CUMBERLAND 6, ST. THOMAS 34

Cumberland (0-2) produced 300 yards of total offense, 174 passing and 124 rushing. Cumberland struggled on third down just converting 2-of-13 tries while giving the ball away three times.

St. Thomas (3-0) took advantage of the takeaways turning them into points each time. The Bobcats had a big second quarter scoring 24 points in the span to take the momentum of the game. Quarterback Tyler Thomas completed 21-of-32 passes for 217 yards and two touchdowns. Rontavious Farmer ran the ball 16 times for 112 yards and two scores.

Dylan Carpenter completed 19-of-31 passes for 174 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Kaleb Witherspoon picked up the most rushing yards for Cumberland with 43 on four touches and added five catches for 27 yards. Jaylen Taylor made seven catches for 51 yards and BJ Nelson made one catch for 32 yards and a touchdown.

St. Thomas jumped on the scoreboard early scoring on their first possession. Alejandro Prado capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal. After a couple of back-

Just before the half ended, the Bobcats added one more score on a nine-play 49-yard drive. Thomas threw a dime to Colton Weismore and St. Thomas took a 27-0 lead into halftime.

St. Thomas opened up the second half with a 93-yard touchdown drive capped by Thomas' second touchdown pass to Joshua Beneby to make the score 34-0.

Cumberland's defense tightened up the remainder of the game and did not allow another score.

The Phoenix scored the only points of the game after forcing a three-and-out. Dylan Carpenter threw a touchdown pass to BJ Nelson for 34 yards. The point-after try was missed to make the score 34-6.

Cumberland had another opportunity to put points on the board, but was stuffed on a fourth-down try on the St. Thomas 28-yard line and the Bobcats were able to run out the clock and get the win.

HEAD COACH TIM MATHIS

Fourth Season
Georgia Southern, 1996

Cumberland University Director of Athletics Ron Pavan announced the hiring of Tim Mathis as head coach for the Phoenix on January 22, 2018. He became the sixth head coach since Cumberland restarted the football program in 1990. Mathis is entering his fourth season as the Phoenix Head Coach.

In Mathis' first season at Cumberland, he led the Phoenix to a 5-6 (MSC 3-3) record. The Phoenix upset the number 4 ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders 24-21 at home on Senior Day. The offense averaged 20.0 points per game while averaging 324.9 total yards per game.

In 2019, Mathis, second season as head coach, the team finished with a 5-5 record. After wins in the first three games of the season, the NAIA ranked Cumberland as the no. 23 team in the country. His triple option offense had the Phoenix running game going to the tune of 185 yards per game which was the 22nd best mark in the NAIA.

Mathis is 12-16 in his first three seasons at Cumberland. This past season, COVID shortened season played in the spring, Cumberland went 2-5 all against league opponents. Cumberland produced their first running back All-American in program history as Treyton Sheppard became the first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012.

Mathis served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons at Shorter University when the Hawks started their program in the NAIA in 2005. He was the team's offensive coordinator his last five years at Shorter, including during the transition to NCAA Division II.

Mathis was a member of the Shorter staff for the inaugural season in 2005 and served five years as the team's offensive line coach. The Hawks led the NAIA in rushing, won the Mid-South Conference championship and earned the program's first-ever postseason playoff berth in 2008. Two players earned All-America honors and a dozen offensive linemen were named All-Mid-South during those five seasons.

He moved into the role of offensive coordinator from 2010-14, working with running backs for two seasons and quarterbacks and fullbacks the final three. Shorter ranked second nationally in rushing at 310.9 yards per game and posted 30.5 points per contest in 2010 and ranked third in the country in rushing (271.9), averaging 30.0 points per outing in 2011, the program's last in the NAIA.

In 2012, the first transition year to Division II, the Hawks ranked ninth nationally in rushing at 268.5 yards per game and ranked third the Gulf South Conference in rushing (227.9) and second in time of possession.

Shorter ranked third in total offense in 2013, with fullback Bradley Moon leading the GSC and ranking sixth in rushing yards and quarterback Eric Dodson ranking fifth in the conference in total offense.

Shorter ranked third in the Gulf South and 22nd nationally in rushing in 2014 with 225.3 yards per contest.

Mathis was the head coach the last two seasons at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga., posting a 2-8 record in 2016 with freshmen and sophomores making up 74 percent of the roster. He registered a 4-6 mark in 2017 with the Knights.

Prior to his time at Shorter, Mathis worked four years at Trion City Schools in Trion, Ga., coaching the offensive line all four seasons as well as serving as defensive coordinator for two years. He was also the wrestling coach for two years and the golf coach for two seasons.

Mathis earned his bachelor's in History with a minor in Political Science from Georgia Southern in 1996 and received his master's in Leadership from Shorter in 2010. He is married to the former Mesha Layman and the couple has two children - Abby and Hunter.
