• - PFL Contest

WEEK 2 PREVIEW

The league's newest member and one of the original five will meet to open the 2009 PFL conference race in Week 2. Meanwhile, three other league members will meet fellow FCS opposition on the road. In addition, Dayton gets its season underway placing all 10 PFL members on the gridiron for the first time this season.

Marist, the league's newest member, and Drake, one of the league's founders, will meet in Poughkeepsie, N.Y., to start the 2009 PFL race. Both teams were picked to finish in the league's lower half, Drake picked sixth while Marist received the eighth-place nod. Both squads opened the 2009 campaign's on a winning note, Marist winning at Sacred Heart while Drake posted a home shut-out against Grand View.

Morehead State meets Northeast Conference member St. Francis (Pa.), Saturday. The Eagles went 1-1 against the NEC last season, losing to Robert Morris but downing St. Francis, 36-21.

Jacksonville also will hit the road to meet FCS opposition when it meets Southern Conference member Samford. The Dolphins opened their campaign with a 40-24 victory at Webber International. Samford entered the season receiving votes in the Sports Network's FCS poll but fell to Central Florida in its opener.

San Diego will travel across the Rocky Mountains to meet the Big Sky's Northern Colorado. The Toreros will attempt to rev up their high powered offense in the rarefied air of Greeley, Colo. (at an altitude of 4,666 feet). The Bears opened their season with a 49-3 loss at FBS No. 25 Kansas.

Elsewhere in the league, Campbell will head south to meet Birmingham-Southern in the first of two games involving PFL members in Birmingham, Ala. The Camels will look for their first-ever back-to-back victories after opening the season with a win at home. Davidson, fresh off a loss at nationally-ranked Elon, opens its home schedule when it hosts Lenoir-Rhyne. Dayton, which did not play in Week 1, will get its campaign underway when it hosts Urbana at Welcome Stadium. Butler will stay in the state of Indiana for a second straight week, traveling to meet in-state foe Franklin. Valparaiso will seek its season's first victory when it meets Concordia (Wis.) in a battle of Lutheran-affiliated schools.

2008 PIONEER FOOTBALL LEAGUE WEEKLY REPORT

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Andrew Huck, Butler

Sophomore, Quarterback, Bloomington, Ind.

Making his first collegiate start, Huck had a hand in all six touchdowns of Butler's 42-0 victory against Albion, Saturday. He completed 18-of-25 passes for 327 yards and threw for a school-record tying five touchdowns, including four second-quarter TD strikes. His 327 yards passing were the sixth most by an FCS quarterback in Week 1 and he posted the subdivision's third-best passer rating (239.87) among qualifying passers. Huck also posted a team-best 68 yards rushing on eight carries, including a three-yard touchdown run that capped the scoring in the third quarter.
