Cumberland vs Point

The 2022 season is finally here! All teams start out with a clean slate and are eyeing the possibility of reaching the NAIA Play-offs. Cumberland will start the season against Point with a bunch of new faces across both sides of the football. This first time matchup will be a favorable opening game against first-year head coach Trevor Zieders and the Point Skyhawks. Last season, Point gave up 39.3 points per game and allowed nearly 458.6 yards per game. The Skyhawks gave up 221.5 yards on the ground per game which could be big in Cumberland's run heavy offense.

2022 Season Preview

Tomorrow opens up a new season for Cumberland football with several key returners with a slew of newcomers eager to put together a great season.

Head coach Tim Mathis enters his fifth season with Cumberland after a 3-7 season last year, but it is a new year and Cumberland is looking for a strong start to the season. Last season, Cumberland played a tough schedule starting on the road at No. 4 Keiser and then playing nationally ranked St. Thomas at home. The Phoenix started the year 3-3 including an upset victory over No. 21 Cumberlands, but dropped their final four contests of the year.

Cumberland returns a slew of veteran leaders on the team this year including 2020 NAIA All-American running back Treyton Sheppard and 2021 Mid-South Conference Second Team honoree Champ Leddon. The team is excited about the leadership of the upperclassman and how they have helped bring this team together.

"This is probably the closest team we have ever had," Mathis said. "A lot of times in college you have the offense and the defense this year we have Cumberland. It will help on game days for sure when everybody is cheering each other on the sidelines."

"We have a quality bunch of leaders that are older and that will help us. I think all of these guys all believe that we can be a good football team and Key returners coming back for this season on the offensive end are Sheppard, wide receivers Jaylen Taylor and Shaw Niblett. On the line, Logan Bell and Ronaldo Marmolejo anchor the line.

On the defensive side of the ball, CU returns two solid linebackers in Leddon and Travis Woodall. On the edge, Woodall's twin Tanner will be a force this season. In the secondary, Brandon Pace at cornerback and Trevor Griffin.

This season, Cumberland brought in a bunch of new players in transfers and the incoming freshman class.

"The biggest role for the newcomers this year will be on the o-line and d-line. Some of the guys are going to have put in meaningful minutes. In years past, a lot of times we'd just have six guys for the offensive line. This year we are deeper than ever and I think these freshmen will help us a whole bunch."

Mathis is excited with the transfers that are coming in. He says they are a group of guys that will come in and be difference makers on the field.

"We added Corey Johnson at running back and Jarious Johnson at running back and Joe Johnson at tight end. Those guys are good enough to play anywhere in the country. Our running back room is crazy with depth and it doesn't matter who is in there. We have four guys that can start anywhere. Joe Johnson is a difference maker and will be a matchup nightmare because he can split out to receiver as well."

"On the defensive side, Lennon Harris is a grad transfer from Georgetown that's going to help us a bunch because of age and depth. Solomon Maosa is going to be special. All of these guys should be impact play-

Head Coach Tim Mathis

Fifth Season
Georgia Southern, 1996

Cumberland University Director of Athletics Ron Pavan announced the hiring of Tim Mathis as head coach for the Phoenix on January 22, 2018. He became the sixth head coach since Cumberland restarted the football program in 1990. Mathis is entering his fifth season as the Phoenix Head Coach.

Mathis is 15-23 in his first four seasons at Cumberland. This past season, the Phoenix went 3-7. Cumberland started the season 3-3 before dropping their final four games. The team had four selection to the All-Mid-South Conference team including Jace Capps who was named a a Second Team NAIA All-American and a First Team AP All-American.

In a COVID shortened season 2020 season played in the spring of 2021, Cumberland went 2-5 all against league opponents. Cumberland produced their first running back All-American in program history as Treyton Sheppard became the first 1,000-yard rusher since 2012.

In Mathis' first season at Cumberland, he led the Phoenix to a 5-6 (MSC 3-3) record. The Phoenix upset the number 4 ranked Lindsey Wilson Blue Raiders 24-21 at home on Senior Day. The offense averaged 20.0 points per game while averaging 324.9 total yards per game.

Mathis served as an assistant coach for 10 seasons at Shorter University when the Hawks started their program in the NAIA in 2005. He was the team's offensive coordinator during his last five years at Shorter, including during the transition to NCAA Division II.

Mathis was a member of the Shorter staff for the inaugural season in 2005 and served five years as the team's offensive line coach. The Hawks led the NAIA in rushing, won the Mid-South Conference championship and earned the program's first-ever postseason playoff berth in 2008. Two players earned All-America honors and a dozen offensive linemen were named All-Mid-South during those five seasons.

He moved into the role of offensive coordinator from 2010-14, working with running backs for two seasons and quarterbacks and fullbacks the final three. Shorter ranked second nationally in rushing at 310.9 yards per game and posted 30.5 points per contest in 2010 and ranked third in the country in rushing (271.9), averaging 30.0 points per outing in 2011, the program's last in the NAIA.

In 2012, the first transition year to Division II, the Hawks ranked ninth nationally in rushing at 268.5 yards per game and ranked third the Gulf South Conference in rushing (227.9) and second in time of possession. Shorter ranked third in total offense in 2013, with fullback Bradley Moon leading the GSC and ranking sixth in rushing yards and quarterback Eric Dodson ranking fifth in the conference in total offense.

Shorter ranked third in the Gulf South and 22nd nationally in rushing in 2014 with 225.3 yards per contest.

Mathis was the head coach the last two seasons at St. Francis High School in Alpharetta, Ga., posting a 2-8 record in 2016 with freshmen and sophomores making up 74 percent of the roster. He registered a 4-6 mark in 2017 with the Knights.

He also served one season as head coach at Franklin County High School in Eastpoint, Fla., helping the Seahawks break a 23-game losing streak and finishing the season 3-7 overall.

Prior to his time at Shorter, Mathis worked four years at Trion City Schools in Trion, Ga., coaching the offensive line all four seasons as well as serving as defensive coordinator for two years. He was also the wrestling coach for two years and the golf coach for two seasons.

Mathis earned his bachelor's in History with a minor in Political Science from Georgia Southern in 1996 and received his master's in Leadership from Shorter in 2010. He is married to the former Mesha Layman and the couple has two children - Abby and Hunter.
