WEEK 3 PREVIEW

The 2010 PFL race gets underway in Week 3 as Campbell hosts Davidson and Morehead State travels to Dayton. 🏈 CAMPBELL will seek its first victory against DAVIDSON, the Wildcats winning the previous two meetings in the series. The Camels will look to rebound from a home-opening loss to Old Dominion in Week 2 while the Wildcats still seek 2010's first victory. 🏈 DAYTON won last season's meeting on the road, ending MOREHEAD STATE's three-game win streak in the series. The Eagles will look to quarterback Zach Lewis who threw for 458 yards in a Week 2 victory, the best passing effort in the FCS this season. The Flyers will counter with quarterback Steve Valentino, a preseason Walter Payton Award candidate. 🏈 JACKSONVILLE will make its first appearance at renovated D.B. Milne Field when it hosts Webber International. The Dolphins saw a new AstroTurf surface installed since posting a 4-1 record at home last season. 🏈 BUTLER also will make its first appearance at a renovated stadium when it hosts Taylor. The Butler Bowl had new seating and a press box renovation during the offseason. The Bulldogs were unbeaten (7-0) at home in 2009 on their way to a share of the PFL championship. 🏈 DRAKE will take on Week 3's biggest challenge when they travel to nationally-ranked Montana State. After holding Missouri S&T to seven rushing yards, the Bulldogs will face the FCS' No. 10 offensive attack – Montana State is averaging 469.5 yards per game. The Bobcats are coached Rob Ash, who was the Bulldogs head coach for 18 seasons. 🏈 VALPARAISO returns home and will experience a first at Brown Stadium when the lights installed this offseason are switched on for the first night game in program history against St. Joseph's (Ind.). The Crusaders also hope to flip the switch on their offense, which has averaged just 170 yards in the season's first two games. 🏈 SAN DIEGO returns to Torero Stadium seeking its season's first victory as it hosts UC Davis. It is the first time since 1995 the Toreros have opened a campaign with two straight losses. UC Davis will visit San Diego with revenge in mind after the Toreros won last season's meeting, their first victory in four tries.
