GNAC RED LION PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Kylie Burns, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-9, Jr., Kansas City, KS – Bishop Ward) scored 33 points and also had 19 rebounds leading the Seawolves to home wins over Seattle Pacific and Montana State Billings, the two teams directly ahead of them in the conference standings. Burns scored 20 of her career-high 22 points in the second half and also had eight rebounds as the Seawolves completed a regular-season series sweep from Seattle Pacific for the first-time in GNAC history with a 93-82 victory Thursday. She then recorded her second double-double of the season on Saturday (11 points, 11 rebounds) in a 61-55 win over Montana State Billings. Burns, who had three assists and no turnovers in 40 minutes, made the game-clinching free throws with 19 seconds remaining.

HONORABLE MENTION: Marie-Line Petit, Simon Fraser (G, 5-6, Jr., Bergeronnes, QC); Megan Hingston, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-9, Jr., Keizer, OR – McNary); Leslie Stillar, Central Washington (G, 5-6, Jr., Nine Mile Falls, WA – Lakeside & Walla Walla CC) and Katie Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-1, Jr., Snohomish, WA)

CLOSING IN ON 1000: Megan Hingston of Northwest Nazarene and Katie Benson of Seattle Pacific could become the 52nd and 53rd members of the GNAC 1000-Point Club Thursday – approximately at the same time. Benson has 990 points and will need 10 points against Simon Fraser in a game that tips off at Brougham Pavilion at 5:15 p.m. Forty-five minutes later Hingston and her teammates will take the court in Nampa against Alaska Fairbanks. Hingston will need just two points in the contest to reach four-digits. They'll be the fourth and fifth players to join the 1,000-Point GNAC club this winter including Alaska Anchorage's Alysa Horn who reached that milestone last Thursday.

HOME SWEET HOME: Three GNAC teams are still unbeaten at home this season - Western Washington (11-0), MSU Billings (11-0) and Simon Fraser (10-0). The Vikings' streak is 15 and dates back to their final four home games of the 2011-12 season. As a group GNAC teams are 74-35 at home this winter, a winning percentage of .679 including an amazing 47-2 (.959) by the top five teams in the current conference standings.

GNAC TEAM NOTES:

Alaska Anchorage: Alysa Horn scored 29 points and also had 18 rebounds in home wins over Seattle Pacific and MSU Billings. Horn now has 1,019 points and ranks 48th all-time in GNAC history. Horn was just UAA's fourth option last week as Sasha King had 35 points, Kylie Burns had 33 (See Player of the Week notes) and Jenna Buchanan had 31 points. Buchanan made seven of 12 treys and King was five of 12 from the arc.

Alaska Fairbanks: Kelly Logue scored 25 points and Benissa Bulaya chipped in with 24 in home contests against MSU Billings and Seattle Pacific. The Nanooks also got 23 points and 18 rebounds from Ruth O'Neal.

Central Washington: Leslie Stillar scored 34 points, including 18 in the first half of the Wildcats' win at Saint Martin's Saturday helping CWU build a 29-15 lead at the break. Stillar made 13 of 28 shots as the Wildcats earned a road split. Jasmine Parker had 18 points and team-highs for rebounds (14), blocks (5) and steals (4).

MSU Billings: Janiel Olson and Bobbi Knudsen each scored 22 points as the Yellowjackets divided two games in Alaska. Olson also had 21 rebounds. Knudsen was credited with eight assists.

Northwest Nazarene: Megan Hingston had 50 points and 22 rebounds as the Crusaders improved to 10-2 on the road (8-2 on opponents' home courts) with two victories. Hingston now has scored 998 career points (See Closing in on 1000). She made 19 of 33 shots and recorded her 10th and 11th double-doubles of the season. Hingston accounted for 41 percent of NNU's scoring in the two contests.

Saint Martin's: Chelsea Haskey led the Saints with 20 points and 10 rebounds in two low-scoring home contests. SMU and its opponents combined to score just 180 points, an averaging of 45 per team per game. The Saints shot just 27.6 percent from the floor and 47.5 from the foul line.

Seattle Pacific: Katie Benson netted 42 points on 17 of 30 shooting increasing her career total to 990 points. Benson also led the Falcons with 12 rebounds, a number matched by Rachel Murray, as SPU split two contests in Alaska. Suzanna Ohlsen scored 30 points and Aubree Callen had 22 points and 18 assists, including nine in each game.

Simon Fraser: Katie Lowen led the Clan with 17 points as it beat Western Washington for the first time since joining the GNAC in the fall of 2010. SFU also got 13 points from Marie-Line Petit and Carla Wyman. Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe and Erin Chambers each had 11 points. Raincock-Ekunwe had eight rebounds increasing her GNAC career total to 909.

Western Oregon: Lorrie Clifford scored 36 points and also led the Wolves with 10 assists as they split two games. Clifford, who made six of 12 three-point shots in the two contests, had 24 of her points in Thursday's 78-72 win over Central Washington. Melissa Fowler had 25 points and Chantel Divilbiss had 20 points.

Western Washington: Corinn Waltrip had 16 points and Britt Harris had 14 as the Vikings sustained their first conference loss of the season falling to Simon Fraser. Waltrip made four of seven three-pointers and now ranks 13th in GNAC history in three-pointers made with 160.

PERFECT STARTS: Western Washington is the ninth women's team in GNAC history to finish the first half of its conference schedule unbeaten, but the first to do it in the same year their men accomplished the same feat. The Vikings have done it four times. Seattle Pacific has also accomplished that feat four times and Alaska Anchorage has done it once. Six teams have gone through the second half of the schedule unbeaten. Here is the complete list:

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK

Week of Nov. 5-11: Erin Chambers, Simon Fraser (F, 6-1, So., Mission, BC) scored 51 points and also had 15 rebounds in leading the Clan to three victories, including wins over nationally eighth-ranked UC San Diego (61-58) and No. 13 Grand Canyon (69-60). Chambers connected on 14 of 25 field goals attempts (eight of 13 from beyond the arc) and also was perfect from the foul line making 15 of 15.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Sasha King, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-6, Sr., Norman, OK – Hutchinson) scored 35 points and also had 16 assists leading the Seawolves to 85-76 and 70-67 victories over Regis. King, who made six of 16 three-pointers, also had five steals.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Bobbi Knudsen, Montana State Billings (G, 5-8, Jr., Malta, MT) scored 44 points to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair wins in the MSUB Yellowjacket Classic. Knudsen, who was selected as the tournament MVP, scored a career and GNAC season-high 33 points in a 91-87 overtime win over Dixie State Friday, then had 11 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in a 80-44 win over Notre Dame de Namur. She played just 24 minutes in the latter contest.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Janiel Olson, Montana State Billings (F, 5-10, So., Billings, MT) scored 21 points and grabbed 26 rebounds leading the Yellowjackets to 66-59 and 69-68 home wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene, respectively. She also led MSUB in steals with seven. Olson had 13 points and 11 rebounds in Thursday's win against CWU, then had a career-high 15 rebounds, 10 at the offensive end in Saturday's one-point victory against Northwest Nazarene. Her final rebound came on a three-point miss by Monica Grimsrud with 24 seconds left. She then fed Grimsrud, who scored on a layup for the decisive basket.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Suzanna Ohlsen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-7, So., Monroe, WA) scored 29 points as the Falcons split two games in the Chico West Regional Classic. Ohlsen had an outstanding 9-1 assist to turnover ratio and also was deadly from the three-point arc (making 5 of 7) and from the foul line (converting on all eight of her attempts). She also had seven rebounds and a steal. Twenty-four of her points (a career high) came in Saturday's 89-77 loss at Chico. Twenty-one of those points came in the second half of the contest. Ohlsen currently ranks second nationally in assist/turnover ratio with a 3.56 mark.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Ally Schmitt, Central Washington (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA – Montana State) set a GNAC single-game record with 16 assists in a 79-57 home win against Evergreen State. Schmitt also led the Wildcats in the contest with four steals.

Week of Dec. 17-23: Britt Harris, Western Washington (C, 6-2, Sr., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) and Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, Sr., Kodiak, AK) ... Harris earned MVP honors in the South Point Holiday

Hoop Classic in Las Vegas as she scored 42 points and also had 13 rebounds, six assists and five steals leading the Vikings to wins over nationally sixth-ranked Washburn (64-62) and No. 15 Grand Canyon (72-68 in overtime). Harris converted on 14 of 30 field goal attempts and 14 of 19 free throws ... Horn was selected the Most Outstanding Player in the AT&T Hoops Classic in Anchorage. She scored 62 points and also had 27 rebounds, eight blocked shots, eight steals and five assists leading the Seawolves to wins over BYU-Hawaii (100-68), Eastern New Mexico (82-40) and Cal State L.A. (66-56).

Week of Dec. 24-30: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Sr., Toronto, ON – Kalamalka) had 23 points and a GNAC-record 24 rebounds to lead the Clan to a 87-55 win over Trinity Western Saturday. She broke the GNAC single-game record of 23 set by Kristin Hein of Northwest Nazarene against Humboldt State on Dec. 12, 2009 and equaled by Nyesha Sims of Seattle Pacific against Alaska Fairbanks on Feb. 14, 2012. Raincock-Ekunwe is the 10th player in GNAC history to record 20 or more rebounds in a single game, but the first to do it twice. She also had 22 rebounds against Colorado State Pueblo on Nov. 25, 2011.

Week of Dec. 31-Jan. 6: Chelsea Haskey, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, Jr., Olympia, WA) scored 18 points and also had eight rebounds and two steals as the Saints upset Seattle Pacific 70-66 Saturday to earn their first conference win of the season. In two games, Haskey scored 34 points and also grabbed 12 rebounds. Over the past seven games, she has averaged 15.7 points and 7.6 rebounds and shot 44.4 percent from the foul line.

Week of Jan. 7-13: Megan Hingston, Northwest Nazarene (F, 5-9, Jr., Keizer, OR) scored 41 points and also had 19 rebounds as the Crusaders improved to 8-0 at home with 19 and 17-point victories over Western Oregon and Saint Martin's. Hingston, who has six double-doubles this season, made 16 of 29 shots. She also had four steals and three assists.

Week of Jan. 14-20: Corinn Waltrip, Western Washington (G, 5-6, Sr., Tigard, OR) and Jasmine Parker, Central Washington (F, 6-2, Fr., Spokane, WA - Mead) ... Waltrip scored 35 points including a career-high 24 in a 78-76 home win against MSU Billings. Waltrip made 11 of 24 shots including 9 of 17 from the arc. She also had eight assists. Jasmine Parker had 25 points and 26 rebounds as the Wildcats swept Alaska Fairbanks (69-49) and Alaska Anchorage (74-64). She also had team highs for blocked shots (4) and steals (6).

Week of Jan. 21-27: Alli Madison, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-8, So., Seattle, WA – Kennedy) had back-to-back career highs leading the Seawolves to road wins at Western Oregon (63-54) and Saint Martin's (48-45). Madison scored 15 points on six of 10 shooting and also had three assists and a career-high 10 rebounds at Monmouth, then had 17 points, five rebounds, five assists and a career-high four steals in playing all 40 minutes in Saturday's win at Lacey. She finished the road trip shooting 50 percent (12 of 24) from the floor and 60 percent (3 of 5) from the three-point line as UAA climbed into a three-way for fifth place at the midway point of the conference season.

Week of Jan. 28-Feb. 4: Trishi Williams, Western Washington (G, 5-9, Sr., Mabton, WA - CBC) had 11 points, 10 rebounds and 11 assists in a 83-72 win against Alaska Anchorage posting just the third triple-double in school history and the first since 1994-95. She finished the weekend with 26 points, 15 rebounds and 13 assists as the Vikings stayed unbeaten in the GNAC running their win streak to 11 games.
