HPU's Morganne Comstock West Region Player of the Year

Mar. 13, 2015

PORTLAND, Ore. – Center Morganne Comstock of Hawaii Pacific has been voted the 2014-15 Daktronics/Division II Conference Commissioners Association West Region Women's Basketball Player of the Year.

Comstock, who was a second team all-region selection last year averaged a double-double (19.7 ppg, 11.0 rpg) in leading the Sharks (25-4) to the PacWest regular-season and tournament titles and earning PacWest Player of the Year honors.

Joining Comstock on the Daktronics first team were Cal Poly Pomona center Jada Blackwell and forwards Erin Chambers of Simon Fraser, Megan Mullings of Alaska Anchorage and Kelly Hardeman of Azusa Pacific.

Blackwell, who was the 2014 West Region Player of the Year, and Chambers each earned first team all-region honors for the second year in a row.

Selected to the second team were guards Suzanna Ohlsen of Seattle Pacific, Stephanie Lopez of Cal State East Bay, Kylie Huerta of Hawaii Pacific and Ariel Marsh of Cal Poly Pomona, forward Farrah Shokoor of UC San Diego and center Darsha Burnside of California Baptist. Marsh was a second team selection for the second year in a row.

Players selected to the region first team will now be listed on the Daktronics All-American national ballot. The All-American team will be announced Monday, March 23.

The D2SIDA All-America women's basketball team is sponsored by the Division II Conference Commissioners Association and Daktronics, Inc., an acknowledged world leader in scoring, timing and programmable display systems for virtually every sport at every level of competition.
