Phoenix looks to end streak against Patriots

Cumberland enters Thursday's contest at the University of the Cumberlands with a 12-game losing streak to the Patriots dating to the 2000-01 season, with seven of the 12 defeats by eight points or less. The Cumberlands has won 15 of the last 17 contests between the two teams dating to the 1998-99 campaign. CU has dropped all six contests since rejoining the Mid-South Conference, with the six losses by a combined 40 points. UC won both meetings last season by 12 points (62-50 in Williamsburg, 64-52 in Lebanon) and posted three-point victories in both outings in 2014 (55-52 [OT], 61-58) and one contest in 2013 (75-72, other game was 69-62).

Thompson in line for win No. 300

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson entered the 2015-16 season with an overall coaching record of 289-230 in 18 seasons as a head coach. The Phoenix stand 8-8 so far in 2015-16, putting the Woodbury, Ga., native just three wins for the 300 plateau. Thompson spent four years as head coach at Motlow State Community Col-

Injuries sidelining key players

Cumberland has already lost two players to season-ending injuries as well as 17 other missed contests by three players due to ailments. Juniors Telvin Wilkerson (knee) and Uros Benacek (back) have been lost for the season. Junior Jamonte Graham strained a hamstring during the November 4 matchup with Oakwood University and played just one minute at Columbia College [MO]. He missed all but two minutes in the next 10 games, a major blow to the club's depth at point guard. Freshman Will Shelton missed four games from Nov. 14-24 with a concussion, while junior DeQuan Bond battled a quad injury from the first week of the season until December, missing four total contests and playing limited minutes in two others.

Cumberland Five

- ◆ Senior guard Mark Brown is the club's leading scorer heading into Thursday's contest at the University of the Cumberlands. The Nashville, Tenn., native has scored in double figures in 10 outings this season while shooting 37 percent from 3-point range. He netted 18 points in the first meeting with Martin Methodist, posted 16 and 14 points in the two outings versus Freed-Hardeman and collected 15 points against both Bethel University and Dalton State College. Brown also leads the remaining players in rebounds with 5.5 per outing, including a season-best 10 at Freed-Hardeman on November 17.
- ◆ Junior Marquel Hickerson's consistent play has returned after an injury-plagued 2014-15 campaign. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native has netted double figures in eight of the last 12 outings, including 21 points at Lindsey Wilson, 24 versus St. Catharine College and 18 against Campbellsville University. He ranks third in the Mid-South Conference with 4.75 assists per game, with six in both meetings with Martin Methodist and seven at Lindsey Wilson. Hickerson is also averaging a career-best 5.4 rebounds per game all while playing 34.2 minutes per outing, though his minutes have been reduced in recent games thanks to the return of backup point guard Jamonte Graham.

- ◆ Junior Ronell Abaekobe has started nine of the last 10 contests, averaging 12.2 points while shooting 50 percent (13-for-26) from 3-point range during that stretch. The Los Angeles, Calif., native posted 20 points and 12 rebounds at Freed-Hardeman and netted 20 points versus Fisk University. He added 17 points against Bethel University and 14 versus Wilberforce University. Abaekobe has raised his season scoring average to 9.8 points, third-best on the club, along with 4.8 rebounds per game.
- ◆ Freshman Will Shelton entered the season as a player to watch and has delivered on that promise when healthy. The Savannah, Tenn., native has netted double-digits in five of 12 games this year, including 22 points versus William Woods, 15 points against Campbellsville University and 19 points versus Bethel University. He missed four outings in the middle of November with a concussion and in the last four games since returning to the starting lineup has averaged 12.3 points and 5.8 boards. He is posting 8.8 points and 4.8 rebounds per game for the season.
- ◆ Junior DeQuan Bond averages 5.3 points and 3.4 rebounds despite playing on the interior against much taller (and in many cases) more physically imposing players. Bond can step outside to shoot the three (42 percent this season) and has started eight of 12 games in 2015-16 and 30 times in his Cumberland career.

Graham's health makes big difference

Junior Jamonte Graham made an immediate impact for Cumberland in the season-opener at Martin Methodist, posting 13 of his 16 points in the second half in a 68-66 victory. The Nashville, Tenn., native added 12 points against Oakwood University two nights later but also injured his hamstring during the contest. He started at Columbia College [MO] two days after that but lasted just one minute, re-injuring the hamstring. Graham missed nine of the next 10 games, playing just two minutes at Freed-Hardeman. He played in the final three contests before Christmas, posting 16 points versus Wilberforce University in the final outing before the break. In his absence, Cumberland was just 4-7 and junior Marquel Hickerson averaged 35.9 minutes per game with no other primary ball-handler available.

Johnson can lend a hand

Junior Cameron Johnson spent the last two seasons as part of the program at Tennessee State University but sat out his first semester at Cumberland. The Chicago, Ill., native hit a pair of 3-pointers and scored 12 points in 26 minutes in his first action of the year in an 89-80 victory over Bethel University on December 15. He added seven points in 22 minutes versus Wilberforce University just before the break and has played in three games overall.

Tidbits

Cumberland has averaged 15.0 turnovers per game while forcing just 10.9, ranking last in the Mid-South Conference in turnover margin. CU has posted 18 or more miscues in a game six times this season but just once in the last eight outings ... The Phoenix rank next-to-last in the league in scoring margin, registering 71.4 points per outing compared to 74.3 for opponents ... Cumberland's eight wins this season have all come by single digits (2, 4, 9, 7, 6, 2, 9, 7 points), with CU outscoring its opponents by just 45 total points in the eight victories. On the other end of the spectrum, the club's eight losses have come by a combined 93 points, with five of those by single digits (8, 9, 4, 6, 4 points). That makes the Phoenix 8-5 in games decided by 10 points or less in 2015-16.

Brown named Mid-South Player of the Week

Mark Brown earned Mid-South Conference Player of the Week honors on November 9 for his performance during the season's opening week. Brown led CU in victories over 11th-ranked Martin Methodist, William Woods and Oakwood University. CU's lone loss came at the hands of 16th-ranked Columbia College [MO]. The Nashville, Tenn., native posted 18 points in the season-opener at Martin Methodist and hit five 3-pointers while netting 19 points against Oakwood. He finished the week with 17 points versus William Woods. The senior averaged 14.8 and 6.3 rebounds per game while shooting 40 percent (12-for-30) from beyond the arc.

Nash garners All-Tournament accolades

Cedric Nash earned All-Tournament honors for his performance in two outings at the Columbia Classic in the season's first weekend. The junior registered 14 points and five rebounds against host Columbia College [MO] and netted 12 points with five boards versus William Woods. He made 9-of-23 shots from the field and 8-of-9 at the foul line in the two contests.

newcomers, head coach Lonnie Thompson put together a tough schedule in the first two months of the 2015-16 campaign. Cumberland has played seven ranked teams in 16 outings this season, posting a 2-5 record. CU knocked off No. 11 Martin Methodist, 68-66, to open the year and defeated 18th-ranked Campbellsville University, 75-73, on December 5. MMC defeated CU the following week in Lebanon, 81-73, and the Phoenix dropped a 78-54 decision to 16th-ranked Columbia College [MO] on the road. Cumberland lost twice to ninth-ranked Freed-Hardeman in a span of seven days – 81-59 in Henderson and 77-61 in Lebanon – and dropped a 78-74 decision at No. 9 Dalton State College just before Christmas.

Roster gutted at semester break

Cumberland began the 2015-16 campaign with eight newcomers, including junior college players Devarus Craig (Odessa JC), Delaryn Dodd (Jackson State CC) and Williams Baptist transfer Cedric Nash, but all three forwards were deemed academically ineligible at the semester break, leaving CU with just eight healthy players currently, all guards. Craig was the team's leading scorer (12.3) and rebounder (6.8) combined for 13.4 points and 8.9 boards per outing. With season-ending injuries to Telvin Wilkerson (knee) and Uros Benacek (back), Cumberland heads into the meat of its schedule short-handed to say the least.

Bulldogs picked seventh in Mid-South Preseason Coaches' Poll

Cumberland men's basketball was picked seventh in the 2015-16 Mid-South Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by conference officials in October. CU returns two starters and five letterwinners from last season's club that finished 9-21 overall. Fourteenth-year head coach Lonnie Thompson also welcomes eight newcomers in 2015-16. Senior Telvin Wilkerson is the team's leading returning scorer with 7.9 points per game, while junior Marquel Hickerson averaged 7.3 points and junior Uros Benacek shot 48 percent from 3-point range. Newcomers Ronell Abaekobe, Mark Brown, Delaryn Dodd, Cedric Nash and Devarus Craig will add depth to the squad as well. Cumberland collected 20 points and is slated just in front of Shawnee State (17) and St. Catharine College (9). The University of Pikeville was selected to repeat as conference champion, registering four first-place votes along with Georgetown College. Campbellsville University had the last of the first-place votes.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 14th season at Cumberland and his 18th year as a head coach.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history as a four-year program. Cumberland made back-to-back appearances in the NAIA National Championships in 2008 and 2009, the only teams in program annals to make consecutive trips to the national tournament.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 213-187 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 289-230 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State.

In his second season as head coach at Cumberland, Thompson led the Bulldogs to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. CU won its only TranSouth Conference regular season championship and Thompson was a unanimous selection as Coach of the Year. He also captured his 100th career victory as a head coach during that campaign, which included the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round. The 2008-09 squad finished 25-6 overall, reaching the national tournament for the second consecutive season. His 2011-12 team posted a 22-9 mark, just missing out on the national tourney again.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Thompson and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson re-
