WEEK 11 PREVIEW

The PFL regular-season reaches its decision weekend as league co-leaders Dayton and Jacksonville will look to avoid one last challenge to their unblemished PFL marks ☛ JACKSONVILLE returns home and will host CAMPBELL in its regular-season finale. The Dolphins bring a 10-game PFL win streak into the contest and have not lost at D.B. Milne Field this season. The Camels are 2-1 on the road this season, but lost their last road trip to Dayton. The game will feature two of the league's top quarterbacks, but for different reasons. Jacksonville's Josh McGregor has passed for 31 touchdowns and owns an impressive 172.7 efficiency rating. Campbell's quarterback Daniel Polk is a ground threat and is one of three runners with 11 touchdowns this season ☛ Kicking off at the same time will be DAYTON's visit to MARIST. The Flyers have quietly amassed a nine-game PFL win streak and their only loss this season was a four-point defeat at Duquesne. The Red Foxes have not won a PFL game at Tenney Stadium this season, their only overall victory at home coming in Week 2 against Bucknell. Dayton quarterback Steve Valentino leads all PFL quarterback with 628 rushing yards and ranks third in passing yardage (1,991 total yards). Marist wideout James LaMacchia enters the game as the league's top receiver, averaging 6.9 receptions per game, and caught three touchdowns last week ☛ SAN DIEGO wraps up its 2010 campaign with a trip east to face DAVIDSON. The Toreros won in their last trip to the Eastern time zone, their Week 7 victory at Marist which was their only road win this season. Davidson has not won consecutive games this season, ending a two-game losing streak at Marist last week. San Diego quarterback Mason Mills enters the weekend as the league's No. 2 signal-caller in pass efficiency (141.7 rating). Davidson running back Kenny Mantuo rushed 35 times for 124 yards in last week's victory, more than a fourth of his 475 yards this season ☛ VALPARAISO travels to MOREHEAD STATE after both suffered losses on the road last week. The Crusaders will look to end their season on a high note. The Eagles return home seeking their first PFL victory at Jayne Stadium this season. Morehead State quarterback Zach Lewis remains second among PFL signal callers with 251.0 passing yards per game and has attempted more passes (337 in nine games) than any other PFL quarterback. Valparaiso punter Greg Wood has averaged 42.9 yards per punt this season and is just shy of the PFL record for punting average (43.19 by Butler's Shawn Wood in 1998) ☛ DRAKE will look to cement its hold on third place when BUTLER comes to town. Both teams took tough losses to the league's co-leaders last week, Drake falling at Dayton while Butler could not hold off Jacksonville. Drake defensive end Dain Taylor leads the league in tackles for loss (2.15 pg) and is second in sacks (1.25 pg). Butler linebacker Jordan Ridley enters the weekend averaging a league-best 11.5 tackles per game and is the only tackler with more than 100 tackles after Week 10.

2010 NCAA INFORMATION TO KNOW

NCAA DIVISION I FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP EXPANDS, CHANGES LOCATIONS:

In 2010, 20 teams will qualify for the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

It is the first time since 1987 the NCAA Division I Football Championship has been expanded – then from 12 teams to 16 teams. In addition 10 of the 14 FCS conferences will receive automatic bids into the tournament – the Big South and Northeast Conferences gaining automatic berths. Entering 2010 there are 124 programs competing in football at the Division I FCS level.

PFL COULD RECEIVE AT-LARGE BID IN 2010: While the PFL did not receive a automatic qualifying spot into the 2010 championship, the league could still receive what would amount to an automatic at-large bid. Under criteria established by the championship committee, the PFL champion could receive an automatic at-large bid if it meets three criteria. First, it must win eight games against Division I opposition. Secondly, it must win two games against opponents from the 10 automatic qualifying conferences. Finally, it must finish the season ranked among the top 20 in the polls as calculated by the championship committee.

DIVISION I FCS, PLEASE: Although some people may accidentally still refer to it as I-AA football, the term that represents the level of Division I football in which the Pioneer Football League competes has been retired. Beginning with the 2006 National Championship game, the term Football Championship Subdivision (or FCS) is to be used. FCS is the only Division I football rank to host a NCAA-sponsored national championship (one of 88 championships the NCAA sponsors). The division formerly known as I-A was changed to Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and those teams compete for the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) national championship. Teams who play at the FCS level can offer a maximum of 63 scholarships (FBS teams can offer 85) and compete in a 20-team playoff at the end of the season to determine the national champion.

DAYTON SHUTOUT STREAK STILL GOING STRONG: Entering the 2010 season, the Flyers have not been shutout in 377 consecutive games, dating back to Oct. 16, 1976. During that streak Dayton has shutout its opponent 63 times. A list of the last shutout win and loss for each PFL squad is available on page 8.

DAYTON PICKED TO WIN PFL: Ten-time Pioneer Football League Champion Dayton was tapped as the favorite in the league's pre-season coaches' poll. The Flyers received four first-place votes and 71 points. Also receiving first-place votes were second-pick Butler (two) and third-pick Jacksonville (four).

NEW SIGHTS AWAIT AT PFL SCHOOLS: A building boom of sorts overtook the league's members over the summer with Butler and Jacksonville renovating their football facilities while Valparaiso added lights to Brown Stadium. Butler is completing renovations to its seating area and press box at the Butler Bowl, matching updates to its playing surface in 2005. Jacksonville has installed a new AstroTurf playing surface at D.B. Milne Field, replacing the natural turf that was the field's surface since 1998. One year after installing its own artificial surface, Valparaiso has added lights at Brown Stadium and will play its first-ever game under the lights when it hosts St. Joseph's (Ind.), Sept. 18.

Notes on PFL Championship: From 1993-2000 – and returning to the format in 2005 – the PFL was composed of one division and the championship went to the team with the best conference record. From 2001-2005, the league expanded and split into two divisions - North (N) and South (S) - with the divisional winners, who were the teams with the best record against divisional opponents, facing off in a championship game, the winner of that game was awarded the league's championship.
