GNAC RED LION PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Corinn Waltrip, Western Washington (G, 5-6, Sr., Tigard, OR) and Katie Benson, Seattle Pacific (F, 6-1, Jr., Snohomish, WA) ... Both Waltrip and Benson netted 50 points in a pair of contests. Waltrip had a GNAC season-high 36 points in a 80-76 overtime win over Seattle Pacific Saturday. She made 11 of 19 shots against the Falcons, including eight of 13 three-pointers. Her eight treys equaled the fourth highest single-game total in GNAC history. In her two contests, she shot 59.3 percent (16 of 27), converting on 10 of 15 three-pointers and was perfect from the foul line (8 of 8). She also had 10 assists ... Benson made 17 of 30 shots and 13 of 14 free throws as SPU nearly pulled off a sweep of two nationally Top 10 ranked teams. Benson had a career-high 32 points and 10 rebounds Thursday in a 70-60 win over No. 8 Simon Fraser. She then tallied 18 points and had nine rebounds in an overtime loss to No. 9 Western Washington. Benson, who joined the 1,000-point club Thursday, also had five steals and was perfect from the three-point line (3 of 3) in the two contests. She now ranks 49th in GNAC history with 1,040 points.

HONORABLE MENTION: Sasha King, Alaska Anchorage; Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser; Megan Hingston, Northwest Nazarene; Whitney Rodriguez, Western Oregon.

MILESTONES: Katie Benson of Seattle Pacific and Megan Hingston of Northwest Nazarene became the 52nd and 53rd members of the GNAC 1000-Point Club Thursday. Benson started the week trailing Hingston by eight points, but finished two ahead (1,040 – 1,038). They now rank 49th and 50th on the all-time GNAC scoring list and are the fourth and fifth players to join the 1,000-Point GNAC club this winter. Next up to join the club is Corinn Waltrip of Western Washington who has 926 career points ... Simon Fraser coach Bruce Langford is closing in on a coaching milestone. He has 298 career victories and could join the 300-win club with home wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene this weekend.

HOME (NOT SO) SWEET HOME: After MSU Billings dropped a pair of home games to Western Washington and Simon Fraser Thursday and Saturday, two GNAC teams are still unbeaten at home this season - Western Washington (11-0) and Simon Fraser (10-0). The Vikings' streak is 15 and dates back to their final four home games of the 2011-12 season. GNAC home teams stumbled a bit last week winning just three of nine games. But as a group they are still winning at a .670 pace (77-41) at home.

ANOTHER 20 SPOT FOR NAYO: Simon Fraser forward Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe had 21 points and 21 rebounds in Saturday's 61-55 road win at MSU Billings. It is the fourth career 20-rebound game for Nayo. There have been a total of 13 in GNAC history and she is the only one with more than one. Raincock-Ekunwe has 941 career rebounds and needs just 59 more to become the third player in GNAC history to reach the 1,000 rebound level.

RECORD PERFORMANCE FOR SASHA: While Waltrip's eight three-pointers was the fourth highest single-game total in GNAC history, Sasha King of Alaska Anchorage did her one better, making nine of 10 to lead the Seawolves past Northwest Nazarene. That puts her in a three-way tie for the second most treys made in a single game in GNAC history. King, who scored 34 points, is also the first player in GNAC history to make more than six treys in a game in which the player had only one miss.

GNAC TEAM NOTES:

Alaska Anchorage: Both Sasha King and Alysa Horn had Player-of-the-Week type numbers to lead the Seawolves to a road sweep of Central Washington and No. 22 ranked Northwest Nazarene. King had 44 points, 12 assists and steals, including a 10-point, 10-assist double-double against Central Washington. Horn led UAA with 45 points and 20 rebounds in the two contests. She made 17 of 31 shots.

SMU won despite being outshot .436 (24-55) to .364 (20-55) and being outrebounded 43-28. It did have 10 fewer turnovers (17-27).

Seattle Pacific: Katie Benson became the 20th player in Seattle Pacific history to reach the 1,000-point total with her career-high 32 point total Thursday against Simon Fraser. In addition to Benson's two-game total of 50, the Falcons got 31 points and 13 assists from Aubree Callen and 24 points, eight assists and six steals from Suzanna Ohlsen in splitting two games.

Western Oregon: Melissa Fowler paced the Wolves with 12 points in their five-point loss at Saint Martin's. Whitney Rodriguez and Amber Reade each had 10 points. Rodriguez also was credited with 14 rebounds.

Western Washington: Britt Harris combined with Waltrip (See Player of the Week notes) to account for 81 of the Vikings' 151 points in games at MSU Billings and Seattle Pacific. Harris had 32 on 66.7 percent shooting (12-18). Trishi Williams had double-figure numbers for the two games in four categories – points (24), rebounds (12), assists (11) and steals (10).

PERFECT STARTS: Western Washington is the ninth women’s team in GNAC history to finish the first half of its conference schedule unbeaten, but the first to do it in the same year their men accomplished the same feat.
