Phoenix travel to Columbia

Cumberland plays its next-to-last regular season home game Saturday, taking on Shawnee State at Dallas Floyd Phoenix Arena. The Bears won the first meeting this season just nine days ago, 86-83, tying the all-time series at 7-7. Shawnee State has won four of the last six meetings between the two teams. Nine of the 14 contests have been decided by four points or less, including both games last season and last Thursday's game as well, and the average margin of victory in the series is 6.4 points per outing. Only one of the 14 meetings has been decided by more than 13 points.

Close losses keep happening for Phoenix

Cumberland dropped to 2-8 in Mid-South Conference play with last Saturday's 81-72 loss against the University of Pikeville, the team's seventh in Mid-South Conference play by nine points or less (the other was in overtime). Pikeville outscored the Phoenix, 33-14, over the final 11 minutes, erasing a 10-point CU advantage. Cumberland lost 86-83 at Shawnee State on February 7, with CU failing to score over the one at Campbellsville University and at the University of the Cumberlands. Campbellsville won the second meeting with the Phoenix, 76-69, with the Tigers ending the game on a 9-2 run. Cumberland also lost in overtime at Georgetown and by seven points at the University of Pikeville. The club's 13 defeats this season have come by a combined 98 points, including a one-point loss on a last-second shot at Philander Smith and a two-point defeat at Martin Methodist in nonconference action. The close losses are reminiscent of the 2017-18 club that lost 13 games by 10 points or less, 10 of those versus league opponents.

Turnovers heading in right direction for CU

Cumberland averages 15.2 turnovers per game this season but the club has cut almost three miscues per contest off the average over the last three-plus weeks. The Phoenix posted 12 turnovers at the University of the Cumberlands and recorded nine in outings against Campbellsville University and Georgetown College before registering seven at Shawnee State. CU registered nine turnovers versus the University of Pikeville and 12 at Lindsey Wilson, giving the Phoenix 58 (9.7 average) over the last six outings. Cumberland has three outings with 20-plus turnovers and only nine games with less than 15 this season. Teams are averaging 16.3 points (358 total) per game off CU turnovers, including 24 by Blue Mountain and in the first meeting with Philander Smith, 23 versus Life University and 22 in both contests against Oakwood University.

contest averaging 16.4 points and 8.5 rebounds per game through 22 outings this season. The Cleveland, Ohio, native ranks seventh in the Mid-South Conference in points, third in rebounding and seventh in field goal percentage (.519). He posted 23 points and 15 rebounds at Campbellsville University, hitting 10-of-18 shots overall, and followed that with 24 points and seven boards at Georgetown College. Powell registered 16 points and 17 rebounds versus Life University and collected 20 points and nine boards in the second meeting with Georgetown. He scored 26 points on 9-of-13 shooting last Saturday against the University of Pikeville. Powell has posted five double-doubles this season and six double-figure rebounding efforts. He has scored in double-digits 18 times, including 23 points against Tennessee Wesleyan and 27 at Bethel University. His biggest issues have been foul trouble and turnovers, including 11 games with four or more fouls and five disqualifications. He also leads the club with 104 turnovers but ranks second with 42 assists.

◆Senior Tranard Chester has netted double figures 10 times in the last 16 outings. The Lexington, Ky., native exploded for then career-bests of 24 points and 10 rebounds in the January 5 win over Lindsey Wilson, including 18 points in the second half. He collected a career-high 25 points at the University of Pikeville, 21 of those in the second period, and got hot in the second half at home versus Georgetown College, netting 22 of his 24 points with four 3-pointers. Chester also has 14 outings this season with five or more rebounds, including 11 of the last 12 contests, averaging 5.2 caroms per game overall, 14th in the Mid-South Conference. He has recorded 11.0 points per game this season but has increased that total to 14.2 points and 6.3 rebounds over the last 12 outings since moving into the starting lineup.

◆Senior Andrew Rogan ranks second on the club with 13.9 points per game this season while shooting 42 percent (51-for-122) from 3-point range. The Murfreesboro, Tenn., native has recorded 14 double-digit scoring contests, including 27 points with six 3-pointers against Oakwood University and 20 points with four triples versus Tennessee Wesleyan. He added 18 points at Bethel University and made 7-of-8 from 3-point range and finished with 27 points at home versus Fisk University. Rogan struggled in the first four conference games, netting just 31 total points while shooting 4-of-18 (.222) from behind the arc before hitting 5-of-9 from 3-point range for 15 points against Life University and adding 15 points at the University of the Cumberlands. He registered 24 points at Lindsey Wilson on Thursday, just his fifth double figure scoring outing in league play.

♦Sophomore Brandon Levier made his first career start on February 7 at Shawnee State, posting a career-best 11 points on 4-of-7 shooting with two steals in 25 minutes. The Columbia, Tenn., native netted four points in the final three minutes but missed two free throws with 44.0 seconds remaining and CU trailing by a point. He is averaging 2.5 points, 1.2 rebounds and 0.9 assists in 12 contests while playing 13.4 minutes per game this season.

♦Freshman Asher Blum also drew his first start of the year on February 7 at Shawnee State and exploded for a career-high 27 points. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native hit 10-of-18 shots overall with five 3-pointers, adding five rebounds in 36 minutes. He had not played more than 21 minutes in any conference game this season but will see increased action with the season-ending injury to Isaac Stephens. Blum struggled last Saturday against the University of Pikeville, finishing with seven points and three boards in 38 minutes, and contributed six points and five boards at Lindsey Wilson on Thursday. He is posting 4.9 points and 1.8 rebounds in 18 contests, averaging 15.5 minutes per outing.

Walters bumped from starting lineup

Senior Deontay Walters started 10 straight games at point guard from December 14-February 2 with the departures of Jason Williams and Kareem Wright in December. The Cincinnati, Ohio, native averaged just over 20 minutes per game through the first eight contests this season, contributing 6.3 points, 2.8 rebounds and 3.1 assists during that stretch. He recorded 16 points at Fisk University and 12 versus Philander Smith and handed out nine assists against Oakwood University. Walters netted a season-high 18 points and did not have a turnover in the January 5 win over Lindsey Wilson. Walters has struggled over the last eight games, averaging 3.6 points while grabbing just nine total rebounds and hitting 10-of-38 (.263) from the field overall and 0-for-11 from 3-point range. He did not start for the first time since early December on February 7 at Shawnee State but returned to the starting lineup on Thursday at Lindsey Wilson.

Stephens' season ends with injury

Freshman Isaac Stephens started the first 19 contests along with frontline, averaging 8.8 points and 6.2 rebounds with eight double-figure scoring outings. He ranked ninth in the Mid-South Conference in rebounding. The Mt. Juliet, Tenn., native posted his best production of the year at Philander Smith in mid-December, recording 19 points on 8-for-10 shooting with eight rebounds. Stephens added 13 points in both meetings with Oakwood University and collected 17 points versus Blue Mountain College. He grabbed a team-best 13 rebounds against Fisk University, his first double-digit rebounding effort, and registered his best outing in conference play against Life University, collecting 13 points with 10 boards, his first career double-double. He made 6-of-8 shots and grabbed seven offensive rebounds versus the Running Eagles, helping CU tally 18 second-chance points in the victory. Stephens followed that with 14 points and seven rebounds at the University of the Cumberlands and netted 12 points and seven boards against Campbellsville University. He injured the top of his left foot late in the first half against Georgetown College on February 2 and will be sidelined for the remainder of the season.

Denson finds the range off the bench

Senior Shamari Denton has provided much-needed scoring off the bench for the Phoenix, averaging 10.5 points with 12 double-figure scoring outings. The Kansas City, Mo., native collected 18 points versus Oakwood University, including 9-for-10 at the foul line, and netted 17 points against Philander Smith, hitting three 3-pointers. He posted 15 points at Bethel University, going 4-for-5 from behind the arc, and recorded 14 points, all after halftime, at Georgetown College, including a pair of 3-pointers. Denson added 12 points, including 6-for-6 at the foul line in the final 30 seconds, against Life University, and netted 13 against Campbellsville University, hitting a pair of triples. He posted 17 points at Shawnee State with four 3-pointers, his best scoring outing since early November, and collected 13 points on Thursday at Lindsey Wilson. He is shooting 36 percent (24-for-66) from 3-point range in 18 outings and has made 39-of-49 (.796) from the foul line this season.

Team improves many offensive numbers

Cumberland has improved across the board offensively through 22 games this season, increasing scoring as well as shooting percentage overall and from 3-point range. The Phoenix average 75.7 points per game compared to 74.9 in 2017-18 while shooting .461 percent from the field (.456 last season). The squad's 3-point percentage has also increased from .340 last year to .347 this season. Cumberland must continue to improve its free throw shooting, though, with this year's team hitting only .678 compared to .689 in 2017-18. Free throws hurt CU in the loss at Campbellsville University, with the squad hitting just 5-for-12 overall and 5-of-11 in the second half. The Phoenix have also been out-rebounded 12 times with a plus one margin in two other outings.

Roster undergoes changes at break

Cumberland's roster underwent significant changes over the Christmas break because of grades and dismissals. Guard Kareem Wright was dismissed from the team after the December 1 contest at Oakwood University for disciplinary reasons while three others players were academically ineligible after the fall semester. Guards Jason Williams, Hafeez Anifowoshe and Christian Smith all will sit out the spring semester. Wright and Williams both started and were the team's primary ball handlers in most contests while Anifowoshe and Smith had not played this fall. Shamari Denson returned to the lineup January 12 at Georgetown College after missing four games for a winter session class.

Phoenix picked seventh in Mid-South Preseason Coaches' Poll

Cumberland was picked seventh in the Mid-South Conference Preseason Coaches' Poll released in October by the league office. First-year head coach Jeremy Lewis, who spent the last nine seasons as the women's coach for the Phoenix, returns only four letterwinners and one

Head Coach Jeremy Lewis

Jeremy Lewis was named head coach for men's basketball at Cumberland on March 19, 2018, after spending the previous nine seasons as the women's coach for the Phoenix. Lewis just completed his 13th season as a full-time coach at his alma mater and his 17th year as a member of the Cumberland family as both a player and coach in 2017-18.

He has been a part of eight of Cumberland's 11 NAIA National Tournament appearances in school history between the men's and women's programs, including all three for the men and five of the eight for the women. He compiled a 150-116 mark in nine seasons as head coach for the CU women with four trips over the final six years to the national tournament.

Lewis led the program to one of the most successful years in school history in 2012-13, finishing 33-3 overall (school record for wins) and No. 4 in the final rankings. The Phoenix won the Mid-South Conference regular season and tournament titles and reached the NAIA Fab Four for the second time in program annals.

He was voted Mid-South Conference and Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Russell Athletic/Region 5 Coach of the Year during the campaign. CU made its first appearance in the NAIA National Tournament since 2007.

Cumberland was ranked in the Top 10 nationally from the first regular season poll of the year in December until the postseason, reaching as high as No. 5 in the country, then the highest ranking ever for the program. The Phoenix won their first regular season and conference tournament titles since 1998-99, also in the Mid-South Conference, and set the school record for victories, surpassing the previous mark of 27 held by the 1998-99 and 2006-07 squads.

Jessica Pace earned First Team All-Mid-South Conference accolades and TaCouya Allen, Briannica Tye and London Elie each garnered Second Team All-MSC honors. Pace also received Honorable Mention All-America honors from the WBCA and Second Team All-America accolades from the NAIA.

Lewis took over the women's program in May 2009 as interim head coach and had the interim tag removed in January 2010. The Phoenix finished the season 9-18 overall in his first year but dropped nine games by seven points or less. Allysia Bailey was voted TranSouth Conference Newcomer of the Year, Stephanie Martin was an All-Freshman Team selection and four players earned TranSouth Scholar-Athlete honors.

CU improved to 14-16 in 2010-11 and upped its record in TranSouth Conference play to 6-10. The squad lost five games by nine points or less that season as well. Casie Cowan garnered Second Team All-TranSouth and All-Freshman Team accolades and four players were named TranSouth Scholar-Athletes.

The 2011-12 club started the season 3-10 overall with losses to three ranked teams and three others who were ranked in the second half of the campaign. That stretch included single-digit defeats to future Mid-South Conference opponents St. Catharine College, Lindsey Wilson, Campbellsville University, Georgetown College and the University of the Cumberlands.

The Phoenix turned the season around in January, winning 12 of their final 16 contests, including two losses to eventual national runner-up Union University by a combined seven points. Cowan earned Honorable Mention All-America honors at the end of the season while Tamara Gonzalez was named an NAIA Scholar-Athlete. Cowan garnered First Team All-TranSouth honors for the second straight season and Simone Ryan and Courtney Atkinson both garnered Second Team accolades.

In 2013-14 the club suffered through a myriad of issues from injuries to illness and ineligibility. Despite a depleted roster that included several games with only seven healthy bodies, Cumberland battled to a 9-9 mark at the end of January that included six defeats and a pair of wins over ranked opponents. The lack of depth showed in the month of February, with the squad losing seven straight before ending the year with a victory on Senior Day. Cowan and Allen both earned Second Team All-Mid-South Conference honors and Tasia Blue was named an NAIA Scholar-Athlete.

In 2014-15 Cumberland began the year 8-2 before a double overtime home loss to then fifth-ranked Campbellsville. Injuries and ineligibility changed the club for the second half of the season, with CU dropping 6-of-7 including the Campbellsville loss, but the squad rebounded to win seven of its final 11 outings in the regular season and conference tournament.

Cumberland received an at-large berth into the NAIA National Tournament, the second trip to the national tourney under Lewis. Chelsey Hall earned First Team All-Mid-South and Third Team All-America accolades while Blue, Maryann Fenner and Andrea Morrisett were all named NAIA Scholar-Athletes.

In 2015-16 the Phoenix posted a 10-3 mark to start the campaign before running into trouble in the final game before Christmas, losing to Huntington University. That loss sent the club into a tailspin, dropping 6-of-8 contests. CU righted the ship in February, winning six of its final eight regular season games and earning another at-large berth into the national tournament.

Cumberland upset fourth-ranked Bethel University in the national tourney before falling to Lewis-Clark State. Hall garnered Third Team All-America honors again and Nicole Bowers was named Honorable Mention All-America while Hall was named an NAIA Scholar-Athlete.

The Phoenix posted a 9-1 mark to begin the 2016-17 campaign before an overtime loss at Campbellsville to begin the month of December. The club split its six league games in January and entered the month of February 15-5 overall. Cumberland lost its final seven contests of the year, five of those to ranked opponents, missing out on a third straight trip to the national tourney.

Bowers was voted Third Team All-America and First Team All-MSC while Taliah Moore and Julia Fox each garnered Second Team All-League accolades.

In 2017-18 Cumberland started the year 3-4 with losses to Martin Methodist, Freed-Hardeman, Vanguard University and the University of Providence, a pair of Top 10-ranked clubs and two that spent the rest of the regular season in the Top 25. The Phoenix reeled off eight straight victories from November 28-January 4 before conference play. CU finished Mid-South play 8-6 with all of the league defeats to Shawnee State, Campbellsville and Lindsey Wilson, teams ranked in the Top 10 nationally.

Cumberland received an at-large berth into the national tournament, its fourth in the last six seasons under Lewis, and lost to fourth-ranked Westmont College, 70-63, despite leading in the contest with four minutes to play. Micah Norris, Janisha Lindsey, Ant'Treasia Patton and Kyra Tucker garnered Second Team All-

Mid-South Conference honors while eight players were named Academic All-Mid-South and Cydney Goodrum earned NAIA Scholar-Athlete accolades.

Before becoming the women's head coach, Lewis served four seasons as a full-time assistant for coach Lonnie Thompson and the CU men's team. His roles included scouting, recruiting, film exchange and budgeting, as well as monitoring the student-athletes' progress both on and off the court. His main responsibilities included developing the team's wing and guard positions, composing scouting reports for game preparation and recruiting incoming student-athletes. During his four seasons as an assistant coach, the Phoenix compiled a 68-56 overall mark, including 46-18 in the final two seasons with consecutive trips to the NAIA National Tournament in 2008 and 2009.

Lewis spent three seasons as the starting point guard at Cumberland from 2002-04 before serving one season as a graduate assistant for the Phoenix women's basketball staff in 2005 (a team that finished 26-9 and reached the second round of the NAIA National Tournament). As a player he was named Honorable Mention All-Conference as a junior and senior and garnered NAIA Scholar-Athlete and Academic All-Conference accolades as a senior. He was the starting point guard on CU's team that reached the Round of 16 and won the TranSouth Conference regular season championship in 2004.

He graduated from CU in May of 2004 with a bachelor's in Sports Administration. Lewis prepped at Beech High School in Hendersonville, Tenn., and played one season at Aquinas Community College in Nashville under the tutelage of Hall of Fame coach Charlie Anderson before transferring to Cumberland. He is married for the former Martha Montiel and the couple has two children, Emery and Gigi.
