Cumberland faces Campbellsville on road
 Cumberland plays its final regular season road game of the season Saturday at Campbellsville University. The Tigers leads the all-time series, 12-8, since 1998-99, but Cumberland snapped a five-game losing streak against Campbellsville with a 75-73 win at home in December. In that contest Will Shelton scored eight of the final 11 points of the game and netted 15 total for CU. Cumberland trailed by five with five minutes to play after Rob Robinson's 3-pointer from the corner for the Tigers, but DeQuan Bond answered with a triple of his own. Shelton's layup with 3:23 remaining started an 11-4 run to end the game for the home team. Mark Brown's 3-pointer from the wing with 36.9 seconds remaining tied the game at 73, part of a 12-point effort for Brown.

Thompson posts win No. 300
 Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson posted his 300th career coaching victory in Thursday's 70-55 win at St. Catharine College. The Woodbury, Ga., native has spent 14 seasons at the helm of National Tournament three times during his tenure at Cumberland, including a trip to the Round of 16 in 2004 and first-round exits in 2008 and 2009. He has posted four 20-win seasons at CU and six campaigns with at least 18 victories. He posted his 100th career win on January 15, 2004, and his 200th career victory on February 19, 2009.

Cumberland Five

- ◆ Junior Marquel Hickerson has posted double figures in seven straight contests and 14 of the last 18 outings. He netted 27 points at the University of Pikeville and registered 26 at Shawnee State with a 3-pointer to force double overtime and a banked-in 10-footer at the buzzer for the win in January. The Tullahoma, Tenn., native made 10-of-19 shots overall with four 3-pointers at Pikeville and hit 11-of-25 with four more triples at Shawnee State. He recorded 23 points versus Life University, his fifth 20-plus point outing of the season (all against Mid-South opponents), and added 16 points, nine rebounds and four assists against Lindsey Wilson. Hickerson is averaging a team-leading 13.1 points per game this season and ranks fourth in the Mid-South Conference with 3.81 assists per game, with six in both meetings with Martin Methodist and seven at Lindsey Wilson. Hickerson also leads the club with 5.8 rebounds per game, a career-best, all while playing 34.4 minutes per outing.
- ◆ Senior guard Mark Brown ranks second on the squad in scoring with 12.8 points per game, netting double figures in 10 of the last 14 contests overall. The Nashville, Tenn., native has scored in double figures 17 times this season (tops on the club) while shooting 37 percent from 3-point range. He netted 18 points in the first meeting with Martin Methodist, posted 16 and 14 points in the two outings versus Freed-Hardeman and collected 15 points against both Bethel University and Dalton State College.

Brown made four trifectas in the first half at the University of Pikeville and three in his 18-point effort at Georgetown College last month. He posted a season-high 20 points at Shawnee State with five 3-pointers and hit five more triples versus Life University. The 6-foot-3 guard has made at least three 3-pointers in 16-of-26 contests this season and has nine games with at least four triples. Brown ranks third on the club in rebounds with 5.2 per outing, including a season-best 10 at Freed-Hardeman on November 17.

- ◆ Junior Cameron Johnson spent the last two seasons as part of the program at Tennessee State University and sat out his first semester at Cumberland. The Chicago, Ill., native hit a pair of 3-pointers and scored 12 points in 26 minutes in his first action of the year in an 89-80 victory over Bethel University in December. He netted 11 of his 13 points in the second half at the University of Pikeville, helping Cumberland nearly upset the Bears. The 6-foot-1 guard was a major factor in CU's double-overtime win at Shawnee State, posting 20 points on 6-of-7 shooting overall and connecting on 8-of-10 at the foul line. He posted 19 points on 8-of-11 shooting versus Life University at home and added 16 points on the road versus the Running Eagles. Johnson registered a team-high 14 points at home against Shawnee State on 6-of-8 shooting. He is averaging 10.2 points and 3.8 rebounds in 25.5 minutes over 13 games this season and has started the last six contests overall.

- ◆ Freshman Will Shelton has scored in double figures in six of the last eight games and 10 of the last 14 contests overall. The Savannah, Tenn., native is shooting 48 percent (44-for-91) from the field in the last eight outings, averaging a 14.5 points during that stretch. He posted 20 points at Georgetown College and finished with 13 points and nine rebounds at Shawnee State. The 6-foot-4 guard added 19 points versus Life University and registered a career-best 24 points to go with eight boards against Lindsey Wilson. Shelton collected 19 points and nine rebounds in Thursday's win at St. Catharine College, both team-highs, and recorded 15 points against Campbellsville University and 19 points versus Bethel University earlier in the season. He is posting 10.6 points and 4.9 rebounds per game for the season in 22 contests, missing four in November with a concussion.

♦ Junior DeQuan Bond averages 5.4 points and 4.0 rebounds despite playing on the interior against much taller (and in many cases) more physically imposing players. Bond can step outside to shoot the three (38 percent this season) and has started 18 of 22 games in 2015-16 and 40 times in his Cumberland career. He posted one of the best games of his career at Georgetown College last month, netting 14 points with a career-high nine rebounds, hitting 5-of-11 shots and 3-for-4 at the foul line. Bond added 10 points with a pair of 3-pointers in last Thursday's loss to Shawnee State as well.

Dodd returns after missing six games

Junior Delaryn Dodd missed the first six games of the New Year because of academic issues but returned at Life University on February 4, contributing two points and six rebounds in 15 minutes. The Memphis, Tenn., native played two of his best games of the season in December, posting 12 points and 11 rebounds versus Bethel University and 17 points and 11 boards at Dalton State College. He grabbed 10 rebounds against Campbellsville University and 12 boards versus Wilberforce University, part of four straight outings with double-digit caroms. The 6-foot-6 forward also netted 13 points earlier in the season against William Woods. Dodd is averaging 6.0 points and 5.5 rebounds in 20 contests this season.

Graham's health makes big difference

Junior Jamonte Graham made an immediate impact for Cumberland in the season-opener at 11th-ranked Martin Methodist, posting 13 of his 16 points in the second half in a 68-66 victory. The Nashville, Tenn., native added 12 points against Oakwood University two nights later but also injured his hamstring during the contest. He started at Columbia College [MO] but lasted just one minute, re-injuring the hamstring. Graham missed nine of the next 10 games, playing just two minutes at Freed-Hardeman. He played in the last three contests before Christmas, posting 16 points versus Wilberforce University in the final outing before the break but re-injured the hamstring at the University of the Cumberlands on January 7. In his absence, Cumberland is just 5-11 and junior Marquel Hickerson averaged 36.1 minutes per game with no other primary ballhandler available. Graham returned versus Lindsey Wilson on Jan. 28, collecting four points, a season-high eight rebounds and three assists in 24 minutes off the bench. He posted six points, four boards and four assists in last Thursday's loss to Shawnee State, hitting a pair of 3-pointers.

Tidbits

Cumberland has averaged 14.7 turnovers per game while forcing just 10.7, ranking last in the Mid-South Conference in turnover margin. CU posted 15 or more miscues seven times in the first 10 games this season but only five times in the last 16 outings. Unfortunately three of those occurrences have come in the last four games, including 19 against St. Catharine College, 16 versus Shawnee State and 17 at Life University ... The Phoenix rank next-to-last in the league in scoring margin, registering 72.0 points per outing compared to 76.9 for opponents ... Cumberland's first nine wins this season all came by single digits (2, 4, 9, 7, 6, 2, 9, 7, 1 points), with CU outscoring its opponents by just 75 total points in the 11 victories. On the other end of the spectrum, the club's 15 losses have come by a combined 203 points, with eight of those by single digits (8, 9, 4, 6, 4, 8, 4, 7 points). That makes the Phoenix 9-8 in games decided by 10 points or less in 2015-16.

Brown named Mid-South Player of the Week

Mark Brown earned Mid-South Conference Player of the Week honors on November 9 for his performances during the season's opening week. Brown led CU in victories over 11th-ranked Martin Methodist, William Woods and Oakwood University. CU's lone loss came at the hands of 16th-ranked Columbia College [MO]. The Nashville, Tenn., native posted 18 points in the season-opener at Martin Methodist and hit five 3-pointers while netting 19 points against Oakwood. He finished the week with 17 points versus William Woods. The senior averaged 14.8 and 6.3 rebounds per game while shooting 40 percent (12-for-30) from beyond the arc.

Roster gutted at semester break

Cumberland began the 2015-16 campaign with eight newcomers, including junior college players Devarus Craig (Odessa JC) and Delaryn Dodd (Jackson State CC) and Williams Baptist transfer Cedric Nash, but Craig and Nash were deemed academically ineligible at the semester break and Dodd missed six games because of academic issues. Craig was the team's leading scorer (12.3) and rebounder (6.8) at the time while Dodd and Nash combined for 13.4 points and 8.9 boards per outing. With season-ending injuries to Telvin Wilkerson (knee) and Uros Benacek (back), Cumberland has played the meat of its schedule short-handed to say the least.

Injuries sidelining key players

Cumberland has already lost two players to season-ending injuries as well as 21 other missed contests by three players due to ailments. Senior Telvin Wilkerson (knee) and junior Uros Benacek (back) have been lost for the season. Junior Jamonte Graham strained a hamstring during the November 4 matchup with Oakwood University and played just one minute at Columbia College [MO]. He missed all but two minutes in the next 10 games, a major blow to the club's depth at point guard. Graham reinjured the hamstring at the University of the Columbians on January 7 and missed four games before returning versus Lindsey Wilson. Freshman Will Shelton missed four games from Nov. 14-24 with a concussion, while junior DeQuan Bond battled a quad injury from the first week of the season until December, missing four total contests and playing limited minutes in two others.

Phoenix picked seventh in Mid-South Preseason Coaches' Poll

Cumberland men's basketball was picked seventh in the 2015-16 Mid-South Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll, as announced by conference officials in October. CU returns two starters and five letterwinners from last season's club that finished 9-21 overall. Fourteenth-year head coach Lonnie Thompson also welcomes eight newcomers in 2015-16. Senior Telvin Wilkerson is the team's leading returning scorer with 7.9 points per game, while junior Marquel Hickerson averaged 7.3 points and junior Uros Benacek shot 48 percent from 3-point range.

Mark Brown	1
Devarus Craig	1

Newcomers Ronell Abaekobe, Mark Brown, Delaryn Dodd, Cedric Nash and Devarus Craig will add depth to the squad as well. Cumberland collected 20 points and is slated just in front of Shawnee State (17) and St. Catharine College (9). The University of Pikeville was selected to repeat as conference champion, registering four first-place votes along with Georgetown College. Campbellsville University had the last of the first-place votes.

Head Coach Lonnie Thompson

Cumberland's Lonnie Thompson begins his 14th season at Cumberland and his 18th year as a head coach.

Thompson's program has enjoyed unprecedented success, with three national tournament appearances – the only appearances in school history as a four-year program. Cumberland made back-to-back appearances in the NAIA National Championships in 2008 and 2009, the only teams in program annals to make consecutive trips to the national tournament.

The Woodbury, Ga., native has posted a 213-187 mark at Cumberland with one TranSouth Conference regular season championship and is 289-230 overall as a head coach. Thompson posted his 200th career head coaching victory on February 19, 2009, against Lambuth University in just his 11th year as a head coach.

Thompson came to CU from Motlow State Community College in Tullahoma, Tenn., where he led the Bucks to back-to-back TJC-CAA Eastern Division Championships. He was named TJCCAA Eastern Division Coach of the Year three times at Motlow State.

In his second season as head coach at Cumberland, Thompson led the Phoenix to the most wins in school history with a 28-6 record. CU won its only TranSouth Conference regular season championship and Thompson was a unanimous selection as Coach of the Year. He also captured his 100th career victory as a head coach during that campaign, which included the school's first-ever appearance at the NAIA National Tournament in Kansas City, Mo., where they were defeated in the Round of 16.

Cumberland posted a 21-12 overall mark in 2007-08 and made its second appearance in the NAIA National Tournament, falling to Oklahoma City in the first round. The 2008-09 squad finished 25-6 overall, reaching the national tournament for the second consecutive season. His 2011-12 team posted a 22-9 mark, just missing out on the national tourney again.

Thompson has a depth of coaching experience at all levels of college basketball, serving as an assistant coach at South Alabama, Middle Tennessee, Tennessee State, Creighton and Odessa Junior College, where he coached former NBA All-Star Larry Johnson.

Thompson and his wife, Felicia, have two sons, Destin and Darius, and one daughter, Devin, and the family resides in Murfreesboro, Tenn. Thompson received his bachelor's from Middle Tennessee in 1986 and returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach under David Farrar in the mid-90's.
