CUMBERLAND 9, PIKEVILLE 14

The loss is the Phoenix's third-straight as the team falls to 3-6 on the season and 2-4 in Mid-South Conference play. The Phoenix dominated control of the ball, holding on to it for nearly 40 minutes of game time, but the offense couldn't put it in the endzone, turning the ball over on downs five times along with three takeaways by the Bears defense.

The offense totaled 271 yards with 179 coming on the ground. CU used eight different ball carriers led by sophomore Treyton Sheppard with 18 rushes for 62 yards. Senior James Christian carried the ball 13 times for 54 yards and Nick Burge added eight rushes for 44 yards. Senior Kaleb Witherspoon ran it four times for 24 yards.

Cumberland totaled just 92 yards through the air. Freshman quarterback Dylan Carpenter completed 12-of-25 passes for 80 yards with one touchdown and one interception. Styles Corder hauled in his first touchdown as a Phoenix in the first quarter for the lone Cumberland touchdown of the game. Witherspoon led the team in receiving with 36 yards on four catches.

The Cumberland defense played well enough to get the victory holding Pikeville to just 14 points and 254 yards of offense. Cumberland forced two takeaways with an interception and a fumble while forcing the Bears to punt six times.

The Bears relied heavily on their passing game as Cumberland allowed just 21 rushing yards in the game. Quarterback Lee Kirkland completed 18-of-34 passes for 233 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Kirkland found Randy Ramanan five times for 82 yards and one score. Alexander Shelton totaled 57 receiving yards and D'Andre Stafford caught five passes for 52 yards and one touchdown.

Pikeville scored on the opening drive as Kirkland hit Stafford for 15-yards to cap an 11-play 61 yard drive.

The Phoenix responded with a long 17-play drive that ended in an eight-yard touchdown by Styles Corder. The point after try misses wide right. Cumberland chewed up nearly the rest of the first quarter on the drive to trail 7-6 at the end of the first.

After the defense forced a three-and-out, Cumberland drove to the Pikeville side of the field before an errant pass by Carpenter was picked off. The Cumberland defense stood strong and forced the Bears to punt it back.

Two quick drives and a short punt gave Cumberland a short field to work with before the half closed. Cumberland drove it 20 yards down the field to the Bears 31-yard line, but Pikeville stuffed a Sheppard rush on fourth and short to take over.

In the final second of the half, Kirkland found Bralin Barton for a 35-yard score, but the play was called back due to holding. The Bears threw one last heave towards the end zone and Prentiss Sumerall picked it off. Sumerall found some space, but was chased down after taking 59 yards. The Bears took a 7-6 lead into halftime.

Out of the break, Cumberland again drove it down the field to the Pikeville 24-yard line. On a fourth and one play, Cumberland decided to go for it and Carpenter fumbled the snap on a sneak attempt. He recovered it, but could not get across the yard to gain and CU turned it over to UPike.

Cumberland forced a three-and-out the next drive, after punting issues in the first half, the Bears swapped punters. A low line drive punt caught by Ian Hafner was taking all the way to Pikeville's 29-yard line. The Pikeville defense stood tall and forced a takeaway as Jaylen Taylor put the ball on the ground on fourth and one forcing another turnover in Pikeville territory.

At the end of the third, Pikeville finally moved the ball down field, converting on three third down plays to get to the Cumberland half of the field. Kirkland threw a 47-yard touchdown pass to Ramanan on a busted coverage to give the Bears a 14-6 lead.

Hafner again had a big return on the ensuing kickoff to start the drive in plus territory for Cumberland. CU could just manage 19 yards, but Hunter Mathis hit a career-long 37 yard field goal to cut the deficit to 14-9.

The defense had another quick stint forcing Pikeville to punt after just five plays. Starting at their own 20-yard line, the Phoenix took it deep into Bears territory before being faced with a fourth down and three. CU tried to get Corder outside the box on a jet sweep, but the Bears stuffed the play and took over.

Cumberland forced a fumble four plays later to give the Phoenix life, but one last drive was spoiled as Pikeville had one more fourth down stop allowing the Bears to pick up their first conference win and move to 3-6 on the season.

HEAD COACH TIM MATHIS

Fourth Season
Georgia Southern, 1996

Cumberland University Director of Athletics Ron Pavan announced the hiring of Tim Mathis as head coach for the Phoenix on January 22, 2018. He became the sixth head coach since Cumberland restarted the football program in 1990. Mathis is entering his fourth season as the Phoenix Head Coach.

In Mathis' first season at Cumberland, he led the Phoenix to a 5-6 (MSC 3-3) record. The Phoenix upset the number 4 ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders 24-21 at home on Senior Day. The offense averaged 20.0 points per game while averaging 324.9 total yards per game.

In 2019, Mathis, second season as head coach, the team finished with a 5-5 record. After wins in the first three games of the season, the NAIA ranked Cumberland as the no. 23 team in the country. His triple option offense had the Phoenix running game going to the tune of 185 yards per game which was the 22nd best mark in the NAIA.

Mathis is 12-16 in his first three seasons at Cumberland. This past season, COVID shortened season played in the spring, Cumberland went 2-5 all against league opponents. Cumberland produced their first running back All-American in program history as Treyton Sheppard became the first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012.

Mathis served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons at Shorter University when the Hawks started their program in the NAIA in 2005. He was the team's offensive coordinator his last five years at Shorter, including during the transition to NCAA Division II.

Mathis was a member of the Shorter staff for the inaugural season in 2005 and served five years as the team's offensive line coach. The Hawks led the NAIA in rushing, won the Mid-South Conference championship and earned the program's first-ever postseason playoff berth in 2008. Two players earned All-America honors and a dozen offensive linemen were named All-Mid-South during those five seasons.

He moved into the role of offensive coordinator from 2010-14, working with running backs for two seasons and quarterbacks and fullbacks the final three. Shorter ranked second nationally in rushing at 310.9 yards per game and posted 30.5 points per contest in 2010 and ranked third in the country in rushing (271.9), averaging 30.0 points per outing in 2011, the program's last in the NAIA.

In 2012, the first transition year to Division II, the Hawks ranked ninth nationally in rushing at 268.5 yards per game and ranked third the Gulf South Conference in rushing (227.9) and second in time of possession.

Shorter ranked third in total offense in 2013, with fullback Bradley Moon leading the GSC and ranking sixth in rushing yards and quarterback Eric Dodson ranking fifth in the conference in total offense.

Shorter ranked third in the Gulf South and 22nd nationally in rushing in 2014 with 225.3 yards per contest.

Mathis was the head coach the last two seasons at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga., posting a 2-8 record in 2016 with freshmen and sophomores making up 74 percent of the roster. He registered a 4-6 mark in 2017 with the Knights.

Prior to his time at Shorter, Mathis worked four years at Trion City Schools in Trion, Ga., coaching the offensive line all four seasons as well as serving as defensive coordinator for two years. He was also the wrestling coach for two years and the golf coach for two seasons.

Mathis earned his bachelor's in History with a minor in Political Science from Georgia Southern in 1996 and received his master's in Leadership from Shorter in 2010. He is married to the former Meshia Layman and the couple has two children - Abby and Hunter.
