CUMBERLAND 3, THOMAS MORE 10

On a cold and wet night, offense was hard to come by for either side as Thomas More edges Cumberland 10-3 Saturday evening.

Cumberland (3-5, 2-3 MSC) could not get the ground game established and were forced into taking 10 punts in the match. The Phoenix produced just 239 yards of total offense, 179 came through the air. Cumberland made into the redzone just one time and came away with three punts.

The Phoenix held the Thomas More (4-4, 3-2 MSC) offense to 291 yards of offense. Cumberland was especially good on third down holding the Saints to 4-of-15 third down conversions. Thomas More was forced into nine punts, but their punter pinned CU inside the 20-yard line three times forcing Cumberland into long drives.

Dylan Carpenter completed 21-of-35 passes, the most pass attempts and completions of his career, for 171 yards, most of that coming in the fourth quarter. He was intercepted one time on a ball that squeaked off the hands of Jaylen Taylor. Styles Corder was his favorite target on the night as Corder racked up a career-high eight receptions for 76 yards. Taylor caught four passes for 30 yards and Ian Hafner caught four for 21 yards.

CU struggled rushing the ball posting just 60 yards on 30 carries. All-American running back Treylon Sheppard had 13

Both teams offenses were idle in the second quarter and the Saints took a 3-0 lead into half.

In the third quarter, Thomas More extended the lead to 10-0 after a 26-yard field goal from Alexander Haley.

Cumberland rallied from the point on to fight back to get in the game. The Phoenix started a drive on their 17-yard line and drove down the field to allow Hunter Mathis to kick a career-long 33-yard field goal.

The Phoenix defense got the ball back quickly to the offense with 2:23 to play. Cumberland drove down the field all the way to the Thomas More 28-yard line in five plays and in less than a minute. Carpenter then threaded a ball over the middle to Taylor that went off of his hands and was intercepted.

Cumberland forced a three-and-out, but with seven second left, the quarterback, Espinosa skied a punt that Hafner fair caught. The clock expired and after a brief argument from the Cumberland sideline that their should be one second left, the referees called the game over and Thomas More won 10-3.

HEAD COACH TIM MATHIS

Fourth Season
Georgia Southern, 1996

Cumberland University Director of Athletics Ron Pavan announced the hiring of Tim Mathis as head coach for the Phoenix on January 22, 2018. He became the sixth head coach since Cumberland restarted the football program in 1990. Mathis is entering his fourth season as the Phoenix Head Coach.

In Mathis' first season at Cumberland, he led the Phoenix to a 5-6 (MSC 3-3) record. The Phoenix upset the number 4 ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders 24-21 at home on Senior Day. The offense averaged 20.0 points per game while averaging 324.9 total yards per game.

In 2019, Mathis, second season as head coach, the team finished with a 5-5 record. After wins in the first three games of the season, the NAIA ranked Cumberland as the no. 23 team in the country. His triple option offense had the Phoenix running game going to the tune of 185 yards per game which was the 22nd best mark in the NAIA.

Mathis is 12-16 in his first three seasons at Cumberland. This past season, COVID shortened season played in the spring, Cumberland went 2-5 all against league opponents. Cumberland produced their first running back All-American in program history as Treyton Sheppard became the first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012.

Mathis served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons at Shorter University when the Hawks started their program in the NAIA in 2005. He was the team's offensive coordinator his last five years at Shorter, including during the transition to NCAA Division II.

Mathis was a member of the Shorter staff for the inaugural season in 2005 and served five years as the team's offensive line coach. The Hawks led the NAIA in rushing, won the Mid-South Conference championship and earned the program's first-ever postseason playoff berth in 2008. Two players earned All-America honors and a dozen offensive linemen were named All-Mid-South during those five seasons.

He moved into the role of offensive coordinator from 2010-14, working with running backs for two seasons and quarterbacks and fullbacks the final three. Shorter ranked second nationally in rushing at 310.9 yards per game and posted 30.5 points per contest in 2010 and ranked third in the country in rushing (271.9), averaging 30.0 points per outing in 2011, the program's last in the NAIA.

In 2012, the first transition year to Division II, the Hawks ranked ninth nationally in rushing at 268.5 yards per game and ranked third the Gulf South Conference in rushing (227.9) and second in time of possession.

Shorter ranked third in total offense in 2013, with fullback Bradley Moon leading the GSC and ranking sixth in rushing yards and quarterback Eric Dodson ranking fifth in the conference in total offense.

Shorter ranked third in the Gulf South and 22nd nationally in rushing in 2014 with 225.3 yards per contest.

Mathis was the head coach the last two seasons at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga., posting a 2-8 record in 2016 with freshmen and sophomores making up 74 percent of the roster. He registered a 4-6 mark in 2017 with the Knights.

Prior to his time at Shorter, Mathis worked four years at Trion City Schools in Trion, Ga., coaching the offensive line all four seasons as well as serving as defensive coordinator for two years. He was also the wrestling coach for two years and the golf coach for two seasons.

Mathis earned his bachelor's in History with a minor in Political Science from Georgia Southern in 1996 and received his master's in Leadership from Shorter in 2010. He is married to the former Mesha Layman and the couple has two children - Abby and Hunter.

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE BEARS...

- Regardless of the Bears record, their offense has shown this season that they are truly never out of the game. Last week they put up 38 points against RV Cumberlands at home.
- Lee Kirkland threw for 14 touchdowns to this point although he also struggles with turning the ball over. The quarterback also has ten interceptions on the season.
- The bears also have a shifty back in the backfield. Alex Sanders has 76 carries across five games played. He has taken those carries for 441 yards and four touchdowns with an average of about 5.6 yards per carry.
- Pikeville has a speedy wide-receiver off the edge that could be a problem after giving up big plays to similar players the last two weeks. Alexander Shelton has 14 catches on the year for 268 yards and three touchdowns.
