GNAC RED LION PLAYER-OF-THE-WEEK: Chelsea Haskey, Saint Martin's (F, 6-1, Jr., Olympia, WA) scored 18 points and also had eight rebounds and two steals as the Saints upset Seattle Pacific 70-66 Saturday to earn their first conference win of the season. In two games, Haskey scored 34 points and also grabbed 12 rebounds. Over the past seven games, she has averaged 15.7 points and 7.6 rebounds and shot 44.4 percent from the foul line.

HONORABLE MENTION: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Sr., Toronto, ON – Kalamalka); Aubree Callen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-9, Jr., Jerome, ID); Lorrie Clifford, Western Oregon (G, 5-8, Sr., Eagle River, AK – Chugiak); Bobbi Knudsen, MSU Billings (G, 5-8, Jr., Malta, MT) and Ally Schmitt, Central Washington (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA) ... Raincock-Ekunwe scored 34 points and had 31 rebounds in recording her 48th and GNAC-record 49th career double-doubles as the Clan ran their win streak to eight games. Callen had 49 points and 28 rebounds leading the Falcons to two wins in three games. Clifford hit on six of 11 three-point shots and had 32 points as the Wolves split two home games. MSUB's Knudsen joined the career 1,000-point club, netting 38 points in two contests increasing her total to 1,006. Schmitt had 20 points and six assists in Central's five-point road loss at Northwest Nazarene.

FROM THE RECORD BOOK: In addition to setting a GNAC career record for double-doubles, Raincock-Ekunwe became the 11th player in GNAC history to record 800 career rebounds, moving into 10th place on the all-time list with 807. Her career per game average of 12.61 in nearly 2 ½ more per game than anyone else in GNAC history. She is also the GNAC all-time leader in career field goal percentage (59.7) and ranks third all-time in career scoring average (18.3).

AROUND THE GNAC: Knudsen became the 50th member of the GNAC 1000-Point Club, ending the weekend in a tie for 48th place. The next member will likely be Alysa Horn of Alaska Anchorage who currently ranks 66th with 895 career points. In addition to ranking 48th in scoring, Knudsen also ranks 37th in assists (244) and 57th in steals (121).

HOME WIN STREAKS: Five GNAC teams are unbeaten at home this season - Western Washington (6-0), MSU Billings (6-0), Simon Fraser (5-0), Seattle Pacific (5-0) and Northwest Nazarene (4-0). Going back to the 2011-12 campaign, here are there overall home win streaks: 10 – Western Washington. 6 – MSU Billings, Seattle Pacific; Northwest Nazarene. 5 - Simon Fraser.

GNAC TEAM NOTES:

Alaska Anchorage: Alysa Horn had 29 points, including a career-high 26 points in Thursday’s loss to Western Washington. The loss ended a 14-game conference game home win streak (16 including a pair of games in the 2011 GNAC tournament). UAA shot just 32.4 percent in the contests with the Vikings and Simon Fraser.

Alaska Fairbanks: Jacqueline Lovato netted 29 points, connecting on nine of 20 shots including seven of 18 three-pointers in losses to Simon Fraser and Western Washington.

Central Washington: Neither team missed a free throw in the Wildcats’ 76-71 loss at Northwest Nazarene. CWU made six of 11, while the Crusaders were a perfect 11 of 11. Each team also made 28 field goals, including nine three-pointers.

MSU Billings: In addition to leading MSUB with 38 points, Knudsen also had a team-high 10 assists and 10 steals as the Yellowjackets split two road games. The loss ended MSUB’s seven-game win streak dating back to Nov. 17. Kayleen Goggins had 28 points, 14 rebounds and six assists.

Northwest Nazarene: Chelsie Luke scored 21 points and also had a team-high eight rebounds in the Crusaders’ 76-71 home win against Central Washington. Megan Hingston contributed 17 points and six rebounds.

Saint Martin’s: Haskey was the only Saint player to average in double figures in SMU’s games with MSUB and Seattle Pacific. Angela Gelhar had 17 points. MacKenzie Taylor led SMU in rebounds (13) and assists (6). Jori Skorpik had a team-high five steals.

Seattle Pacific: Aubree Callen shot 51.7 percent from the floor, connecting on 15 of 29 field goal attempts, including five of 12 three-pointers as she led the Falcons with 49 points in a trio of games. Suzanna Ohlsen had 45 points and 15 assists and Katie Benson had 43 points and 23 rebounds as the trio combined for 64 percent of SPU’s points.

Simon Fraser: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe made 13 of 16 field goal attempts in producing her 34 points in double-digit road wins at Alaska Fairbanks and Alaska Anchorage. Kristina Collins was also productive scoring 29 points on seven of 14 three-point shooting. She also had 14 rebounds and 10 assists. Erin Chambers had 25 points and 10 assists.

Western Oregon: Lorrie Clifford made six of 11 three-pointers in producing her 32 points. She had 18 points on six of seven three-point shooting in Saturday’s 73-65 win over Montana State Billings. She is the ninth player in GNAC history to make six treys in a game with just one miss. Four players have made six in a game without a miss.

Western Washington: Eight different players scored between 14 and 22 points in the Vikings’ wins at Alaska Anchorage and Alaska Fairbanks. Britt Harris led the way with 22 points. Sarah Hill had 19 points and a team-high 15 rebounds.

GNAC .690 IN NON-CONFERENCE GAMES: GNAC teams finished the non-conference portion of their schedule with a 58-26 record. Its winning percentage of .690 is the second best in conference history, topped only by a .708 percentage in 200-08. Its record against non-conference Division II opponents was 36-22, including 18-8 against PacWest foes, 6-5 with CCAA opponents and 8-6 in games that count as regional contests under the NCAA “contiguous” state rule.

PREVIOUS RED LION PLAYERS-OF-THE-WEEK

Week of Nov. 5-11: Erin Chambers, Simon Fraser (F, 6-1, So., Mission, BC) scored 51 points and also had 15 rebounds in leading the Clan to three victories, including wins over nationally eighth-ranked UC San Diego (61-58) and No. 13 Grand Canyon (69-60). Chambers connected on 14 of 25 field goals attempts (eight of 13 from beyond the arc) and also was perfect from the foul line making 15 of 15.

Week of Nov. 12-18: Sasha King, Alaska Anchorage (G, 5-6, Sr., Norman, OK – Hutchinson) scored 35 points and also had 16 assists leading the Seawolves to 85-76 and 70-67 victories over Regis. King, who made six of 16 three-pointers, also had five steals.

Week of Nov. 19-25: Bobbi Knudsen, Montana State Billings (G, 5-8, Jr., Malta, MT) scored 44 points to lead the Yellowjackets to a pair wins in the MSUB Yellowjacket Classic. Knudsen, who was selected as the tournament MVP, scored a career and GNAC season-high 33 points in a 91-87 overtime win over Dixie State Friday, then had 11 points, seven rebounds and seven assists in a 80-44 win over Notre Dame de Namur. She played just 24 minutes in the latter contest.

Week of Nov. 26-Dec. 2: Janiel Olson, Montana State Billings (F, 5-10, So., Billings, MT) scored 21 points and grabbed 26 rebounds leading the Yellowjackets to 66-59 and 69-68 home wins over Central Washington and Northwest Nazarene, respectively. She also led MSUB in steals with seven. Olson had 13 points and 11 rebounds in Thursday's win against CWU, then had a career-high 15 rebounds, 10 at the offensive end in Saturday's one-point victory against Northwest Nazarene. Her final rebound came on a three-point miss by Monica Grimsrud with 24 seconds left. She then fed Grimsrud, who scored on a layup for the decisive basket.

Week of Dec. 3-9: Suzanna Ohlsen, Seattle Pacific (G, 5-7, So., Monroe, WA) scored 29 points as the Falcons split two games in the Chico West Regional Classic. Ohlsen had an outstanding 9-1 assist to turnover ratio and also was deadly from the three-point arc (making 5 of 7) and from the foul line (converting on all eight of her attempts). She also had seven rebounds and a steal. Twenty-four of her points (a career high) came in Saturday's 89-77 loss at Chico. Twenty-one of those points came in the second half of the contest. Ohlsen currently ranks second nationally in assist/turnover ratio with a 3.56 mark.

Week of Dec. 10-16: Ally Schmitt, Central Washington (G, 5-8, Jr., Snohomish, WA – Montana State) set a GNAC single-game record with 16 assists in a 79-57 home win against Evergreen State. Schmitt also led the Wildcats in the contest with four steals.

Week of Dec. 17-23: Britt Harris, Western Washington (C, 6-2, Sr., Marysville, WA – Marysville-Pilchuck) and Alysa Horn, Alaska Anchorage (F, 6-0, Sr., Kodiak, AK) ... Harris earned MVP honors in the South Point Holiday Hoop Classic in Las Vegas as she scored 42 points and also had 13 rebounds, six assists and five steals leading the Vikings to wins over nationally sixth-ranked Washburn (64-62) and No. 15 Grand Canyon (72-68 in overtime). Harris converted on 14 of 30 field goal attempts and 14 of 19 free throws ... Horn was selected the Most Outstanding Player in the AT&T Hoops Classic in Anchorage. She scored 62 points and also had 27 rebounds, eight blocked shots, eight steals and five assists leading the Seawolves to wins over BYU-Hawaii (100-68), Eastern New Mexico (82-40) and Cal State L.A. (66-56).

Week of Dec. 24-30: Nayo Raincock-Ekunwe, Simon Fraser (F, 6-2, Sr., Toronto, ON – Kalamalka) had 23 points and a GNAC-record 24 rebounds to lead the Clan to a 87-55 win over Trinity Western Saturday. She broke the GNAC single-game record of 23 set by Kristin Hein of Northwest Nazarene against Humboldt State on Dec. 12, 2009 and equaled by Nyesha Sims of Seattle Pacific against Alaska Fairbanks on Feb. 14, 2012. Raincock-Ekunwe is the 10th player in GNAC history to record 20 or more rebounds in a single game, but the first to do it twice. She also had 22 rebounds against Colorado State Pueblo on Nov. 25, 2011.
