had 16 assists leading the Seawolves to 85-76 and 70-67 victories over Regis. King, who made six of 16 three-pointers, also had five steals.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Bobbi Knudsen, Montana State Billings (G, 5-8, Jr., Malta, MT) scored 44 points to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair wins in the MSUB Yellowjacket Classic. Knudsen, who was selected as the tournament MVP, scored a career and GNAC season-high 33 points in a 91-87 overtime win over Dixie State Friday, then had 11 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in a 80-44 win over Notre Dame de Namur. She played just 24 minutes in the latter contest.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Janiel Olson, Montana State Billings (F, 5-10, So., Billings, MT) scored 21 points and grabbed 26 rebounds leading the Yellowjackets to 66-59 and 69-68 home wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene, respectively. She also led MSUB in steals with seven. Olson had 13 points and 11 rebounds in Thursday’s win against CWU, then had a career-high 15 rebounds, 10 at the offensive end in Saturday’s one-point victory against Northwest Nazarene. Her final rebound came on a three-point miss by Monica Grimsrud with 24 seconds left. She then fed Grimsrud, who scored on a layup for the decisive basket.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Suzanna Ohlsen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-7, So., Monroe, WA) scored 29 points as the Falcons split two games in the Chico West Regional Classic. Ohlsen had an outstanding 9-1 assist to turnover ratio and also was deadly from the three-point arc (making 5 of 7) and from the foul line (converting on all eight of her attempts). She also had seven rebounds and a steal. Twenty-four of her points (a career high) came in Saturday's 89-77 loss at Chico. Twenty-one of those points came in the second half of the contest. Ohlsen currently ranks second nationally in assist/turnover ratio with a 3.56 mark.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Ally Schmitt, Central Washington (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA – Montana State) set a GNAC single-game record with 16 assists in a 79-57 home win against Evergreen State. Schmitt also led the Wildcats in the contest with four steals.

Week of Dec. 17-23: Britt Harris, Western Washington (C, 6-2, Sr., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) and Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, Sr., Kodiak, AK) ... Harris earned MVP honors in the South Point Holiday Hoop Classic in Las Vegas as she scored 42 points and also had 13 rebounds, six assists and five steals leading the Vikings to wins over nationally sixth-ranked Washburn (64-62) and No. 15 Grand Canyon (72-68 in overtime). Harris converted on 14 of 30 field goal attempts and 14 of 19 free throws ... Horn was selected the Most Outstanding Player in the AT&T Hoops Classic in Anchorage. She scored 62 points and also had 27 rebounds, eight blocked shots, eight steals and five assists leading the Seawolves to wins over BYU-Hawaii (100-68), Eastern New Mexico (82-40) and Cal State L.A. (66-56).

Week of Dec. 24-30: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Sr., Toronto, ON – Kalamalka) had 23 points and a GNAC-record 24 rebounds to lead the Clan to a 87-55 win over Trinity Western Saturday. She broke the GNAC single-game record of 23 set by Kristin Hein of Northwest Nazarene against Humboldt State on Dec. 12, 2009 and equaled by Nyesha Sims of Seattle Pacific against Alaska Fairbanks on Feb. 14, 2012. Raincock-Ekunwe is the 10th player in GNAC history to record 20 or more rebounds in a single game, but the first to do it twice. She also had 22 rebounds against Colorado State Pueblo on Nov. 25, 2011.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: Chelsea Haskey, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, Jr., Olympia, WA) scored 18 points and also had eight rebounds and two steals as the Saints upset Seattle Pacific 70-66 Saturday to earn their first conference win of the season. In two games, Haskey scored 34 points and also grabbed 12 rebounds. Over the past seven games, she has averaged 15.7 points and 7.6 rebounds and shot 44.4 percent from the foul line.

Week of Jan. 7-13: Megan Hingston, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-9, Jr., Keizer, OR) scored 41 points and also had 19 rebounds as the Crusaders improved to 8-0 at home with 19 and 17-point victories over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. Hingston, who has six double-doubles this season, made 16 of 29 shots. She also had four steals and three assists.

Week of Jan. 14-20: Corinn Waltrip, Western Washington (G, 5-6, Sr., Tigard, OR) and Jasmine Parker, Central Washington (F, 6-2, Fr., Spokane, WA - Mead) ... Waltrip scored 35 points including a career-high 24 in a 78-76 home win against MSU Billings. Waltrip made 11 of 24 shots including 9 of 17 from the arc. She also had eight assists. Jasmine Parker had 25 points and 26 rebounds as the Wildcats swept Alaska Fairbanks (69-49) and Alaska Anchorage (74-64). She also had team highs for blocked shots (4) and steals (6).
